Georgetown and Vicinity

A large crowd of interested spectators attended the Carnival held in the Georgetown Bunk on Thursday, Feb. 14th. The number of visitors was perhaps not as large as in former years but many interesting and attractive costumes were in evidence. Ladies' First prize was won by Mrs. J. Waldron Lavers, as Bohemian Dancer; Gentleman's First Prize went to Mr. James Mair, as Arab Chief. Prize for most humorous costume was won by Timmie Mair, who represented a witch. Other prizes awarded included: Miss Julia Prosser as Drum Major; Miss Bernice Delory and Miss Irene Helen McConnell as Gold Dust Twins; Gerald Elewelyn as Pirate. Also winning a prize was Junior Miss Laverne George for her novel costume of Little Red Riding Hood. Judges were: Mrs. Dr. A. A. Kennedy, Mrs. Patrick Murphy, Mrs. George White, Mrs. Winifred McEwen and Mrs. Gordon Ross.

Maritime Y.M.C.A. Conference

A delegation from the Charlottetown Y.M.C.A. attended the Maritime Y.M.C.A. conference held at Moncton recently. George MacDougall, Lloyd Grant, Jack Stevenson of the H.V. Grade Club, and J. A. McConnell, general secretary of the local Association, comprised the delegation. As on previous occasions, the conference was being conducted in various parts of the Maritime Provinces. The Y.M.C.A. Self-Study, "The Years Ahead," which was recently published, discussions were conducted around such subjects as "Church and Y.M.C.A. Relationships," "Christianity in the Y.M.C.A. Program," "The World Service Program of the Y.M.C.A.," "Leadership Recruiting and Training," "Group Work," "The Establishment of a Regional Y.M.C.A. Office in the Maritimes," and "The Place of Women and Girls in the Small City Y. M. C. A."

MRS. A. SINCLAIR MACRAE

The death occurred in the Prince Edward Island Hospital, on December 19th, of Mrs. A. Sinclair Macrae of "Fruitful" St. Anne's. The late Mrs. Macrae, who was in her 58th year was born in North Sydney, the daughter of James Murdoch and (Ann Macrae) Morrison of that place. She was in failing health for the past year and everything was done for her but God willed otherwise. She was a woman of sterling qualities, a good mother and a devoted wife. She will be greatly missed in her church, Woman's Missionary Society and Women's Institute in which she always took an active part. She leaves to mourn besides her husband, two daughters, Penelope and Mrs. C. N. Morrison of North Sydney and Isabelle, Mrs. N. S. Morrison of South Pointe. The funeral service which was held in the afternoon at 2 o'clock, was conducted by Rev. E. C. Evans of Belfast, who spoke comforting words to the bereaved and read the prayer for the departed. The service was held in the presence of many friends and many were shocked to hear of her death. He was a man of many sterling qualities ever ready to lend a helping hand to those in need.

Men Past 40! "Old"? Want Old-time Pep, Vim? Want Normal, Younger Feeling?

Do you say you're "old" when you feel, listen, or respond as do 50, 60, 70? Don't let your vitality fade with age. Get the extra energy, pep, vim, and normal feeling that comes from Dr. Williams' Pink Pills for Pale People. This is the only medicine that builds up the blood, restores vitality, and gives you the feeling of youth. It's the only medicine that's been used for over 50 years and is still the same. It's the only medicine that's been used by millions of men and women and has helped them feel like young boys and girls again. It's the only medicine that's been used by the most famous doctors in the world and is still the same. IN MEMORIAM

MR. MARTIN HUSTLER

There passed peacefully away at the Western Hospital, Alberton in January 24th, Martin Hustler in his eighty-first year. The late Mr. Hustler had been in failing health for the past year, and about seven weeks prior to his death entered the above hospital for treatment, but despite medical care and tender nursing by the sisters he passed away after being fortified by the right of the Catholic Church of which he was a member. Mr. Hustler resided in Mimmsburgh all his life where he made many friends and many were shocked to hear of his death. He was a man of many sterling qualities ever ready to lend a helping hand to those in need. In politics he was a strong supporter of the Liberal Party. His wife, the former Agnes Butler pre-deceased him over two years ago, also one son, Howard. He leaves to mourn his passing seven children, namely, Mrs. Leo McInnis, (Mary) Braeton, Mrs. Peter O'Holloran, (Fannie) Lot J. Winnifred and Ada at home, Albert and Peter of Detroit, Michigan, Richard on the homestead, also one brother John of Detroit. The funeral was held from his late residence, Sabbath, January twenty-sixth to the Church of the Immaculate Conception, Palmer Road, Reverend Father Walsh officiating. The pallbearers were: Messrs. Lloyd Butler, Howard Moller, Howard Costain, Russell Callahan, Patrick Callahan and Merrill Deagle.

