The bride wore a becoming dress of turquoise blue with white accessories and a corsage of pink roses. The bridesmaid wore a brown silk jersey dress with brown accessories. After the ceremony the wedding party left for Charlottetown where a beautiful wedding supper was served in the blue room of the Old Spain, then returned to the bride's home where a large crowd of charivariers were awaiting their return. After many expressions of good wishes to the bride and groom, they then left for their home in Kingston where they will reside.

MISCELLANEOUS SHOWER—A very pleasant evening was spent at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Earl Ward of Hampshire, on Aug. 7th, when a large number of friends and neighbors gathered to honor Mr. and Mrs. Leith Newson on their previous wedding on July 25th. The young couple were escorted to the seat of honor by Mr. and Mrs. Calvin Holmes, while Mrs. Easton played "Here Comes The Bride". Miss Marilyn MacLeod then presented the bride with a beautiful bouquet of flowers. The artistically decorated baskets laden with gifts were carried in by Milton Ward and Joan Stewart. The gifts were opened by Miss Norma Tremere and Miss Vera MacPherson, while the accompanying verses were read by Miss Lois Green and Miss Alice Edwards. Mrs. Calvin Holmes arranged them on the table, consisting of glass wear, china, silver, linen, bedding, and a substantial sum of money. Afterwards the groom thanked everyone for their lovely gifts and extended an invitation for all to visit them at their new home in Kingston. The guests joined in singing For They Are Jolly Good Fellows. The bride and groom were then bounced. A dainty lunch was then served by the ladies, after which the party departed for their homes wishing the guests of honor a long and prosperous wedded life.

—FAMILY PICNIC — On Tuesday afternoon, Aug. 13th, the Weeks family gathered together for a picnic at Chelton Beach. The weather man was at his best so the members of the clan in attendance enjoyed themselves to the fullest. The chief guest was Dr. Ernest Weeks who recently returned from London, England, and is now the guest of his father, the Rev. E. S. Weeks, B.A., B.D., Bedeque. The afternoon was spent in bathing and after a bountiful supper was partaken by all, Dr. Weeks was bounced while all sang "For He's A Jolly Good Fellow." Dr Weeks gave one of his witty speeches, which was enjoyed. After several snaps had been taken of the group, all departed for their homes hoping they would all be spared to have another Weeks picnic next year and then his wife and son, Peter, would be able to be present also. S

RETURNS FROM TORONTO— Mr. Arthur R. Macdonald, of St. Peter's Bay, P.E.I., has recently returned from a trip to Ontario. Mr. Macdonald left the Charlottetown Exhibition with a carload of Jersey cattle for Venture Croft Farm at Chesterville, Ontario. In the lot were a cow and a calf for Mr. Alfred Bagg & Sons, of Edgeley, Ontario. Mr. Bagg has a champion bull that he purchased from Dr. J. P. Lantz. From the Doctor he purchased the dam of this bull. While at Toronto, Mr. Macdonald was the guest of James Bremner, secretary of the Canadian Jersey Cattle Club, who spent some time with Mr. Macdonald, showing him the herds in the vicinity of Toronto. Mr. Macdonald reports that the carload of cattle that he took from P. E. I. to Ontario is the highest priced carload of Jersey cattle to ever leave the Maritimes. The load was made up mostly of daughters and granddaughters of the Charlottetown Jersey Club's famous herd sire, Brampton Jester's Standard 2nd.

—SOCIAL GATHERING — On Thursday evening, Aug. 22, a very enjoyable evening was spent at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Errol Laughlin, Sherbrooke, when a large number of their neighbors and friends gathered to give them a "House Warming" and to extend to them a welcome to the community. For the occasion the house was very prettily decorated in pink and white. Mr. Frank Townsend very capably presided and after the guests had assembled called upon Mr. George Chappell to read an address of welcome to the young couple. Many useful gifts were then presented, including a large sum of money. Mr. Laughlin on behalf of his bride and himself thanked everyone for their kindness and extended to all an invitation to visit them again in the near future, after which all joined in singing For They Are Jolly Good Fellows. Lunch was served by the ladies and the remainder of the evening was spent in music and dancing. The music was furnished by Messrs. P. E. I. PIONEER HONOURED —The Guardian has received from Mr. James Pendergast an interesting clipping from the High River Times, published in High River, Alberta, describing the opening of the big Rodeo by Senator D. E. Riley. The latter is a native of Malpeque, P. E. I., and taught school here in his early days. He crossed the Prairies in the "Red River cart" shortly before the C.P.R. was built, and is today one of the most prominent of the "old timers" in the Canadian Northwest. At the Rodeo opening Mayor Macleod said High River was honored by the presence of Senator Riley, whom he described as "our distinguished pioneer statesman" and one who had given "very great service to the livestock industry through the years, and has ably served this community in many ways." As a gift of remembrance the Senator was presented with a beautiful painting of a foothill scene by Gissing.

The death of Mrs. Amelia McLean, widow of the late Murdie McLean, occurred in the Charlottetown Hospital on August 1st, 1946. The deceased who was 81 years of age, was a daughter of the late Walter and Mary Jane (Weldon) Lowe her maiden name being Amelia Ann Tamsen Lowe. Her father was well known, as an expert carpenter, who carried on for many years, a prosperous building trade in the city of Charlottetown.

Although the late Mrs. McLean had been in failing health for some time, she was able to attend to her household duties. She was suddenly taken sick and rushed to the hospital, but despite best medical attention, passed away after a few days illness.

She leaves to mourn one son John of Charlottetown, also one granddaughter and one grandson.

The funeral service, which was held from the MacLean Funeral Home on Saturday, August 3rd, was conducted in the immediate presence of relatives and friends, by Rev. Douglas Henderson, assistant minister of St. Peter's Anglican Church. Interment was made in the St. Peter's Cemetery.
