

OUR NEWS BUDGET FOR OUR SATURDAY SUBSCRIBERS

MONDAY
FUNERAL SATURDAY - The funeral of the late Horace MacKinnon, who passed away in Toronto on March 12, was held Saturday afternoon from the Curdall Funeral Home. Services at the home and grave were conducted by Rev. G. Carlyle Webster. The pallbearers were, D.L. MacKinnon, J.J. Trahan, John Smith, James Smith, A.K. MacPhee, Ernest Currie. Interment Highfield cemetery.

DWELLING DAMAGED - Considerable damage by fire was done to the residence of Mr. D. D. McEwen, 169 Prince Street, Saturday morning before the City firemen could extinguish the blaze. It is understood the fire began near a fireplace located in the rear of the house. The walls near the fireplace and that back of the kitchen range were damaged considerably. The call was sent in to the firehall shortly before 9 a.m.

FUNERAL SATURDAY - The funeral of the late Philip D.D. MacLure took place Saturday morning at 9 a.m. at the home of his nephew, Michael Doyle, North Rustico, to Stella Marks Church where Requiem High Mass was celebrated by the Rev. William McCabe who also conducted the service at the grave. The pallbearers were Messrs Thomas Turner, Cleve Robinson, J.J. Biquiere, Thomas Hickey, Harry MacKenzie, and Cyril Toombs. Interment was in the church cemetery.

750 STOLEN - Handbags are never safe as permanent repositories of large sums of money. That truth has now been forcibly impressed upon the mind of a Grand Street woman who upon returning to her residence a few nights ago, discovered that her purse containing $750 was missing. She immediately notified the City Police who, despite a thorough investigation, were unable to "break the case." Early last Saturday morning, however, $750 was returned. A boarder living in the house found the money between the two front doors.

Paul's Flying Service announces that on Saturday, a Summerside veteran, Wendell A. MacNutt, has entered the business in partnership with E. Paul Sharpe, of Charlottetown. Mr. MacNutt or "Mac" as he is known to his friends is one of three brothers who served overseas in the R.C.A.F. His service career also included a year with the Fleet Air Arm of the R.C.N. His total service time was over four years and his flying time amounts to 500 hours. When with the famous Army, Mac was flying the famous Sea King, one of the fastest fighters in the world. His youth and skill and enthusiasm in flying bring a real asset to our local flying service.

Gourlies Ltd., Summerside's oldest drug store, because of the sale of the Dalton building to Sinclair and Stewart Ltd., has moved to new quarters in another building owned by Mr. J. E. Dalton on the corner of Central and First Streets, which was formerly occupied by Mr. Milton Mollish who has moved his grocery business next door. Gourlies Ltd., has been on Water Street since 1905 and has been proprietor of the store since 1912. It was formerly known as the Prince County Drug Store.

It was at first located on the site of the Prince Edward Island Fur Pool Ltd., and when the drug store was burned down by fire, it was moved to the site of the Crabbe building on Water Street. From 1915 to 1930, after the second great fire in Summerside, the drug store was located in the Clifton Hotel building. After the completion of the Dalton brick building in 1930 the store has since been in business there. Improvements are to be made to the premises where the store is now located and the ground under it. His many friends will be extended to Mr. Dalton for continued success.

MEMORIAL MASS - On Friday morning at 8:30 on the St. Mary's Church Indian River, an Anniversary High Mass was celebrated for the repose of the soul of Monsignor Gillis who died 15 years ago, on March 14th. He had been parish priest at Indian River for 30 years, from 1890 until 1929, when he retired. The celebrant of the Mass was Reverend Reginald McDonald who has been parish priest there since the retirement of Monsignor Gillis (except for that period of time when he went overseas and until his return to the parish at the end of the hostilities). The Mass was offered by the Catholic Women's League of Kensington and the choir was under the direction of Mrs. Edgar Hickey. The High Mass, which was with Libera, was attended by a large number of the parishioners testifying to the esteem in which the former pastor was, and is still held in the hearts of his people.

