—ANNANDALE.—There was quite a stir to the village Christmas trees.—The ice has not been bused yet.—There is about 7 inches of ice on the old track but it is somewhat soft being salt water.—The fishermen are doing very well with the smelts.—Mr. J. M. Morrow is taking in quite a lot.—Mrs. G. Jackson returned home on Sunday to Fortune Bridge. She had been visiting her parents Mr. and Mrs. John Howlett, Annandale.—Mr. I. Lapera returned recently from Halifax.—Mr. R. Robertson and Mr. John Lapera came home from Annapolis last week where they were working.—The Village school is still vacant. It seems too bad for such a nice school not to have a teacher.—The farmers are getting to work cutting their firewood.—Mr. Peter Banks remains were brought home from Amherst, N.S. and buried at St. George's.—Q.

CONCERT AND CHRISTMAS TREE

On the evening of Tuesday, Dec. 23rd a very enjoyable concert and Christmas tree was held in the Orange Hall at Hunter River under the auspices of the Presbyterian Sunday School.

The chair was occupied by Rev. R. H. Stavert and the following programme was well rendered: Opening chorus, "Christmas Bells," choir. Remarks by chairman, Rev. R. H. Stavert. Solo and chorus by Dorothy Nicholson and a number of the girls. Recitation, Frank McMillan. Recitation, George Essory. Duet, Beatrice McLeod and Dorothy Nicholson. Recitation, Dorothy Cuttiff. Doll Drill, by ten children. Motion Song, by six children. Recitation, Stanley Ross. Address, Mr. Frank Yates. Duet, Majorie and Allan Wedlock. Recitation, Johnnie Ross. Solo, Mrs. Herman Calbeck, (encored), (encored). Star Drill, by fourteen girls. Chorus, by the girls. Recitation, Allan Wedlock. Recitation, Dorothy Nicholson, (encored). Song, Dorothy Nicholson. Chorus, by six children. "From on High," immediately following the close of the last chorus Mrs. (Dr.) Rodger, organist of the Presbyterian church, was waited upon and presented with an address and a well filled purse of gold. The address was read by Rev. R. H. Stavert and the presentation was made by Mr. Ewen S. McLeod, Supt. of the Sunday School. Although taken altogether by surprise Mrs. Rodger, in a very neat speech thanked the people of the church and the community for such a splendid gift. In a very few minutes the bells of Santa Claus were heard sounding out in the evening air. It was not long before he came limping into the hall, weary and worn after his long trip from the North Pole. He gave a very interesting account of his trip and the places he visited on the way. He also told of the letters and requests he had received from children and young ladies regarding what they wished him to bring them. Santa then distributed a large number of gifts of candy, nuts and other remembrances to the children and also to a number of the grown people. The Pastor, Rev. R. H. Stavert was presented with a beautiful pair of lined kid gloves. The Supt. of the Sunday School, Mr. Ewen S. McLeod, was also presented with a pair of gloves from the Sunday School. Mrs. Dan McLeod and Mrs. Eldon Seaman and two of the teachers were each presented with a bottle of perfume by the Sunday School. While Mr. Simon Brown, teacher of the young ladies class was presented with a pair of driving mitts by his class. The school teacher, Miss Tanton, who assisted with the training of the children was presented with a large box of chocolates. A number of others were also presented with gifts. When Santa Claus had finished his work he was bused. A little later he got out on his homeward journey, carrying all happy because of his visit. The sum of $44.00 was realized after all the expenses are paid the remainder will be used to purchase additional books for the Sunday School Library. The gathering was brought to a close by the singing of the National Anthem.

A SURPRISE AND PRESENTATION

Something in the way of a surprise was forthcoming on the evening of December 27th when a large number of relatives and friends gathered at the home of M. W. and Mrs. Wood, Highland Farm to bid farewell for a short time to their daughter Leslie who is soon to leave for Wolfville, N.S., where she will attend College. The evening passed quickly with music, singing and games, the meeting was called to order by the Chairman and a fitting address was read by Mr. Ralph Balderston while a beautiful solid gold wrist watch was presented to Miss Wood by Miss Sadie Smith as a slight token of appreciation from the assembled relatives and friends. Although taken entirely by surprise Miss Wood made a very fitting reply. A dainty lunch was then served and the party broke up by singing Auld Lang Syne.

Following is the address: We a few of your personal friends have assembled here this evening to join with you in a few hours of entertainment and kindly companionship together knowing that in a course of a few days you are to go forward to carry out your studies in life. May we say in a few expressive words that our greatest heartfelt wishes will always remain with you through out all your college duties. Yet we feel it our duty to show our greatest appreciation of your kindness as an endearing friend among us all. As we may be a great feeling of comfort, an inspiring thought to your parents Mr. and Mrs. Wood to know that you have that great desire to fulfill your duties in life by labouring as a very willing worker. Now before bidding you a kind farewell but only for a short time we wish to show our gratefulness toward you by presenting this small token of appreciation of your worth as a kind friend and neighbour with us knowing that the giving is greater than the receiving. We also give for a precious one.

PRESENTATION TO ORGANIST

On the evening of Monday, December 29th a large number of the young people of Brookfield and the Glasgow Road assembled at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Wilbert Drummond for the purpose of telling him how much they have appreciated his services as organist in the church shortly after the friends had gathered. Mr. Drummond was waited upon and presented with an address and a well filled purse of gold. The address was read by Rev. R. H. Stavert and the presentation was made by Miss

FOR FEEDING CENTRAL EUROPE

BERLIN, Jan 2.—The government has received news that an agreement has been reached on the conditions suggested by Herbert Hoover whereby food will be supplied to Central Europe. It expects shipments of flour will arrive in Hamburg on January 6, but says they will not be distributed until details of Mr. Hoover's plan are completed.
