WASHINGTON, Nov. 23.—Elbert H. Gary, executive head of the United States Steel Corporation, made a plea for "Big business" today before the Senate Committee on Interstate Commerce, which is searching for a solution of the present trust problem in the United States.

Big corporations are essential to the development of the country and cannot be prevented from exercising the power that comes with wealth and control of industrial agencies he thought the Government should take control of them, through a corporation of trade commission, with absolute power to regulate their affairs.

Add to this a clear law as to what can and cannot be done in the name of publicity on all the affairs of presidential and other political issues from the business world and the "unrest" that has spread over the United States will largely disappear said Mr. Gary.

The coming election is already disturbing business, he added. He said members of the courts ought to be appointed for life; that the President ought to be elected for eight years without the privilege of re-election, that he would be in a "position and frame of mind" where he would not be tempted to "look in any direction or toward any interests" in seeking re-election.

Mr. Gary dwelt at length upon the political situation. He said he had no particular President in mind but he believed fewer elections and less reason for seeking public or private support for political purposes would aid which started at midnight in the large drygoods store of J. W. Beck with, on Queen Street. Just before retiring a little after 12 o'clock Mr. Beckwith heard a crash of something falling. He rushed out of doors and soon discovered his store on fire. He called his son Frederick, who gave the alarm from the town fire bell. Mr. Beckwith soon had his garden hose in action and kept the fire in check until the fire hose was put on the town pressure. The firemen were on the spot in five minutes time with a splendid stream of water. In less than half an hour the fire was under control. It is supposed the fire originated round the chimney, which was showing sparks and flame at the first moment. The store contained fully twenty thousand dollars worth of Christmas goods, most of which were practically ruined by fire, smoke and water.

The fire broke through in one place only in the rear. One of the heavy plate glass windows was cracked across the centre. The inside of the building is intact. The water and contents are soaked with stock as follows—$6,000 on the building, $2,000 on the building.

Minard's Liniment Co., Ltd., Gentlemen,—In July 1905 I was thrown from a road machine, injuring my hip and back badly and was obliged to use a crutch for 14 months. In Sept. 1906 Mr. Wm. Cutridge of Lachine urged me to try MINARD'S LINIMENT, which I did with the most satisfactory results and today I am as well as ever in my life. Yours sincerely, MATTHEW X BAINES.