The death occurred at his home on Ottawa Street, Summerside, on Saturday afternoon of Mr. Ernest Arsenault. The deceased, who was a victim of a regrettable accident on October 30 while working on a power line at St. Eleonors corner, had been under constant medical care since that time both in the Prince County Hospital and at home and although every remedy known to medical science had been administered, his condition gradually grew worse and he passed away on Saturday afternoon. He leaves to mourn his sorrowing wife, formerly Miss Henrietta Souler, and infant son as well as his grief stricken parents, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph D. Arsenault, also the following brothers and sisters: Marie, Theresa, Evelyn, Lorraine and Douglas at home; another brother, Austin, is employed in the lumber woods in New Brunswick and is expected home for the funeral which will be held on Tuesday at nine o'clock with services in St. Mary's Convent Chapel. Interment will be in St. Paul's Roman Catholic cemetery, Summerside.—S.

TUESDAY
CONGRATULATIONS - Mr. and Mrs. Ralph W. Robertson, Kingsboro are today celebrating the 25th anniversary of their marriage, and are receiving the congratulations of their many friends.

Not since before the last war has there been such a successful St. Patrick's Day parade in Charlottetown as the one which, sponsored by the Benevolent Irish Society, was held through the downtown section of the City yesterday morning. The paraders marched to the music of the 17th Recce band.

VISITING HOME - Mrs. Joseph MacIsaac, St. Eleonors has returned home after spending the past two weeks with her mother, Mrs. Daniel Jarvis, Munn's Road. The sympathy of the whole community goes out to Mrs. Jarvis and family in the death of her husband, Mr. Jarvis who passed away Feb. 28th after a prolonged illness.

IN HONOUR OF ST. PATRICK'S DAY - As has been his custom for a great many years, on March 17th, Mr. J. E. Dalton distributed gifts of "The Little Green Shamrock" to his friends and acquaintances yesterday. It goes without saying that his thoughtfulness was much appreciated by those remembered, particularly as the real shamrock is difficult to obtain.—S.

The search for the body of Stewart McNeill, Rocky Point, who is feared to have drowned on Monday, March 10, while crossing the ice on foot from the City to his home in Rocky Point, has been fruitless.

Neighbors of the missing man, under the direction of and assisted by the R.C.M.P., have been carrying on an intensive search in the vicinity of the spot where they found his cap and some groceries on the ice last Friday. Inspector N.J. Anderson, R.C.M.P., expressed the opinion last night that further searching under present conditions would not accomplish anything.

A heavy tide is said to run where the missing man is believed to have fallen through the ice.

Summerside firemen were called to the apartment of Mr. Francis J. McNeill, M.L.A. on Harvard Street, Summerside, about 1 o'clock yesterday afternoon for a fire that might have had serious consequences. His little son, Donald, age 4 years, was confined to bed with measles and had got hold of his father's cigarette lighter. While playing with it he set the bed clothes on fire. Fortunately Mr. McNeill was in an adjoining room and at the first cry from the child he rushed in and by the time the Fire Department arrived had succeeded in smothering most of the blaze. The child was not injured. The whole house filled with smoke and apart from the burnt bed clothing there was considerable smoke damage.—S.

BIRTHDAY ANNIVERSARY - Mrs. Lydia Simms of Kensington was "At Home" to her friends on Monday, March 10th, on the occasion of her 89th birthday anniversary. Friends from far and near vied with one another in honoring this highly esteemed lady. Green cards, telegrams, flowers, candy and gifts of every kind filled the room. Mrs. Simms was kept busy all afternoon and evening greeting the numerous callers who showered her with best wishes, for many happy returns of the day. A delicious buffet supper was served by her daughters. Miss Lottie Simms assisted by Mrs. Robert Stafford, Mrs. George Bowens, Mrs. Ernest Mill, Mrs. Cecil Mill, Mrs. J. B. Pruffitt, Mrs. Frank McNeill and Mrs. Robert McKay. During the afternoon the guests were entertained with piano selections by Mrs. Joseph Sheeh. In the evening Mr. Archibald McKenzie was appointed master of ceremonies and began his duties with a brief speech which was both humorous and informative. Mr. James Pendergast also spoke briefly before a program of music and song was carried out. Miss Marion Lockhart was the accompanist. Mrs. Robert McKay of Amherst was most entertaining as a raconteuse of stories from life. The program was concluded by the guests all joining hands and singing "Happy Birthday to You." "For She's a Jolly Good Fellow," "Auld Lang Syne" and "Blessed be the Tie That Binds." Farewells included heartfelt wishes to Mrs. Simms for abundant health and happiness for the coming years.—K.

