"BAB'S DIARY"—All those who have read the adventures of Bab the sub-deb, written by Mary Roberts Rinehart for the Saturday Evening Post—and several hundred others who had not—wended their way last night to the Prince Edward Theatre to see "Bab's Diary" one of the quaintest serio-comedies that has been presented for some time—which is high praise indeed. Bab is a delightfully ingenuous character and very properly this role is taken by dainty and lovable Marguerite Clark—the part seems to have been created for her alone, she takes it so acceptably. "Bab's" adventures with her "male believe sweetheart" are comical in the extreme and are almost tragic (in her viewpoint) when in pursuit of a "love letter" she is arrested while taking an involuntary plunge into a bath while dressed in her best party dress. This splendid program will be repeated today and this afternoon.

GIRLS! DRAW A MOIST CLOTH THROUGH HAIR, DOUBLE ITS BEAUTY

Try this! Hair gets thick, glossy, wavy and beautiful at once.

Immediate?—Yes! Certain?—That's the joy of it. Your hair becomes light, wavy, fluffy, abundant and appears as soft, lustrous and beautiful as a young girl's after a Danderine hair cleanse. Just try this—moisten a cloth with a little Danderine and carefully draw it through your hair, taking one small strand at a time. This will cleanse the hair of dust, dirt or excessive oil, and in just a few moments you have doubled the beauty of your hair. A delightful surprise awaits those whose hair has been neglected or is scraggy, faded, dry, brittle or thin. Besides beautifying the hair, Danderine dissolves every particle of dandruff; cleanses, purifies and invigorates the scalp, forever stopping itching and falling hair, but what will please you most will be after a few weeks' use, when you see new hair—fine and downy at first—yes—but really new hair growing all over the scalp. If you care for pretty, soft hair, and lots of it, surely try a small bottle of Knowlton's Danderine from any drug store or toilet counter for a few cents.

RHEUMATISM CURED

In the days of our fathers and grandfathers rheumatism was thought to be the unavoidable penalty of middle life and old age. Almost every elderly person had rheumatism, as well as many young people. Medical science did not understand the trouble—did not know that it was rooted in the blood. It was thought that rheumatism was the mere effect of exposure to cold and damp, and it was treated with liniments and hot applications, which sometimes gave temporary relief, but did not cure the trouble. In those days there were thousands of rheumatic cripples. Now medical science understands that rheumatism is a disease of the blood, and that with good, rich, red blood any man or woman of any age can defy rheumatism. It can be cured by killing the poison in the blood which causes it. There are many elderly people who have never felt a twinge of rheumatism, and many who have conquered it by simply keeping their blood rich and pure. The blood making, blood enriching qualities of Dr. Williams' Pink Pills is becoming every year more widely known, and it is the more general use of these pills that has robbed rheumatism of its terrors. At the first sign of poor blood, which is shown by loss of appetite, palpitations, dull skin and dim eyes, protect yourself against the further progress of disease by taking Dr. Williams' Pink Pills. They will give you thousands of people—if you give them a fair trial they will not disappoint you. You can get these pills through any dealer in medicine or by mail at 50 cents a box or six boxes for $2.50 from The Dr. Williams' Medicine Co., Brockville, Ont.

IN SHIPPING CIRCLES.—Halifax is losing a well-known trading steamer to Newfoundland interests, one that was built expressly for the Newfoundland route and which has been the means of building up and retaining traffic between Nova Scotia and the Ancient Colony, says the Halifax Herald. The Seal, owned by Fairquhar and company, has been sold and it is said that the Baine Johnston company, of St. John's Nfld., are the purchasers of this fine freight and passenger boat, which is of entire steel construction, houses and all, and registers 277 tons, 608 gross. Built at old Kirkpatrick, G. B. in 1911, the Seal has been operated by the Halifax Fairquhar and Seafaring company, limited, the Fairquhar firm being the managers, in fact the whole company. She has from Windsor and it is quite possible her registry will be changed to St. John's. Captain Randall, who was at one time in charge of the steamer Sheba and was the first captain to dock an ocean boat at the new south terminal, for which honor he was presented with a gold headed cane at city hall by Mayor Martin in the presence of prominent Halifax citizens, is to have command of the Seal. Captain Randall arrived in Halifax Saturday from St. John's accompanied by a crew to join the Seal. She is now on her way to Halifax from Newfoundland and upon arrival will be taken over by Captain Randall, who sails for the firm of Baine Johnston company. The Seal is to be fitted out for sea going, work she successfully engaged in last year for her Halifax owners. The Seabie, a sister ship of the Seal, but 64 tons larger and built at Paisley, G. B., three years after the Seal, will likely be put in the Newfoundland service from Halifax. She has, up to the close of navigation to Prince Edward Island, been plying between Charlottetown and Newfoundland ports via North Sydney. She is at present away from Halifax.

