Despite the unfavorable weather, a large audience attended the Scottish Concert held in the I. O. O. F. Hall on Wednesday, Feb. 20th., under the auspices of the Choir of St. Andrew's Presbyterian Church. A repeat performance on Friday night was also well attended. On both occasions Rev. R. D. MacLean acted as chairman, while the piano accompanists were Mrs. A. F. Campbell and Miss Georgie Webster. A one-act comedy, "Utter Relaxation" was presented under the direction of Mrs. W. Watterworth. The cast included Mr. Elmer Dunning as "Wilbur," a business man with a cold; Mrs. R. D. MacLean as "Amy", his wife; Rev. R. D. MacLean as Wilbur's boss; Mrs. Claude Nicholson as Amy's friend; Mrs. Martin Currie as the maid; and Mr. Douglas Nicholson as a repair man. Each actor played his or her part exceptionally well, and the audience enjoyed the many humorous situations. Preceding the play, the following program was carried out:

Oldtime music—Mr. John Webster and Miss Georgie Webster.

Bagpipe Selections—Sgt. John D. MacPherson.

Solo, "I'd Love To Be A Sailor"—Kenneth Power.

Solos by Mr. Walter Burdett (1) "Star Of Robbie Burns" (2) "Where The Mountains of Mourn Sweep Down To The Sea."

Guitar (electric) Selections — Francis Vuozzo.

Duet, "Annie Laurie" —Mrs. Wm. Garrick and Mr. Dunning.

Solo, "Within A Mile of Edinburgh Town" — Miss Jean Duvar.

The Highland Fling by four young ladies—Misses Wilma MacLure, Barbara Mabon, Helen Hamilton, Florine Higginbotham.

Solos by Mr. Burdett (1) "Scotland", (2) "The Laddies Who Fought and Won." (3) 'Susie MacLean."

Oldtime Music—Mr. Webster and Miss Georgie Webster.

Duet, "If There's Mac Sticking Onto His Name"—Messrs. John Beats and Willard Bruce.

Each number was enthusiastically encored. The entertainment closed with "Auld Lang Syne" and "God Save The King."

MOUNT HERBERT Y.P.U.

The regular weekly meeting of the Mt. Herbert Y. P. U. was held at the Assembly Hall of the Protestant Orphanage, Tuesday evening, February 12th. The devotional period was opened by the "Call to Worship." The hymn, "My Faith Looks up to Thee", was sung. Kathleen Raynor read the evening's scripture lesson, Hebrews XI (1-10). Errol Lunde led the group in prayer. The topic for the evening was under the heading of "Faith". Sue Jones, Christian Fellowship convener, very capably handled the subject. The hymn, "Faith of Our Fathers", closed the devotionals.

The business period opened with the reading of the minutes of the previous meeting. Roll call was answered by fifteen members. There were four visitors present.

Collections amounted to $1.15. It was moved and seconded that we send $2.00 to the "National Council Travel Pool."

The recreation period was much enjoyed. Contests put on by Agnes MacKenzie and Mrs Stirling Wood, which consisted of "Educational and Biblical."

The meeting closed by singing the National Anthem.

SUBWAY HIDES ART TREASURES

LONDON, Feb. 18 — (CP) — Buried under London in an underground railway tunnell is a treasure hoard over which thousands, unsuspecting, walk every day.

The underground railways of London have provided safe hideouts for many of Britain's most valuable treasures during the war.

Scattered in disused corridors are a variety of treasures, including the shirt that Charles I wore at the Whitehall scaffold, stained glass windows from St. Margaret's and priceless antique jewelry which survived the Great Fire of London in 1666.

Not one item has suffered damage. Many are back on show in the museums but War Office officials state it will be some time before the treasures from the British Museum can be restored.

AID FROM ISLANDS

TULAGI, Solomon Islands — (CP) — The people of Senga subdistrict of Choiseul, British Solomon Islands Protectorate, have contributed £16, 17s, 2d. (approximately $75) to the British Red Cross. For more than three years this island was partly occupied by the Japanese who were confined to a limited area by spirited resistance and guerilla activities.

EASTERN GUARDIAN

MINISTER IS REMEMBERED

—A goodly number of the parishioners of the Dundas United Church gathered at the manse recently. Mr. Walter Burdett in his usual happy manner, called the gathering to order and with a few well chosen remarks presented Rev. M. D. MacLeod with a beautiful sleigh robe and horse rug. In addition there was a substantial addition to the larder. Mr. Bentley Creed in his genial manner spoke words of appreciation and encouragement. Mr. and Mrs. MacLeod replied thanking the people not only for those gifts, but also for the comfort they receive from the recent installation of a furnace, and the many ways they assisted in making the manse comfortable. After spending some time in singing and social chat, the ladies served a delicious luncheon. Then all departed to their homes, having done their part to gladden the hearts of the manse folk.

ORWELL W. I.

The Orwell Women's Institute met at the home of Mrs. Murdock MacLeod, on Feb. 6th, with five members and one visitor present.

