

Woman's Realm Social and Personal Fashions Literature

helena rubinstein

Invites You to Save 20% on Her Famous Beauty Requisites*

Save on These Beauty Requisites

	Regular Price	Special Price
Beauty Grains (a granular wash)	1.25	1.00
Pasteurized Face Cream	1.25	1.00
Valase Skin Lotion (Skin Toning Lotion)	1.25	1.00
Town and Country Night Cream (Youthifying Tissue Cream)	1.25	1.00
Wake-Up Cream (Skin Clearing Cream)	1.25	1.00
Hand Lotion	1.25	1.00
Special Cream Masque (Special Pore Masque)	1.25	1.00
Lipstick Refills	.75	.60
Rouge (Cream or Gelatin)	1.25	1.00
Apple Blossom Face Powder	1.25	1.00
Waterproof Mascara (Black, Brown, Blue)	1.25	1.00
Apple Blossom Eau de Toilette	2.25	1.80
Apple Blossom Body Powder, with Puff	1.50	1.20
Heaven-Sent Eau de Toilette	2.00	1.60
Heaven-Sent Body Powder, with Puff	1.65	1.30
Heaven-Sent Soap (2 cakes box)	1.00	.80

The Finest Lasts Longer

JAMIESON'S Drug Store

Sofa Revived by a New Slip Cover

Made By Quick Pin-on Method
A glossy dark, brightly printed new slip cover does wonders for your old sofa's morale! It picks up the spirits of beholders and sitters, too.

You can make it easily the pin-on way. You just pin pieces of fabric directly to the sofa, snip off the excess material and sew piece to piece.

To start, remove cushions and pin fabric to top-back with big pins. Pin it down over the inside-back and seat of one section, allowing 4 inches for tuck-in between. Then trim around all the pins, leaving 1 1/2 inches for seams.

Now, working in the very same way, pin and trim other pieces of fabric to fit other back-and-seat sections - and do likewise for front arms, sides, back and cushions. Pin piece to piece, remove to taste, then try on.

Finish with a deep, gathered flounce - or a smart stiff one with corner kick-pleats.

Our 32-page booklet diagrams each step in making and trimming slip covers for chairs, sofas, auto seats. Has directions for barrel and channel-back chairs; includes trilly and tailored cover styles. Suggests colors, fabrics.

Send 20c in coins for your copy of "How to Make Slip Covers" to The Guardian Home Service. Be sure to write plainly your Name, Address and the Name of booklet.

Name _____
 Street Address _____
 City _____ Province _____

GREAT AMAZON

Ocean-going vessels can ascend the Amazon river 2,300 miles.

Modern Tinted WALLS and CEILINGS

Easily and quickly obtained with

Alabastine

ON SALE EVERYWHERE IN CANADA

Dorothy Dix Says—

WAR MAKES CHANGES, SO DON'T RUSH INTO MARRIAGE

It Is Better To Wait, For What Seemed Like Love May Turn Into Something Else

DEAR MISS DIX—I am 17 and have been in love with a boy of 20 for two years, and he with me. He has asked me to marry him, although we have definitely decided to wait until he returns from the war and I have received a college education. Our problem is this: Shall we enter into a binding engagement now? We know we are in love at the present, but we do not know how we will feel several years later. Would it even be best for us to marry now? Would that tend to hold us together? Your advice will be greatly appreciated.

ANSWER—If you will take my advice, you and your boy friend will leave the matter of your relationship open until he returns from the war. You will have just an agreement when he gets back, if you still love each other and want each other that you will marry; but if in the meantime you have lost your taste for each other you will call the wedding off, with no hearts broken because of them and making the fatal mistake of entering into engagements that ends in divorce, and that causes plenty of trouble in the meantime.

Whether these boys and girls believe it or not, it is inevitable that time and change and circumstances will have their effects upon them. No boy who goes into the army will come out the same old boy as he was when he put on his uniform. He will have grown from a boy into a man. He will have been disciplined. He will have learned a thousand things he will have different habits, formed different habits, have a different outlook on life. Some will come out better men. Others worse. But they will not be the same.