ROTARY - Mr. H. C. Rhodes, Director of the Community Health Service Division of the Health League of Canada, was guest speaker at Rotary luncheon yesterday. He stressed the fact that his organization was a voluntary one, and that like many others such as the Red Cross, T. B. League, Cancer Society, etc., it was had been under constant medical care since that time both in the Prince County Hospital and at home and although every remedy known to medical science had been administered, his condition gradually grew worse and he passed away on Saturday afternoon. He leaves to mourn his sorrow-have the support of the people. A great deal was being done through the press, radio, and field workers in improving the nutritional value of the Canadian diet. It is not only the poor who lack proper food. Venereal diseases have been given the attention of organized clinics in every part of Canada as a result of the pressure of voluntary workers in the interest of public health. Rotarian Dr. W.J.P. MacMillan in thanking the speaker described some of the work being done by the Red Cross and spoke highly of the contribution of the Rotary Club in aid of crippled children. Much more work of this nature could be done, he said. It was the responsibility of the Federal Government to take a lead in cases where the disease was of national concern. The speaker was introduced by Rotarian Frank Street, Rotarian Bill Rowe was chairman.

WEDNESDAY
HERE FROM OTTAWA - Mr. R. B. MacKinnon and Mr. H. Richardson of the Bank of Canada, Ottawa, are in the City called upon the local branch and others in the financial business.

PRIVATE FUNERAL - The funeral of the late Mrs. W.P. Timmarsh was held privately from St. Peter's Cathedral yesterday afternoon. Service was conducted by Rev. Canon E.M. Malone. Interment was in St. Peter's Cemetery.

EXCEPTIONAL EGG - The Guardian received an exceptionally large egg from Mr. Lester Duggan, Sea View, laid by one of his Plymouth Rock pullets, which weighed seven ounces.

JOINS R.C.M.P. - Mr. Boston Holm, son of Mr. and Mrs. Basil Holm of DeSable leaves this morning for Ottawa to take up his duties with the R.C.M.P. before leaving for Regina on a training course.

FUNERAL YESTERDAY - The funeral of Miss Mary M. MacDonald was held yesterday morning from the A. A. Hennehan Funeral Home to St. Dunstan's Basilica where Requiem High Mass was celebrated by Rev. Kenneth MacMillan who also conducted services at the grave. The pallbearers were Alban MacDonald, Frank Conner, Joseph Hughes and Donald I. MacDonald.

FUNERAL AT BAY FORTUNE - The funeral of the late H. Wesley MacKenzie was held from Bay Fortune United Church yesterday afternoon. The service was conducted by the Rev. W.A. MacQuarrie. Interment was in Bay Fortune Cemetery. The pallbearers were Lerne Keefe, Frank MacClumpha, Reid Underhay, Ernest Underhay, Ralph Coffin, Harvey MacKenzie.

BANK OFFICIALS HERE - Messrs R. Richardson and R. E. McKibbin, secretary and deputy, respectively, of the securities department, Bank of Canada, Ottawa, were in the city yesterday. The object of Messrs. Richardson and McKibbin's visit was to study the security and bond situation in Charlottetown with reference to the business of the local branch of the Bank of Canada. They left by plane yesterday afternoon for Ottawa.

COUNTY COURT OPENS - The March term of the County Court of Prince County opened at Summerside yesterday with Judge L.C. Gault presiding. There were six cases docketed. Dates were set down for five of the cases for hearing in the future. In the case of B. I. Rayner vs. James Gunn, judgment was entered by default and the garnishee order in the same cause was rendered absolute. Counsel present were: Heath Strong, K.C., W. Henry Noonan, C.D., McCallum, T.L. Compton and R. S. Hinton.—S.

