DIGBY LADY PROUD
OF NEW
CANDLESTICKS

Exchanged poker hands packed with Rosebud cut plug tobacco.

This lady always wanted a pair of candlesticks and when she found her husband's favourite smoking tobacco was Rosebud, she saved up the poker hands, packed in this popular pipe tobacco. It was very easy for her to obtain three complete sets of a poker hands which she exchanged for a pair of these candlesticks of very attractive design. So pleased is she with her premium, that she is now saving up for a pen and pencil set in the new black and white effect, which she obtained at complete of poker. What is it so easy and sets to obtain many desirable presents. The fact that Rosebud is popular among men because of its fine quality and long and fragrant flavour. All over the world, dealers report that the Rosebud cut plug are steadily going as more and more men find out this choice smoking tobacco. The 10 cent package contains one poker hand—the larger fifteen cent package contains two poker hands.

Wins Canadian Amateur Golf Championship

(The Canadian Press) LONDON HUNT CLUB London, Ont. Aug 10—On the eighth hole of this course Saturday, G. Ross "Sandy" Somerville sank a four foot putt, and when the ball dropped in the cup, he was the Canadian Amateur Golf Champion. This is the third time imperishable "Sandy" has won this tournament, coming through also in 1926 in Ottawa and in Montreal. The distinguished Canadian Club winder defeated an equally distinguished shot maker from the United States, J. Wood Platt, of the Aronimnick Club of Philadelphia, eleven up and ten to go in the 36 hole final

"yours?" asked Lady Augusta with a queer smile. "I explained it to him. My father is a shopkeeper in Markyate, My Aunt Naomi, bless her heart, is a shopkeeper, too. The war has made me a soldier, but if I am not killed I shall go back to the shop-keeping ranks, too. Poppy has been very good about it on the whole. The fault was mine. I want to say that I am very thankful to see you here to-day, Lady Augusta. I don't know why or how my Aunt Naomi managed to bring you, but the accomplished fact is what I have been longing for. It will, I am sure, put things right." "In what way?" asked Lady Augusta, in rather a quiet voice.
