Milland, Goddard A Hit In "The Lady Has Plans"

The story is full of hilarious situations and surprises. Paulette Goddard, a reporter, is assigned to assist Ray Milland, American news commentator stationed in Lisbon.
Foreign agents in New York, however, plan to keep her from making the Clipper so that they may substitute for her spy Margaret Hayes who has had stolen U. S. Navy plans drawn in invisible ink on her back.

Things go wrong with the spies scheming and Paulette, unsuspectingly, is in Lisbon to find a luxurious suite and four trunks full of beautiful clothes awaiting her. Also camped on her doorstep is the Englishman Roland Dekker and wanting to buy—or failing that, literally steal the plans off her back.

Milland is suspicious of a reporter who can afford the suite and the clothes, and when Young hits him Paulette is a spy he believes in, although innocently. He agrees to help Young get the plans from Paulette. When she finally realizes what it's all about, she denies her part in the American Embassy and then she and Milland go to town to trap the spies.

Willkie Urges War Aims Be Decided Now

TORONTO, Nov. 25 (CP)— Wendell L. Willkie said today that the United States must decide now whether it will continue to fight the war or will make peace with the Axis. He said that the people of the world have come to a common understanding of what they want for and what they hope for after the war is over.

Willkie, 1940 Republican nominee for the Presidency of the United States, said in an address prepared for delivery at a Canadian-aid-to-Russia-rund meeting in Maple Leaf Gardens that "the people must define their purposes during the war," and he added: "I am quite deliberately trying to provoke a discussion of those purposes which have not been defined in the various countries of the world."

"I was a soldier in the last war," said Willkie, "and after the war disappeared, our stirring slogans became the pests of the cynic, and all because the fighting people did not define their purposes in the postwar purpose while they fought. It must be our resolve to see that that does not happen again."

Canadians and all our fighting Allies in the common co-operation of our United States, he said, "the British and the instrumentality and the methods of co-operative effort after the war, we, the people, have failed of time and generation."

Willkie was introduced by Finance Minister James Flaherty. Others on the speakers' platform included Wigmore, newly appointed Canadian Minister to Russia, and F. Cusev, Russian Minister to Canada who recently took up his post at Ottawa.

Willkie, who returned five weeks ago from a tour of world battlegrounds as an unofficial emissary for President Roosevelt, made no reference in his address to the British Empire or to India, subjects of discussion in some of his recent speeches in the United States. He urged that the utmost aid be given to the people of Russia, during a winter in which food will be scarce "perhaps worse than scarce" and that "it will be known this winter in Russian homes."

Conservative Candidates For 1st Prince

Messrs. Allison Horne, O'Leary and Augustus Peters, Bloomfield, were unanimously nominated Conservative candidates for the 1st District of Prince at a largely attended convention held yesterday.
This case arose out of the death of Mrs. Sophie Gallant whose body was found in the ditch of the main highway on the morning of June 21, 1942. Her mother, Mrs. Labobe, suffered serious injuries at the scene of the accident and died yesterday. Both candidates are well known farmers.

The meeting was opened by Mr.
Augustus Peters, President of the West Prince Conservative Association, who called upon Mr. Albert Kennedy, 1st Vice President, to preside.

On the credentials committee were Messrs. Allison Horne, Martin Foley and Joseph Morrissey. The resolutions committee consisted of Messrs. Chester McCarthy, George Matthews and John A'Hearn.

Mr. Horne's nomination as Councillor was moved by Sanford Phillips, O'Leary, seconded by by A. Gallant, Alberton.

Mr. Peters' nomination as Assemblyman was moved by Joseph Wedge, St. Louis, seconded by Herbert Fraser, Alberton.

dian National Railway from Summerside West to the Upper Provinces amounting to as high as 41-2 cents per 100 lbs. in some instances as against shipments from Summerside East, this difference in rates amounts to thousands of dollars to the farmers from Summerside West and is virtually a tax on the farmers west of Summerside."

"And whereas we consider that the distance from Borden to the east end of the Province and to the different zones, especially on long "It is not possible for me to make the appointment of Darlan clear to the French people," he continued.

"For the time being, therefore, the messages have been stopped. I cannot take up a position from any other angle, as I am speaking on behalf of the French National Council."
"I have confidence, however, that the unhappy position in North Africa finally will be settled to the satisfaction of all concerned." The spokesman's action also followed closely upon the British cancellation of the speech planned for last Saturday by Gen. Charles De Gaulle.
De Gaulle's cancelled speech Eden said that "the Prime Minister and I did not think it delivery at this particular time would be helpful to the extreme and serious operations now proceeding in Tunisia."
"We would not take the responsibility for allowing anything to happen so far as we had the power to control it which might hamper the responsible commanders or make the task of our own troops and those of our Allies more difficult." Eden signed Britain's "fullest agreement" with President Roosevelt's statement of Nov. 17 describing the Eisenhower-Darlan ent." Eden also discouraged any discussion of the North African political arrangements for the present.

highway near New Annan. The plan was received in evidence.

W. E. Smallman, Summerside, proprietor of Airways Taxi, testified that on the evening of June 20, 1942, he was driving a taxi from I.M.T. Bus Service to take the overflow of passengers from Summerside east. He left Summerside at 10:15 p.m. and arrived in New Annan at 11:15 p.m. after midnight.
At Chester Tupper's gate near New Annan he let out two women, one of which he noticed was a young Irish woman in evidence.

Mr. Horne's nomination as Councillor was moved by Sanford