ENJOYABLE EVENING - A very enjoyable box social was held last evening at the Odette's Hall which was largely attended. The program, which commenced about 9:00 p.m., included solo by Mr. Roy Smallman and Mr. George Johnston with Mrs. Compton, Mrs. Brown rendering a duet. Mrs. Ruby Houle and Mr. J. R. Compton gave readings. An auction of the boxes was held after the entertainment of the proceeds going to aid the Walter Carter Carrier Fund. The remainder of the evening was spent in dancing with the music being supplied by Len Jordan's Orchestra.

"This action constitutes a precedent in that, so far as I am aware, it is the first time that an investigation has been made by the Assembly Chamber of a Canadian Provincial Parliament," declared His Honour Lieutenant Governor J.A. Bernard as he pinned the Distinguished Flying Cross on the tunic of Squadron Leader Clarence F. Higgins, R.C.A.F., in the Legislative Chamber yesterday.

The investigation took place during a brief recess called after His Honour had duly opened The House.

Sed. Ldr. Higgins, who is a son of City Police Sergeant J. Watson Higgins, was awarded the D.F.C. in May, 1944 for having taken part with outstanding efficiency and courage in numerous attacks on the Ruhr Valley and other heavily defended German objectives.

Clifford Francis. Judgment for plaintiff for $1,061.50 and costs. Wayne Hughes vs. Leo Mallett and Clifford Francis. Judgment for plaintiff for $1,160.50 and costs.

In the above cases Messrs J. B. Johnson, H. F. MacPhee, K.C., and Henry Noonan appeared for the plaintiffs and Mr. R.R. Bell, K.C., for the defendants.

Introduction of a bill to implement the provisions of a new Dominion-Provincial tax arrangement was forecast in the Speech from the Throne read by His Honour Lieutenant Governor J. A. Bernard at the opening of the fourth session of the Forty-fifth General Assembly of the Province yesterday.

The Speech also forecast increased teachers' salaries, rural high schools, extension of physical fitness training and other measures, including a new department of government to handle tourist traffic, fisheries, trade and commerce.

The opening ceremony, which took place at 3 p.m., was largely attended. A guard of honour from the 17th Recce Regiment under Capt. R. J. Mahar, accompanied by the regimental band, was in attendance and made a fine showing. His Excellency was accompanied by his aides Lt.-Col. P. S. Fielding, M.E.D., and Lieut. R. C. McMillan, D.S.C., and private secretary Dr. J. A. MacMillan.

Leo Roach, 64, unmarried storekeeper at Dundee, King's County, was shot in the back of the head about 24 miles from Charlottetown, in dead and Joseph McDonald, 21, also of Dundee, is lying in the Charlottetown Hospital seriously wounded as the result of an alleged altercation said to have occurred in Roach's store about 9 o'clock last night.

Dundee is a community a few miles from Montreal. The R.C.M.P. last night is that McDonald went into Roach's store shortly before 9 o'clock and began to admonish Roach for having sold his (McDonald's) younger brother's lemon extract. During the argument Roach snatched up a single-barrel shotgun and shot McDonald in the left shoulder. The onlookers, becoming panic-stricken, rushed out of the store but not before one of them took the shotgun from Roach and put it in a corner.

Shortly afterwards, another shot was heard and upon investigation, Roach was found dead in the back part of the store with a bullet wound in the lower part of his body. The gun was near him on the floor.

THURSDAY
RESIDENCE MOVED - The residential property on the corner of Russel and Hanover Streets was recently purchased by Mr. Schurman Co. Ltd. from Mr. James Hunter. The building is now in progress of being moved to the corner of Granville and Green Streets where it will be made into an apartment building. The Russel Street property will be incorporated into the lumber mill yard of the company.—S.

Mrs. Mark Handrahan, mother of Mrs. Alfred Foley of this town, passed away at her home in Tignish on March 15th. Her funeral was held from her late residence to the St. Simon and Jude Church, Tignish, on Monday, March 17th, at 10:30 a.m. Much sympathy is extended to Mrs. Foley and the bereaved members of the family.

The death occurred in Alberton yesterday of Mrs. William MacPherson. She was 85 years old.

