WEDDING BELLS—The marriage of two of New London's most popular young people, Miss Annie McKay daughter of Hugh B. McKay of Clifton and William Hall Warren son of Peter Warren of Clinton, took place at the Mansie, New London on Wednesday the 22nd inst. where the ceremony was performed by the Rev. George Miller. The bride, who was unattended, wore a tailored suit of navy blue serge, embroidered in black, with pretty Spring hat and Sable furs, the gift of the groom. After the ceremony the happy pair drove to their new home, where a reception was held. Many handsome and beautiful presents were showered upon the bride at a gathering of friends a few days before. Deeper than any expression of material gifts are the heartfelt wishes of their many friends.

ST. PATRICK'S DAY AT ST. JOSEPH'S COLLEGE

(Moncton Times)
St. Joseph's. The time honored celebration of St. Patrick's Day, took place with all its usual zest on the part of the Irish students to make the day a grand success. The features of the day's celebration were under the auspices of St. Patrick's Society.
Rev. Father D. J. Bethune, C.S.C., said Low Mass at 6.30 a. m., at which the Society went to Holy Communion in a body. The church was decked out very charmingly with the green decoration of natural foliage. Rev. Father C. Doiron, C.S.C., presided at the organ, and the choir under the direction of Mr. J. E. Dolan, sang Irish hymns during the Mass. Messrs. Paire, Bridgo and Dolan were heard in appropriate solos. Later in the morning, Rev. Father, A. S. McDougall officiated at Solemn High Mass, assisted by Rev. Fathers G. Brunson, C.S.C. and Doiron, C.S.C. A very graceful and instructive sermon on St. Patrick's day was delivered by the ecclesiast.

After High Mass the students gathered in the music hall, where an enjoyable time was spent by all. At one o'clock, the annual banquet was held in the College refectory. After the stupendous dinner prepared by the Sisters of the Holy Family, the Toastmasters, Mr. W. S. Bridgo proposed the toast let with responses as follows:

The Day we celebrate—Fred C. Carney, President.
Ireland—Rev. D. J. LeBlanc, C.S.C. Moderator.
Self-Determination for Ireland—Mr. S. W. Keohan, B. A.
Alma Mater—Very Rev. L. Guerin, C.S.C. Ph.D., D.D.
Sister Societies—Vincent Doucet, Canada—Clarence Pille.
Lines of "St. James D. Wholly."
Guests—Rev. A. S. McDougall, C.S.C.

After the singing of "O Canada" and "God Save the King" the feast ended.
In the evening an entertainment consisting of musical addresses, readings and a humorous sketch was staged by the Society before the faculty and students in LeFevre Memorial Hall. The program which was well carried out in every respect, follows:
Overture—"Irish Melodies"—Orchestra.
Address—President.
Reading—"Mr. Chaoibhin Cno"—James Murphy.
Violin Solo—Mr. Herve LeBlanc, B.A.

Chorus—"The Minister Boy"—St. Patrick's Society.
"God Save the King."
The orchestra was at its best under the able direction of Rev. appreciated by all present.

Brother Didier, C.S.C. Rev. O. E. Leger, C.S.C. acted as accompanist more than a match for the endles-ly good, as were also the several declaimers of the evening.
The instructive and timely address by Mr. Keohan, who former-ly was one of the Society's most useful members, was gratefully re-ceived in the college chapel in the evening; and that came to an end another St. Patrick's day, always a red letter day among St. Joseph's students. An illustration of how much a holiday of this sort is appreciated by the students, it is said that some of the younger students are already looking forward to next St. Patrick's Day.
