The best in men's shoes

Invictus are the best shoes for men. Although they cost a little more, they wear longer, give more comfort and are more stylish than any other line of men's shoes made. They do not pinch or chafe the feet, retain their shape and combine comfortable, fit and stylish appearance with dependable wear.

They are the favorites of men who care for appearance and comfort and although higher priced than ordinary shoes are worth more than we ask on account of their long wearing qualities.

Prices $5.00, $5.50, and $6.00.

Head Offices in New Prowse Block—Charlottetown

The latest news, first of all.

D. M. McKinnon, Murray River, was in the city yesterday.

William Kane, New Perth, came to the city yesterday morning.

G. R. McMahon, Station Agent at Kensington was in the city yesterday.

Rev. E. J. Rattee, Malpeque, was among those registered at the Queen Hotel yesterday.

George and Mrs. Fleming, St. John, have returned from a pleasant visit to this Province.

W. A. O. Morson, of Charlottetown has been gazetted registrar of the Admiralty of the Exchequer Court.

Mrs. (Dr) Blanchard, Charlottetown, is at Carville Hall, the guest of her daughter, Mrs. Mahon.—St. John Telegraph.

Mrs. George Stamey and her son Allison leave this morning for Vancouver B. C., where she will spend the winter.

Rev. J. F. Floyd will lecture in New Glasgow, P. E. I., this evening. His subject will be "Getting married and staying married."

St. John's Church, Milton, (per Mayor Rogers) has contributed $25 to the Campbellton Relief Fund. This amount was received Friday.

A very pleasant surprise party was given to Miss Bessie Palmer on Monday evening, Sept. 26th, at the home of George and Mrs. Terris, on the Mountain Road, by her many friends before her return to P. E. Island, dainty luncheon was served by Mrs. Terris, consisting of ice cream and cake. Mrs. Matthew Watson played "God Be With You," while all joined in singing. Thanks were extended to Mr. and Mrs. Terris for the enjoyable time.—Moncton Times.

Rev. J. F. Floyd preached at both services in the Central Christian Church Sunday. The subject for the morning discourse was "Christ, our Passover" and in the evening the topic was "The Model Young Man," based upon 1 Timothy 4:7. This sermon was a powerful one and was listened to by a good audience with rapt attention. Sunday was Rally Day for the Church and Sunday School, but the very inclement weather interfered considerably with the services, yet there were good meetings all through the day.

The residence of D. Grant and Mrs. Smith was the scene of a pretty wedding on Wednesday evening, when their daughter, Mae, was married to Dr. Frederick Moore Auld, of Montreal, the Rev. J. P. Westman officiating. The wedding took place at six o'clock, in the drawing-room, which was effectively decorated with ferns and white flowers. The bridal party entered to the strains of Mendelssohn's "Wedding March," and during the ceremony Miss Nellie Annable played softly "Traumerei." The bride who was given away by her father, looked charming in a gown of point d'esprit over silk, with pearl trimmings, and carried a sheaf bouquet of white roses and lilies of the valley. Her only ornament was a pearl and amethyst pendant, the gift of the groom. Miss Lily E. Smith, sister of the bride, was bridesmaid, and wore pale blue mousseline de soie over pale blue silk, and carried pink carnations and roses. Little Miss Freda Hunter was a dainty flower girl in a princess dress of tulle and silk, and a tiny cap. The groom was supported by his brother, P. H. Auld, of Saskatoon. Mrs. Smith, mother of the bride, wore black silk with touches of heliotrope. The groom's gifts to the bridesmaid and matron of honor were pearl blouse sets; to the best man, a gold watch; to the pianist, a pearl lace pin; to the flower girl, a gold sunset ring, and to the little attendants, silver thimbles. The guests were the bride's former pupils, and a few intimate friends. During the evening Miss Nellie Annable sang very acceptably, "Promisise Me." Dr. and Mrs. Auld left on the coast train for a short trip. The bride travelled in a brown broad-cloth costume with lace blouse and brown velvet toque and feather boa. On October 9, Dr. and Mrs. Auld sail from Victoria en route to Honan, China, where Dr. Auld will devote his work as medical missionary. On Tuesday next they will return to Nelson to spend a few days before leaving for China. Exc. Dr. Auld referred to was formerly of Covehead, P. E. I.

British Cough Cure is again to the front—this is the season when this remedy does its best work—it is so well known that we hardly think it necessary to tell of its virtues—no home should be without it—especially used for children—25c a bottle prepared and sold by E. A. Foster, Central Drugstore, Sunnyside.

Commencing Monday the 2nd of May the S. S. Northumberland will leave the Company's wharf daily, except Sunday, at 8.20 o'clock, a. m. Returning will leave Pictou about 4.20 o'clock, p. m.