The late Mrs. MacPherson is survived by her husband and five daughters. Joanne, Mrs. Major Howard, Charlottetown; Hazel, Mrs. Albert MacDonald, Charlottetown; Olive, Mrs. Frank Squarebriggs, Miscouche; Pearl, Mrs. Daniel McMullen, Kildare; and Esther, Saint John, N.S.

The funeral will be held today from the residence of her grandson, Mr. Arthur Wells, Elmisdale.

WEDDING BELLS - On March 18th, there were married at St. John's United Church, Manse, by Rev. Wm. T. Mercer, Miss Beulah G. Geldert and Lloyd G. Squires. The bridal couple were attended by Mr. and Mrs. Patrick Baker of Bristol. Mrs. Baker is a sister of the groom. Many friends join in wishing the young couple many years of happy wedded life.

The Dominion Government proposes to erect a $1,500,000 building in Charlottetown as soon as a desirable site can be secured. Unofficial but authentic sources informed the Guardian representative last night that the Dominion Government is especially desirous of securing from the City that area of land on which the Market Building and the Public Library are now located. Should the City agree to sell that area, it is understood the Dominion Government is willing to re-establish the public library on some other location. It was also learned that the Provincial Government has been making overtures to the City Council on behalf of the Dominion Government for the Market Building site.

TO TAKE EMBALMING COURSE - Mr. Ennor Bowens of Summerside has left for Boston, Mass. to take a nine months course at the New England Institute of Embalming and Funeral Directing. On return, Mr. Bowens will take over the undertaking business of his father, Mr. P. L. Bowens, with whom he has been associated for a number of years.

BUSINESS CHANGES HANDS - Mrs. Roy Silliphant, Summerside, after about thirty years in the area, business in Summerside, has, because of ill health, disposed of his business to Mr. Kaye Hansen of this town, who for the past four years has been serving in the air force. Mr. Silliphant maintained his meat business at a fine standard of cleanliness and efficiency, which no doubt Mr. Hansen will make it a point to uphold.—S.

FUNERAL YESTERDAY - The funeral of the late Ernest Arsenault who died on Saturday, March 15th, was held yesterday morning at 9 o'clock from the residence of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Arsenault, Ottawa Street, Summerside. It was one of the most largely attended funerals in Summerside for a long time. The pallbearers were, Messrs Vincent Savdiani, Donald Souler, James Grady, Wilfred Gallant, Joseph Perry and Norman Souler. A requiem Mass was sung by Rev. Howland Wright and the final rights at the grave were performed by Rt. Rev. G.J. McLellan, V.G.—S.

The death occurred at her home in Cascumpe Tuesday of Mrs. Henry Lewis in her 92nd year. She is survived by six sons and four daughters. The sons are, James, Harnden, Harry, Edward, Isaac, and John. The daughters, Mrs. Thomas Ford, Elsie, Mrs. Margaret MacAusland, Howland, Mrs. Allen Methueller, Framingham, Mass.

The late Mrs. Lewis was the widow of the late Henry Lewis who was one of the pioneers in the silver-fox industry. He predeceased her eight years ago.

The funeral will be held tomorrow at 2 o'clock from the residence in Cascumpe.

SOCIAL EVENING - A very enjoyable evening was spent at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Hamson, 15, at the City Police Court, on March 15 by members of Queen Mary L. O. A., who met to spend the evening with Mrs. Bowman, who has been a very faithful member, but has been unable to attend the meetings recently. Music was furnished by Messrs. Donald MacDonald, David Everett Roland Ward and Mrs. Everett Holmes which was enjoyed by all; also step-dance from Mrs. Myron Holmes, Kingston. Mrs. Duncan Marshall presented the guest of honor with a little treat as a remembrance from the Lodge. Mrs. Bowman thanked all for their presence and hoped to see them soon again.

The evening was a delicious luncheon, then served after which all wended their way home, having spent a pleasant evening with Mr. and Mrs. Bowman in their cozy home, and all hoped that Mrs. Bowman would soon be able to attend some more meetings.