AN EXEMPTION APPEAL.—Here is an exact copy of a letter sent to one of the exemption tribunals in the province of New Brunswick by a man who was seeking exemption from military service for his son. After carefully reading the letter and examining the boy the tribunal came to the conclusion that aside from these minor defects the lad was all right and could very well serve the King as a soldier. The letter was as follows: "When a boy 11 years old he got badly hurt and had a bad defect with his back, he has trouble to stoop to pick up anything, and one leg shorter than the other, and hurt his hand and one stiff finger, one hand and a defect on the other hand, and a hearing head, and staid hard of hearing. Can't walk for suffers with a sore side and the same when driving, back and side gets very sore when he lifts any thing heavy, eyes gets blood shot and frightened he never could go to school for he was always sick he cant read or write, and he is cross eyed, and he crossed his heels 9 years age, and every winter since then he is lade up with sore and healing heels they get bad and cut his foot across the walk, he is drowsy and sleepy and all his life when he goes to sleep he chokes jumps up and gasps for brett and he was attended by Dr. for too years for rupture. When he runs he gets so sick has to go to bed. I testify this facts are true and he is ever worse than I have put down, he sent in his exemption just to comply with the law, and if the war goes on we will send him to the Sylum. HIS FATHER.—St. John exchange.

NO RECOGNITION FOR BOLSHEVIKI

WASHINGTON, Jan. 9.—Nothing of the reported intention of the Japanese Government to extend recognition to the Bolsheviki has been heard by the State Department, and the Japanese Embassy is equally ignorant of the subject. In view of the complete understanding that has existed between the Entente allies, as to unity of action in such matters, it is said in Entente circles here that it is certain Japan would not take the initiative in recognizing the Bolsheviki without full conference with her allies and America. State Department officials say that there have been no negotiations on the subject up to this point. Close attention, however, is being given to the question of the status of the Bolsheviki regime, and from private statements of officials it is gathered that a decision will be reached very soon as an outcome of the meeting of the constituent assembly in Petrograd. If that body appears to be representative of the will of the Russian people and gives promise of being able to maintain a real Government willing to respect international obligations, the chances of the recognition will be excellent. This problem would at first take the form of a de facto recognition, which might easily and naturally resolve itself into a recognition of the Bolsheviki Government as de jure, providing in the meantime Lénine and Trotsky did not submit to impossible peace conditions in their negotiations with Germany.

U.S. WAR DEPARTMENT MAKES MISTAKES TOO

WASHINGTON, Jan. 8.—The Council of national defense this afternoon "passed the buck" back to the war department for the clothing and equipment shortages, which, it is charged, caused hundreds of deaths among recruits in the training camps. Charles Eisenman, vice chairman of the supply committee of the council, in the course of a story before the senate military affairs committee, threw the blame for uniform, overcoat and blanket shortages on the quartermaster's corps. Two big blunders on the part of the war department were responsible for the failure to supply sufficient clothing to keep the men in training camps warm, according to Eisenman. First—the action of the war department in calling troops in excess of the number which could be equipped. Second—Misdirected shipments which resulted in some camps getting nine blankets per man while others got none.

COAL RIOTS IN N.Y. SCHOOLS CLOSE

NEW YORK, Jan. 8.—With snow and colder weather threatened, "coal riots" broke out in New York today. A mob of about 600 men, women and children attacked the coal yards of Herman Horjes Coal and Wood company, crying: "We want coal and we will burn your plant if we don't get it." A hurry call was sent for police reserves, but before they arrived the mob had fought its way to the bins and made off with about thirty tons of coal. Many schools had to close down on account of the fuel famine.

CATARRH LEADS TO CONSUMPTION

Catarrh is as much a blood disease as scrofula or rheumatism. It may be relieved, but it cannot be removed by simply local treatment. It causes headaches and dizziness, impairs the taste, smell and hearing, affects the voice, deranges and distorts, and breaks down the general health. It weakens the delicate lung tissues and leads to consumption. Hood's Sarsaparilla goes to the seat of the trouble, purifies the blood, and is so successful that it is known as the best remedy for catarrh. Hood's Sarsaparilla strengthens and tones the whole system. It builds up. Ask your druggist for Hood's and insist on having it. There is no real substitute.
