Grand Stand Collapses At Big Welsh Show

(Dominion News Service.) PWILLHELI, Wales, Oct. 5.—Great excitement was caused at the South Carmarvonshire Agricultural Show, at Pwllheli, attended by 10,000 people. During the jumping competition the grand stand, containing 700 people collapsed with a loud report. The spectators fell to the bottom and were pinned down under the falling timber. Immediately the stand collapsed there was a rush of spectators from other parts of the ground to help those who were mixed up in the wreckage. The stand, the highest row of which was 6 ft. from the ground was an uncovered one. As it collapsed sideways the effects were not so serious as they would have been had it dropped straight down. Several women fainted. A number of men and women sustained minor injuries, which were dressed on the spot and they were able to proceed to their homes. A woman visitor from Sheffield who is staying with D. H. Williams the headmaster of the Pwllheli County School, was the most seriously injured, two of her ribs being broken. Dr. Shelton Jones has his leg injured by a piece of timber which pinned him down, but in spite of this he attended the others who were injured. He was helped by Dr. R. D. Evans, another spectator of Blaenau-Fostinlog. A hurdle race was in progress when the accident happened and after the injured had been attended the races were continued. The police did splendid service and afterwards recovered a large quantity of lost property, including purses, umbrellas and cameras, which were returned to their owners.

Rev. Dr. Campbell's Address Before C. W. L. Meeting

On Tuesday evening in Rosary Hall the open meeting of the Catholic Women's League of Charlottetown Diocese was addressed by Rev. Dr. Campbell, of Alberton, who took for his subject "Some phases of work particularly suited to members of C. W. L." Commenting on the splendid nationwide organization of which the ladies present were a unit, he showed the need for such, and the exceeding great good and earnest Christian body of women such as the Catholic Women's League could accomplish in the world today. It was, said the Reverend lecturer, that a grave responsibility had been placed upon the women of Canada, and he urged for purity of thought and fearlessness of action in upholding the right and supporting that which is for the betterment of humanity. Women were facing public questions with a clear mind, free from the traditional call to partisanship which is so much a part of the male attitude. To keep their minds clear and their conscience clean, and use their influence for what is the ultimate good of their country and the citizens of it, was their privilege, and he was sure they would give a worthy account of their stewardship. Education of the proper kind was essential today. Not the superficial, but the supernatural element was what was needed and Christian education and Christian life is the salvation of a nation. Rev. Dr. Campbell dwelt on the power of the press and what today is almost as great an agency of forming public opinion, the moving picture. He showed his hearers clearly how these agencies could be used to make for the betterment of mankind and the raising of the moral standards of the community and urged the C. W. L. to make itself an apostolate whereby this might be brought about. The lecture throughout was of a most interesting and instructive nature and the hall was filled to capacity with an eager crowd of members of the local sub-division and their friends together with the visiting delegates.

A splendid musical program together with interesting reports of Dominion and local work completed an evening of rare enjoyment.

"O CANADA." O Canada! Our Fatherland, our Thy brow is crowned with glory and renown! For thine arm that knows how to raise the sword! Knows how to uphold the Cross! Thy valor is a glowing word On history's pages across! Honour and Faith like sentries stand To guard our liberties, our laws, our land. Neath the eyes of God, beside a giant stream We Canadian dwell wrapped in a golden dream; Our land we know, below the skies is fairest of the earth, By heroes' deeds and Martyr's sighs, 'Twas blessed at its birth! Raising our flag proudly on high, We swear for it, that we will live and die!

Words by Miss Belle Guerin.

STOCKHOLM, Oct. 5.—The balancing of accounts at the end of the worst period of unemployment which Sweden has ever weathered shows the following debit and credit: a total public liability of $30,000,000 to provide work for the jobless, about 1,500 miles of new and improved roads, many new bridges, new telephone lines, forty-six new athletic fields, now aviation fields, new barracks, extensive forest improvements, and reforestation and opening up of large new tracts of arable land.

This information is the result of researches made by two leading Stockholm newspapers on the occasion of reporting the lowest amount of unemployment during two and a half years, the figures now being only 20,000 as against 163,000 in February, 1922. Practically all of the large funds expended have been for constructive relief work, while steadily decreasing sums have been set aside for direct subvention. At present only about 150 persons are receiving unemployment doles.

French, are Worried About the Olympics, Seek American Aid

(Associated Press.) PARIS, Oct. 4.—Successive defeats of French athletes by teams from England and Sweden in the course of dual meets held recently in Paris, have caused much concern among French Olympic officials as to the probable chances of success of the French representatives at the Olympic games next year.

England nearly doubled the score of the French, while Sweden won by the comfortable margin of 102 points to 78.