WEDDING BELLS - A wedding which aroused a great interest among a host of friends throughout the Maritimes was performed last week at the Salvation Army Citadel, Charlottetown. Phyllis Gladstone, daughter of Mrs. R. Higgins, was married to Roy James Henderson, son of Mr. and Mrs. Henderson of this city. The double ring ceremony was performed by Major Victor MacLean, under a beautifully decorated archway of white and pale yellow, banked with primroses. To the strains of Lohengrin's Wedding March, played by Mrs. Major Van Roon, the bride entered the Citadel. The bride wearing the Salvation Army regulation uniform carried a bouquet of Talisman roses. The bride was given in marriage by her step-father, Reuben Higgins. Acting as bridesmaid was Miss Mavis Fuller also in regulation uniform and a bouquet of Talisman roses. Mr. Robert Chandler was the groomsmen. During the signing of the Register Mrs. Major MacLean sang "The Voice That Breathed O'er Eden." Following the ceremony a reception was held at the home of the groom. Many gifts were received, including a substantial cheque from the firm of Tombs where the groom is a valued member.

A very pretty wedding was solemnized at the Charlottetown Baptist Church on Wednesday, February 19th, 1947, at 8:45 o'clock by the Rev. J. J. Levy when Freda Esther, only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Henry W. Josey, was united to Wilfred Hunter, son of the late Mr. and Mrs. William A. MacDonald, both of Charlottetown.

The church was decorated with white and fuchsia potted plants, with white satin bows to mark the petals.

The lovely young bride was a charming picture as she entered the church on the arm of her father to the strains of Lohengrin's wedding march. She wore a graceful floor length gown of shimmering white satin styled on simple lines with sweetheart neckline, scalloped bodice, three-quarter length sleeves and draped pleated lace trim. Her veil of tulle illusion was beautiful in halo effect with a short train. Her only jewellery was a single strand of pearls.

Miss Audrey Watts, maid of honor, wore a floor length gown of white taffeta and a shoulder length veil caught in halo effect with forget-me-nots. She carried a bouquet of pink carnations.

The bridesmaids, Miss Josie Larter and Miss Bettie Proctor, were dressed identically in turquoise and pink floor length gowns and wore sequin beanie. They carried nosegays of mixed flowers.

The groom was ably supported by his brother Mr. Gordon MacDonald. The ushers were Mr. Walter Josey, brother of the bride and Mr. Calvin Proctor. A frigid air, some clothing, and a large quantity of household goods including books, pots and pans, dishes and other culinary articles were recovered by the City Police yesterday evening in the woods on the Inkerman shore. An examination of the books and clothing closed papers with the name "Nelson" upon them. The police then did some phone calling which resulted in Mr. and Mrs. George Nelson, City, appearing at the Police Station and identifying the frigid air as belonging to the late Robert Nelson of the local division, C.N.R.

RECEIVES S.A. NEWS - Mr. R. C. Hayes of Tyne Valley has received the sad news of the death of his daughter-in-law, Mrs. Maud, Alberta, of his sister Maud, Mrs. Montague Robertson.

JOINS R.C.M.P. - Mr. Louis McKay, a well-known radio repair man of Summerside, has left for Halifax where he has been accepted into the Marine Branch of the R.C.M.P. Mr. McKay spent six years in the Royal Canadian Navy as a wireless telegraphist.—S.

RETURN HOME - Mrs. Norman MacDonald, R.N., and daughter Mary Jean have returned for a six weeks' visit to her mother who is ill at her daughter's, Mrs. C. H. MacDougall, Falmouth, Mass. On her return she visited former class mates from St. Luke's Hospital and friends in Cambridge, Arlington, and Mr. and Mrs. D. C. MacQuarrie of Lynnfield, Mass., who is a brother and sister-in-law of Mrs. MacDonald.

FUNERAL SERVICES - The funeral of William Flynn took place yesterday morning at 10:15 from his late residence, 17 Dorchester St., to St. Dunstan's Basilica, where Requiem High Mass was celebrated by Rev. Patrick MacMahon. The Rev. Patrick MacMahon, who was officiating, quoted the service at the grave. The pallbearers were: Messrs. Patrick Dennis, John King, Jerome Gillis, John Gormley, Anthony Haughey and Alban MacDonald.

