IN MEMORIAM

MRS. JOHN GAUTHIER

The visitation of death brings sorrow and mourning at all times, but when it comes with the swiftness of lightning and takes away those who are in the prime of life and could perform so many more noble works in this world, the loss is doubly severe.

It is then our sad duty to relate that death did visit the home of Mr. John Gauthier, teacher of North Rustico on Nov. 24th, 1931 and left there the summons which called away his beloved wife, nee Emelie Anne Bourgeois daughter of John Bourgeois and Veronica Doiron at the early age of 44 years, from a life of self-sacrifice to the eternal joys promised to those who have followed closely and faithfully the teachings of the Divine Master.

She was stricken down by sickness on Nov. 16th, which nobody then thought was of a serious nature, but it soon developed into pneumonia and despite the earnest efforts of the physician and the careful nursing of the family, her soul took its flight to its creator, on the above mentioned date. She suffered in her sickness with remarkable patience and resignation

P., with predominant energy issuing from steadfast resolution has directed the enterprising male part of the parish now to furnish the material and localize it so that when welcome spring returns, the building may be done before planting.