Such is the concern that the French Olympic committee is seriously considering the employment of professional trainers from other countries to prepare their Olympic athletes. James Duncan, holder of the world's discus-throwing record, and W. H. "Sparrow" Robertson, one of the greatest American authorities on foot running, have been approached by the committee with a view of interesting them in the proposition. It is a question of dollars and cents with these two Americans, however, and although their demands are relatively modest, the franc is rather low just at present.

Frantz-Reichel, general secretary of the committee, writing in "L'Avant" says: "The English and the Swedes have defeated us. The best athletes won. Their excellent condition and the superiority of their technique and style are the causes of their legitimate success. We in France, also have talent of great intrinsic quality, but our weakness lies in its development. We must get experienced professional trainers who, properly paid, would devote their entire time to the study and teaching of the methods which, adopted in America, England, Finland and the Scandinavian countries, have made those nations supreme in the athletic field.

In the recent Franco-Sweden meet the French did very well in the sprints, Andre Mourlon and Jean Verquin, both of France, finishing first and second in the 100 meters. Mourlon turned in 10.45 seconds.

Corbonney, the revelation of the games, a slim French youth of 19, carried off the 200 meters in 22.15 in front of Engdahl and Branting.

The French also won the 400 meters relay, Andre Mourlon, Rene Mourlon, Hirilmann and Lorrain, negotiating the distance in 42.25 seconds, breaking the French record of 42.45 which had stood since 1921.

In the longer distances, 400, 800, 1,500, 5,000 and 10,000 meters, the Swedes were supreme.

France also was outclassed in the held events and the shot, discus and javelin throw. Lewden won the only field event that went to France, the high jump, with a mark of 1.90 meters.

More than 50,000 people journeyed to Pershing Stadium during the two days that the meet lasted.

(Canadian Press.) Rome, Oct. 5.—As the first year of Fascist rule in Italy draws to a close, it is interesting to consider what has been accomplished in the agricultural and industrial life of the nation. It is believed that the increased energy and confidence on the part of landowners and farmers, together with favorable weather conditions, has started Italy on the road to greater production and prosperity.

The number of unemployed has steadily declined; the official returns for the months of March and April, 1923, show a reduction of almost one-half as compared to the corresponding months of 1922.

There have been practically no strikes or labor troubles since the Fascist and their leader undertook to run the Government of Italy last October. The Ministry of Agriculture estimates that the gross value of Italy's crops for 1923 will exceed that of 1922 by about 4,000,000 lire; the yields of wheat, barley and rye are about 23 per cent. higher than in 1922, and from 19 to 22 per cent higher than the averages for the last five years.

In addition, foreign crops, silk cocoons, vines, sugar beets and tomatoes have all been more extensively cultivated and have yielded larger crops.

(Dominion News Service.) LONDON, Oct. 5.—The finest specimen of Chelsea china ever made, "Una and the Lion," worth thousands of guineas, was auctioned at a sale here yesterday where its real worth was unknown. Albert Amor, a well-known antiquarian here, got it for £175.

There was nothing in the catalogue to indicate the piece had any special value, but after Amor bought it, it was revealed it was a piece of the Red Anchor period, which had been lost to the sight of collectors for years.

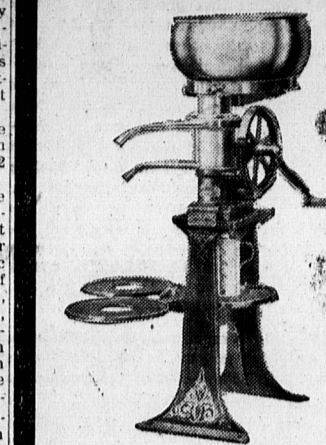

(Dominion News Service.) PARIS, Oct. 5.—A fisherman near Toulon, while attending his sardine nets, saw a big fish creating havoc among his catch and threw out a special line kept for heavy fish.

The fish nearly dragged him into the water, but with the assistance of other men, he hauled the line in and saw a shark and a swordfish fighting fiercely at the end of it, the former being on the hook.

The swordfish repeatedly stabbed the shark, cutting deep gashes in his side. Owing to being hooked the shark was unable to defend himself and becoming weaker was easily landed, while his enemy swam away. The shark was nearly five feet long.

British Officials Dismissed Wholesale

(Dominion News Service.) LONDON, Oct. 5.—It is reported from Jerusalem that more than four hundred senior and junior British officials and as many natives are to be dismissed for reasons of economy.

The "Palestine Weekly," a Zionist newspaper, declares the economic situation has never been worse and that the plight of agriculture is bad. Relations between the various sections of the population are strained.

Official immigration figures for July disclose a new low record. Only 386 persons entered the country, including forty-four non-Jews and tourists who obtained permission to stay.

Rabbi Blau, one of the Palestinian delegates to the Vienna World Congress of the orthodox organization Agudath (Israel) said in an interview that the congress passed a resolution asking the British Government for religious freedom for orthodox Jews in Palestine. They protested against the Zionists' imposing compulsory taxation on all Jews.