L.A.S. ENTERTAINS CAST - A dinner and social evening was provided last night by the Benevolent Irish Society for the cast of the St. Patrick's Day play, recently performed at the Prince Edward Theatre. The dinner, held at the Charlottetown Hotel, was presided over by Mr. Frederick Flynn. Officers of the Society who were present included J.W. Hogan, president; D.S. Dowling, secretary; and J. Callaghan, treasurer.

L.AID TO REST - The funeral of Mrs. Henry Weeks took place yesterday morning from her late residence, 40 Valley St., to the Church of the Most Holy Redeemer, where Requiem High Mass was celebrated by Rev. R. Baines, C.S.S.R. Service at the grave was conducted by Very Rev. E. Baldwin, C.S.S.R. The pallbearers were the five sons and son-in-law of the deceased: Ralph, William, Edward, Alfred and Frederick Weeks, and John Leo. Mrs. Weeks was formerly Catherine Murray.

Two hundred and forty six pheasants were released at various points on the Island yesterday and were allotted as follows: Alberton, 20; Antigonish, 20; Souris, each 20; Annandale and Milton each 12; Cherry Valley and Pownal each 16; Avondale 21; Winslow and Southport each 12; Beach Grove 20. Five birds were kept for their eggs and are penned at Wmsloe.

A visit to the cosy cottage of Mrs. K. C. Holm, Victoria, is a real pleasure to say the least. Here this interesting lady who is no longer young in years but still very young in heart attends to all her own household duties, but still fulfills several of the most important of the early part of the past winter she knitted several pairs of the popular diamond socks, made several sets of crocheted baby garments and other articles and is now contemplating making a rug. She has also made several sets of art in itself. Congratulations to this industrious lady who never finds time hanging heavily on her hands.

Another painful accident occurred last Thursday to Mr. Lloyd Vincent at Woodvale where he was sawing wood. A splinter flew and entered his nose and Mr. Vincent was taken at once to Dr. Lantz at Charlottetown, and his friends are pleased to learn he is making a good recovery.

A regrettable accident occurred at Murray's Mill in Plusville recently when the owner of the mill, Mr. John S. Murray, got his foot in contact with the rotary saw and as a result Mr. Murray lost two toes and suffered painful injuries to his foot. He was rushed to the Prince County Hospital where he is resting comfortably, and progressing favorably. His many friends wish him a speedy recovery.

On March 23 a tribute of sympathy rose spontaneously from our hearts when we learned that Mr. George Stewart of Bedford had been called away from us to join his loved ones where mourning shall be no more.

Mr. Stewart stricken with a severe ailment which medical skill and tender nursing proved of no avail for God willed otherwise. He was called to his eternal home, fortified by the last rites of the Holy Catholic Church his gentle spirit softly winged its way heavenward.

He leaves to mourn besides a sorrowing wife and two step-sons, Desmond and Gerard Burge, one sister, Mrs. Walter Quilty, and three nephews, Messrs. Herbert, Vancouver, Bruce, Boston and Maritime cattle show has so young a girl received such praise or won such a victory.

It is good news indeed to read that Georgetown will be one of the Island ports, where potatoes will be loaded for shipment to the United Kingdom. It is hoped that loading here will take place during the month of April, before the man power is engaged in the lobster fishing business.

A pleasant evening was spent recently at the home of Mr. and Mrs. George MacDonald, Crapaud, when their family, friends and neighbors met to celebrate with them their wedding anniversary. Cards and dancing were enjoyed until Mr. Fred Sherren, expressed ing the sentiments of those present in a few well chosen words, congratulated Mr. and Mrs. MacDonald on this happy occasion. Others spoke, all stressing the kindness and hospitality of this popular couple.

Mr. Eddie Morrison, merchant of Victoria, is at present on a visit to Boston, while absent his duties are being capably discharged by Mrs. Morrison and nephew, Mr. Clarence MacPhail.

The many friends of Mr. Horace Parker of Georgetown, Royalty, a veteran of both World Wars, regret to hear of his continued illness and all hope to see him speedily restored to good health.

