S.P.C.A. NOTES

Inspector McLean of the S.P.C.A. reports this week:

4 dogs suffering from distemper and too far gone to treat, humanely destroyed.

1 dog hit by car and had leg dislocated. The inspector got the leg in place, and the dog is doing well.

9 sick cats humanely destroyed.

7 investigations made.

No more bodies of animals are being taken to the city dump.

The difficulty with which the S. P.C.A. has been faced, of disposing of the bodies of animals which had to be destroyed, and which could not be burned in the incinerator, has been removed. The civic authorities, realizing the urgent necessity, have condemned a burying ground, and now animals can be properly buried. The society is doing what it can to insure healthier conditions by disposing of diseased dogs and cats and is very grateful to the City Council for their co-operation in this matter.

Inspector McLean has come in contact with some very bad cases of distemper during the last week, and urgently advises dog owners to be on guard, and watch the animals closely. Distemper is very infectious, and any infected dog remaining at large is likely to spread the disease. Be on the safe side and keep your dog at home as much as possible.

Feed only light foods, and allow him plenty of fresh water.

1 subscription, American tourist, $5.00.

CONNOLLY-DUFFY

A pretty wedding took place at St. Dunstan's Basilica on Wednesday, July 13th, when Miss Irene A. Connolly, Charlottetown, became the bride of Mr. Leo J. Duffy, Fort Augustus, the ceremony being performed and the Nuptial Mass celebrated by Reverend Doctor McMahon.

The bride was very becomingly dressed in navy blue and white and wore a beautiful corsage bouquet of pink carnations.

Her niece, Miss Mary Walsh, was bridesmaid and wore a dress of beige with white and a bouquet of variegated sweet william.

The groomsman was Mr. Earl Duffy, brother of the groom.

A wedding breakfast attended by the immediate relatives and intimate friends of the contracting parties was served at the Queen Hotel, after which Mr. and Mrs. Duffy left on a short honeymoon trip through the Maritimes and on their return will take up residence in their home at Webster's Corner.

Before her marriage the bride was successful in the teaching profession and the groom in farming.

SACKVILLE, N. B., July 12; — The appointment of John Inch of New Aberdeen, N.S., to the position of organist in the Sackville United Church to fill the vacancy left by Professor Harold S. Hamer whose resignation took effect on the last Sunday of June, was made today. Mr. Inch graduated from the Mount Allison Conservatory of Music, with a Bachelor of Music degree last May. He was also awarded the Hon. A.R. MacClelan Scholarship of $150, in recognition of his excellent scholarship and high character at Mount Allison. Mr. Inch during the past two years has been Music Master at the Mount Allison Academy, and will continue his duties there in musical instruction and lecturing on the appreciation of music.

Classy Field Entered In Tournament

TORONTO, July 13—(CP)—Slender Bobby Reith, who never quite achieved his objective among the amateurs, opens fire here tomorrow as a professional in the Ontario Open Golf championship at Summit Golf and Country Club. The former Winnipeg boy sensation is a marked man.

The 36-hole medal test tomorrow and Friday will be Bobby's first challenge since he became professional this spring at the Essex Country Club, Windsor.

Among the 101 players entered in the Ontario event are virtually all the outstanding eastern shotmakers. Bobby Alston of Ottawa Chaudiere is defending champion. Stanley Horne, Ottawa Hunt Club Canadian professional champion in 1937, is the foremost bidder for the crown.

There are Jules Huot from Quezec, Bobby Burns from Montreal Hampstead, Jack Littler from Ottawa Rivermeade, Sandy Somerville from London, all entered for a shot at Alston's title.

COULDN'T DECIDE ON BEST MILKER

WASHINGTON, July 14—(CP)—A quartet of United States congressmen came to grips with a quartet of cows to decide who could milk best—lawmakers from the Far West or those from the Middle West. The referee declared the match "no contest."

"Certain persons," he said, "have been trying to exert some pull on the referee. I suggest they would have done better to have applied it on the cows."

Representative Knutson, Republican of Minnesota, one of the Midwest's team, was disqualified for talking. He was reported to have remarked during the contest: "Boy! This cow milks free and easy—he must be a New Deal cow."

PENNIES FOR POLIO

WARRNAMBOOL, Australia, (C. P.)—Signed "Our Gang," a note along with 11,093 pennies, was received by the fund to provide aftercare for infantile paralysis patients.

Helen Jacobs is shown in the top picture congratulating Helen Wills Moody on winning the Wimbledon championship for the eighth time. Helen Jacobs is smiling through the pain that shot through her body from a twisted ankle which snapped towards the end of the first set which she lost 6-4. She was an easy victim by 6-0 in the second set.

In the lower picture she is a sorrowful figure as she sits on her racket and waits for Helen Wills Moody to accompany her off the court. She is a picture of dejection as she realizes that she has lost again and may never have another chance to meet her great rival unless the latter plays at Forest Hills in the fall.