The meeting opened with the singing of the Ode, followed by roll call which was answered by an exchange of valentines. It was moved and seconded that Mrs. Percy MacLeod and Mrs. Leo MacDonald be appointed to get books to organize a play. One member expressed thanks for fruit. It was moved that cards of sympathy be sent to bereaved families.

Mrs. Lawrence MacLeod gave a very interesting reading on Social Welfare. A quiz contest was also put on by Mrs. Lawrence MacLeod which was very much enjoyed by all.

Next meeting to be held at the home of Mrs. James Hughes. The roll call to be answered by name of soldier in your district. Collection amounted to thirty cents. The meeting adjourned by singing National Anthem. A tasty lunch was served by the hostess, assisted by Mrs. Lawrence MacLeod.

WEST ROYALTY W. I.

Monthly meeting of West Royalty Women's Institute was held at the home of Mrs. Stillman Frizzel, Feb. 6th, president presiding. Twelve members and two visitors present. Meeting opened with Creed in unison. Roll call answered with a Valentine verse. Minutes of last meeting read and approved. School and visiting committees reported Letters of thanks from two members were read for flowers received while patients in hospital. Also letter of thanks from Miss Katherine M. Maclennan on behalf of the patients of the Provincial Sanatorium for the lazy boy chair the Institute donated. It was decided members would divide in groups of six to make quilts which were discussed at last meeting, quilts to be passed in at next meeting.

Program committee for March meeting: Mrs. Lem MacKinnon and Mrs. William McKay.

Lunch committee: Mrs. Frizzel and Mrs. Gates. Meeting to be held at the home of Mrs. Chas. Hurry.

School committee appointed for two months: Mrs. Gordon Stetson and Mrs. Chas. Hurry.

Visiting committee: Mrs. Stillman Frizzell and Mrs. Geddie McLeod.

The program committee then took charge, presenting contests which were enjoyed by all. Prizes won by Mrs. F. Gates and Mrs. J. MacInnis. Lunch was served by committees in charge, assisted by hostess. Meeting closed with National Anthem.

ANGLO RUSTICO WOMEN'S INSTITUTE

On Tuesday evening, Feb. 5, 11 members of the Anglo-Rustico W. I. met at the home of Mrs. John L. Clark for their regular monthly meeting.

The president, Mrs. Parkman, presided, and opened the meeting in the usual way with the Ode followed by the Creed. The roll call was answered with an original Valentine, or lacking artistic ability, paying a fine. The minutes were adopted as read.

Correspondence were read and discussed. Plans for and progress of the crib quilt was talked over. It was agreed the secretary write the Red Cross for information regarding needful work to be done. A box of books from the Library was to be sent for.

Report of committees followed. Sick reported one call made. No report from school. New committees are as follows: Sick, Mrs. John L. Clark and Mrs Parkman. School Amy Toombs, re-appointed. Program, Mrs. G. R. LePage and Gladys Parkman. Collection of $1.21 was taken.

Mrs. Ernest Bulman kindly invited the March meeting to her home, roll call to be answered with an Irish joke. This part of meeting closed with the King. Mrs. Hooper was organist.

The following program was pleasantly rendered: Reading, Mrs. Roland Buntain; Jokes, Mrs. Ernest Bulman; Reading Mrs. G. R. LePage; Jokes, Mrs. Blair Rollings; Reading, Miss Ella Clark. Instrumental music, Mrs. Noel Hooper, encored.

A social hour was enjoyed while refreshments were served by the hostess.

In Memoriam

MR. WILLARD MILLER

The funeral of the late Willard Miller, son of Mr. and Mrs. William Miller, Central, Lot 16, was held on Saturday, February 2nd, from the home of his parents to the Presbyterian Church in Lot 16. Willard was born March 30, 1901 and some 25 years ago left his home and settled in California, there by his industry and hard work he built up a lucrative plumbing business which he carried on until the United States declared war on Japan. At that time he sold his business, wound up his affairs and prepared to fight for the country of his adoption, however, he was over the age for service in America, and it was only by sheer persistence that he finally persuaded the authorities to let him enlist. After completing his training he proceeded to the South Pacific with the Marine Corps, after two years during which he saw some of the fiercest fighting in that area he was returned to Oregon. He spent a few weeks visiting relatives and friends and then decided to enter the contracting business, he purchased several lots and in the process of erecting houses on them, he entered a tunnel to connect up the water pipes and the earth caved in burying him. One of his workmen was only about 60 feet from him and immediately had the ambulance and doctors on the scene with a pulmotor but all efforts to revive him failed. His parents received the news the following day and immediately made arrangements to have his body brought home in order that all that was mortal might rest with his forefathers in the family plot.

Despite the condition of the roads and weather many people gathered from the surrounding sections to pay their last tribute to the deceased. It was very sad when the casket draped with the American flag was carried from the church to the adjoining cemetery by six former school comrades, Messrs. Roy Large, Ivan Clarke, James MacGregor, Archibald MacGregor, Wilfred Hutcheson, Winfield Gamble.

