Persons using flour should always ask for flour made from Manitoba wheat as it absorbs more water than any other and makes better bread. Ask for Robinson's. If you can't get Robinson's get Five Roses or Royal Household. These ought to be as good as they are ground from the same kind of wheat and by the same process. 3-4331

The death occurred on Sunday evening of John Stewart, Norboro. He had been ill of congestion of the lungs only since Tuesday last, previous to his death. He was a brother of William Stewart of Sinclair & Stewart, Summerside, and father of Dr. John Stewart, Tyne Valley. Two other sons, James at Kensington, and Hugh on the homestead, and one daughter Miss Elizabeth at home, are left to mourn.

Fred McNutt, teller in the Bank of Nova Scotia, Summerside, received orders Saturday night to report at Am Prior, Ontario, as soon as possible. He leaves this morning via Georgetown for his new duties. Mr. McNutt has been connected with the bank only 14 months, during seven of which he has been teller. His promotion has been rapid and although his many Summerside friends regret his departure they are pleased to know that it is an upward step in his profession. Frank Reid, formerly teller-keeper, succeeds Mr. McNutt as teller.

STOCK NOTES.

Trainer Henry Titer is greatly pleased with the stallion Aquilin, bought at Allen Farm not long since. Mr. Titer has seen nearly all of the best of Bingen's get but says he has never seen a handsomer one among them than Aquilin and he is the best mannered one of them that he has ever handled, perfectly fearless, safe for a city to drive, never makes a break when speed fast. It is his intention to use him and race him this season. Several youngsters by Aquilin showed ability to trot miles from 2.30 to 2.18 last season as two-year-olds. Aquilin mentioned in the above clipping from the American Horse Breeder of Boston, Mass., is the sire of Aquiri, owned by J. M. Nicholson of this city. The fastest year old trotter in the Allen Farm list is Aquila a full sister of Aquiri. This filly trotted eight and 19 seconds a 2.32 clip.