A dinner meeting of the Charlottetown Kennel Club Incorporated was held at the Charlottetown Hotel last night with President Dr. E.S. Notling in the chair. It was unanimously decided by vote that a dog show would be held this June at the Forum. The subject of holding field trials for hunting dogs was discussed and trials will be held in the fall. In connection with this it was pointed out that already some outside trainers had written inquiring about reservations, etc.

Two films were shown, one of sheep dogs in England and the other on the behavior of dogs in cities, the latter being of particular concern.

BIRTHS
FORD - At the P. E. I. Hospital on March 10, 1947, to Mr. and Mrs. Preston Ford, North Milton, a son, Preston Roger, (8 lbs. 12 oz.).
HUGHES - At the City Hospital on March 12, 1947, to Mr. and Mrs. M. A. Hughes, City a son - Lawrence Joseph.
WILLIAMS - At the Prince Edward Island Hospital, March 15, 1947, to Mr. and Mrs. Sterling Williams, North River, a daughter.
MACCORMAC - At the Charlottetown Hospital on Sunday, March 16, to Mr. and Mrs. Cornelius MacCormac (nee Elaine O'Meara) Charlottetown, a son.
RAMSAY - At the Prince County Hospital on Tuesday, March 18, 1947, to Mr. and Mrs. Earl Ramsay, Hamilton, a daughter. Weight 8 lbs. 14 oz.

TRAVERS - At the Prince County Hospital on March 18th to Mr. and Mrs. Grant Travers, Summerside, a son.
HAMILTON - At the Charlottetown Hospital, March 14, 1947, to Mr. and Mrs. Emile Gallant, Oyster Bed Bridge, a son.
NESBIT - Died on March 20, 1947, George Leslie, infant son of Mr. and Mrs. George Nesbit, Hunter River.

MARRIAGES
MACDONALD - MACARTHUR - At the Presbyterian Manse, Pictou, Nova Scotia, on March 8th, John Calvin MacDonald of Cornwall, P. E. Island and Bessie Emma MacArthur of Pictou, N. S., were united in marriage by Rev. G. M. Lamont.
MACDONALD-JOSEY - On Wednesday, February 19, 1947 at the Charlottetown Baptist Church by Rev. L. J. Levy, Freda Esther Josey to Wilfred Hunter MacDonald both of Charlottetown.

DEATHS
WEEKS - At her home on Sunday, March 16, 1947, Mrs. Henry Weeks, age 66 years.
RODD - At North Tryon on March 15, 1947, Mrs. Edmund Rodd, formerly of Milton, aged 88 years.
TIMMARS - At 115 Bedford St. on Saturday, March 15, 1947, Mrs. W. F. Timmarsh in her 87th year.
MACDONALD - In the Sacred Heart Home on Saturday, March 15, 1947, Mary MacDonald in her 78th year.
MACKENZIE - At the Prince Edward Island Hospital on Saturday, March 15, 1947, Wesley MacKenzie in his 68th year.
MACLAM - At the Provincial Sanatorium on March 15, Mrs. Carl MacAdam of Morell, aged 26 years.
TIPLIN - At New Annan on Monday, March 17, 1947, Chester P. Tuplin, aged 77 years.
FLYNN - At the Charlottetown Hospital, Monday, March 17, William Flynn, aged 88 years.
MACADAM - Died at the Provincial Sanatorium, March 17, 1947, Mrs. Carl MacAdam, aged 26 years.
CAMPBELL - At Charlottetown on Tuesday, March 18, Mrs. William Campbell in her 80th year.
OLIVE - Suddenly at P. E. Island Hospital, March 19, 1947, Harriet, wife of G. E. Olive.
ROCHE - At Dundee on Tuesday, March 18, Leo Roche in his 64th year.

MACDONALD - At the Charlottetown Hospital Wednesday, March 19, 1947, Joseph E. MacDonald in his 22nd year.
CHOWEN - At Charlottetown, March 19, 1947, William Chowen, formerly of Highfield, in his 86th year.

STARTS WORK IN 2 SECONDS
ASPIRIN EASES NEURALGIC PAIN
GENUINE ASPIRIN IS MARKED THIS WAY