The services at the home and church were conducted by Rev. (Dr.) Murray, hymns sung were favorites of the deceased, Rock of Ages, The Lord is My Shepherd, The Sands of Time are Sinking, There is a Green Hill Far Away and Abide With Me.

Left to mourn are his grief stricken parents and three sisters, Hazel of Charlottetown, P. E. I.; Mrs. Chalmers Hutcheson, Lot 16, and Mrs. Richard Galano, Portland, Oregon.

Funeral arrangements were under the supervision of P. L. Bowness & Son, Summerside, but due to the hazards of travel it was not possible to have an Odd Fellows ceremony as requested by Cowlitz Lodge of Kelso, Washington, nor was it feasible for the Legion of Summerside or Miscouche to have a firing party at the grave.

Flowers and messages of sympathy as follows; from many parts of Canada and the U. S. A., are in evidence of the esteem in which this young man was held.

In Memoriam

In loving memory of our darling daughter and sister Marguerет Catherine Farmer, who departed this life on February 26, 1944.

Deep in our hearts there's a picture
More precious than silver and gold
It's a picture of our darling baby
Whose memory will never grow cold.

Tho her smile is gone forever
And her hands we cannot touch
We shall never lose sweet memories
Of the one we loved so much.

Lovingly Remembered by Mother, Daddy and Eldred.

HOW TO CURB Chest Cold Painful THROAT

Speaking of valuable home remedies that mothers might well keep on hand, a trained nurse says: "I haven't met any preparation more dependable than 'Nerviline.' For me, it is an ideal liniment. It seems as if nearly every drop rubs in—its pain-relieving powers are absorbed quickly, and it eases and relieves congestion in a short time. For chest colds, pain in the side, stiff neck, earache and toothache, I have found Nerviline very valuable in treating the minor ills that arise in so many homes. I have found nothing in the way of a 'Rub-On' that is more efficient than Nerviline. This pain-relieving liniment is a household article in thousands of Canadian homes." Is it in yours? K. of C. Hold Social Get-Together

Over the weekend the members of the Charlottetown Council of the Knights of Columbus, with their wives and friends, held a social evening and skate at the S. D. U. rink.

The entertainment began with a half-hour skate, following which two evenly matched teams took the ice for a sudden death match to decide the Atomic Age Championship. The rival teams were coached by Carl "Hard Rock" McKenna and Mike "One Line" Campbell. The latter piloted his "Flowerpots" to a thrilling 3-0 victory over McKenna's "Doughnuts." The star of the losing team was Lenis "Crusher" Rossiter; the winners loudly acclaimed the work in the nets of their stellar goalie "Puckless" Power, and the whirlwind rushes of Wilf Smith—who lent immeasurable aid to the opposing team. The game was ably refereed by Hubert O'Hanley of S. D. U. who found it necessary to penalize one man for loafing and another for making faces at the crowd.

Following the game a series of races was run off. The first race, for the married men—two laps round the rink—was won by Wilf Smith, who, however, forfeited the race by tripping Len MacDonald, who was following a close second. MacDonald carried off the first prize of absolutely nothing. The single men's race three laps of the rink, was hotly contested, being won by Jack Campbell, with Louis Butler a close-sliding second.

The most exciting item on the program was the single women's race. Kay Duffy, with a final terrific drive, finished in first place to walk off with the grand prize of practically nothing. One of the contestants lodged a protest—the ice was too hard and much too cold. She was given a consolation prize —a cushion.

The next on the program was the mixed race—and how it got mixed! The betting ran high as the previous champions teamed up, fell down and teamed up again. Art Campbell and Kay Duffy took the lead half way through the twenty-third lap, followed closely by Len MacDonald and partner, who rapidly closed in, but could not overtake the speedy combination of Campbell and Duffy, who came in first, but were disqualified for shouting at MacDonald and partner, causing them to collapse short of the finish line. MacDonald and partner won the coveted prize of hardly anything.

A hurry-up call for food and drink was quickly answered by Ralph Fleming and his capable staff, who gave forth with their wonderful life-restoring coffee and doughnuts. The lunch was enjoyed immensely by everyone. Wilf McKenna was a tower of strength behind the coffee bar.

After refreshments everyone returned to the ice—some sooner than they expected—for the final attraction of the evening. The huge crowd waited breathlessly for the announcement of the great contest, designed to select the most graceful couple of the evening. Danny Noonan, Dr. Loyala Duffy and Cletus Murphy were the judges. Competition was terrific; the crowd roared for their favorites, the wind roared round the rink and the judges roared at the unlucky ones to get off the ice. The winners once again were the unbeatable combination of Art Campbell and Kay Duffy. Strong rumors of bribery and "keeping it in the family" were heard however, and the disgruntled contestants are promised a thorough investigation, and if necessary, a complete new slate of judges will be elected.

The Knights and their friends wish to thank St. Dunstan's University for their wonderful co-operation, which contributed so much to the enjoyment of the evening.