SUCCESS W. I.

Mrs. James M. Campbell, Graham's Road, entertained the members of Success W. I. at her home on Tuesday evening, Feb. 12th. Meeting opened with singing the Ode and repeating the creed in unison. The minutes of last meeting were read and approved and fifteen members responded to roll call by naming a member of the federal cabinet. Several items of correspondence were read and discussed including a letter from the Public Health Nurse, Miss Wheeler and several public health pamphlets were distributed. 25 boxes of everyday cards were ordered by the members. The Visiting Com. reported having visited the sick and took them boxes of fruit. The teacher was asked to purchase paper towels for use in the school. The Red Cross Conventor reported having received material for sewing and knitting and distributed it to the members. $20. was voted as a contributor to P.E.I. Hospital drive. Mrs. James Williams conducted the program on social welfare.

GREEN BAY SCHOOL CONCERT

The pupils of Green Bay School presented their annual Christmas concert to a very large and appreciative audience of parents, ratepayers and friends. The schoolroom was attractively decorated for the occasion by the teacher, Miss Noreen Costello, assisted by Miss Mable Graves, while a large and heavily laden tree was the centre of attraction. Under the capable chairmanship of Mr. Mac Costello the following program was presented:

Chorus by School.
Welcome by Gus Costello.
Duet: Just Across The Bridge of Gold, Etta Costello and Rena Currie (encore).
Dialogue - A Helping Hand - Louis Costello and Louis Carragher.
Trio - Playmates - Anita Murray, Marion Costello and Stella Flood (encore).
Recitation - Stella Flood.
Intermission - Sale of candy.
Dialogue - Fooling the Agent - Louis Carragher, Rena Currie and Etta Costello.
Solo - His Message Home - Bernice Flood (encore).
Duet - Scheming Sammy - Gerald Carragher, Colin Currie, Etta Costello and Rena Currie.
Junior pupils.
Gus Costello, Brenden Costello, Lawrence Costello, Carl Flood, Emma Costello, Marion Costello, Stella Flood and Anita Murray.

Dialogue - A Sultor Bold - Rena Currie and Louis Costello.
Duet - Mother's Prayer - Doris Costello and Noreen Flood (encore).
Recitation - Helen Cudmore.
Closing Chorus by School.

At the conclusion of the program the chairman in a few well chosen words, congratulated the teacher and pupils on their splendid program. Santa then arrived and distributed gifts to the teacher and pupils. The children present were then treated to candy by their teacher after which Santa departed to his home in the Northland, wishing all a Merry Christmas. The National Anthem brought this part to a close. The young people of the surrounding districts passed the latter part of the evening in dancing. Music was furnished by: Guitler, Miss Viola Toole, Violin, Messrs. Matthias Flood and Pope Costello.

FIGHT ASTHMA MUCUS EASY WAY

Mr. G. C. Beasler, Truro, N. S., was asthmatic, would cough and choke for hours every night and was not helped. Mendoc's medicine was tried and he was quickly stopped. He has now felt better than for years. To prove that Mendoc's may do the same for you, we make this liberal offer: Get Mendoc's from your druggist today! Unless it loosens and relieves your chest, brings free breathing, restful sleep and frees you from the suffering of asthma attacks, return the empty package and get all your money back. You have nothing to lose. So don't suffer another day without taking your druggist for Mendoc's.

UNOFFICIAL REPORTS FROM WASHINGTON

OTHER FEATURES THIS WEEK

"WHO SAYS FARMERS DON'T WORK IN THE WINTER?"

Maybe you think that when winter comes farmers do nothing else but eat, sleep and listen to the soap-box opera? That's what Romy Jacques, The Standard's own photographer thought; too, until he spent a day on the Pollock farm. He came back with a photo story that tells a different story.

"VIRGIN WITH BUTTERFLIES"

She knew how to get a man and how to get rid of a wolf! The gal we're talking about is the leading lady in The Standard's complete novel entitled, "Virgin with Butterflies", a breezy, likable story you'll enjoy.

"Eating at the Ski Lodge"

by Kate Athton

Jean and George Adams run a small but highly efficient ski lodge in the Laurentians. Guests say they come for the excellent skiing and the excellent food. Kate Aitken investigated them into letting her feature the recipes in The Standard this week!

"DO CANADIANS KNOW HOW TO KISS?"

Is there a real technique in kissing? Earl Roberts Graham of Vancouver, Alta. believes there is. More than 2,300 lads and lassies have written him for advice. In The Standard this week, he gives some of it away for free.