WHEN THE CHANGE, TOO, and the girls left behind them will be changed, too. They will have grown-up also. They will be women instead of little girls. They will have gotten jobs and become self-supporting. Many of them will have learned that no woman thought of before the war. And they, also, when Johnny comes marching home and meets the Girl Friend she will be a stranger to him. Maybe their love will have survived. Maybe they like better than the old one. But how much better it will be in any case if they have left themselves free to renew the old love, or make a new one, without being bound by any old obligations.

LIFE IS WHAT YOU MAKE IT. DEAR MISS DIX—Is a background a very important thing? Both of my parents were terrible drunkards and they left me nothing but shame and that there was no use in trying to make anything of myself. Ever since I can remember I have known that everyone looked down on me. Do you think I could go away some place where I am not known and start a good clean new life for myself? Couldn't I just say that my parents are dead and let it go at that?

ANSWER—Undoubtedly it is a great blessing to have a good background and a handicap to have a bad one, but many people with fine make a poor background and many people with fine make a poor background. It is all in the man or woman. Just because your father and mother were drunkards can make you never even touch a drop of liquor. And just because your father and mother were thieves can make you never even touch a drop of money. It is all in the man or woman.

CHAPTER III
"Papa Rollins, as I live and breathe!" Wheatley cried. "How are you?" Don asked, gripping his hand. "Don't worry! It's good to see you!" They stood for a moment scrutinizing one another, their silence broken by the sound of their feet on the floor. The three of them were sitting at the table all trying to talk at once.

CHAPTER III
"Papa Rollins, as I live and breathe!" Wheatley cried. "How are you?" Don asked, gripping his hand. "Don't worry! It's good to see you!" They stood for a moment scrutinizing one another, their silence broken by the sound of their feet on the floor. The three of them were sitting at the table all trying to talk at once.

CHAPTER III
"Papa Rollins, as I live and breathe!" Wheatley cried. "How are you?" Don asked, gripping his hand. "Don't worry! It's good to see you!" They stood for a moment scrutinizing one another, their silence broken by the sound of their feet on the floor. The three of them were sitting at the table all trying to talk at once.

CHAPTER III
"Papa Rollins, as I live and breathe!" Wheatley cried. "How are you?" Don asked, gripping his hand. "Don't worry! It's good to see you!" They stood for a moment scrutinizing one another, their silence broken by the sound of their feet on the floor. The three of them were sitting at the table all trying to talk at once.

CHAPTER III
"Papa Rollins, as I live and breathe!" Wheatley cried. "How are you?" Don asked, gripping his hand. "Don't worry! It's good to see you!" They stood for a moment scrutinizing one another, their silence broken by the sound of their feet on the floor. The three of them were sitting at the table all trying to talk at once.

CHAPTER III
"Papa Rollins, as I live and breathe!" Wheatley cried. "How are you?" Don asked, gripping his hand. "Don't worry! It's good to see you!" They stood for a moment scrutinizing one another, their silence broken by the sound of their feet on the floor. The three of them were sitting at the table all trying to talk at once.

CHAPTER III
"Papa Rollins, as I live and breathe!" Wheatley cried. "How are you?" Don asked, gripping his hand. "Don't worry! It's good to see you!" They stood for a moment scrutinizing one another, their silence broken by the sound of their feet on the floor. The three of them were sitting at the table all trying to talk at once.

CHAPTER III
"Papa Rollins, as I live and breathe!" Wheatley cried. "How are you?" Don asked, gripping his hand. "Don't worry! It's good to see you!" They stood for a moment scrutinizing one another, their silence broken by the sound of their feet on the floor. The three of them were sitting at the table all trying to talk at once.

THUNDER FROM THE STANDS

By Vincent Richards

Another name for flavor... Tender Leaf Tea. Blended and packed in Canada.

at your grocer's in 7- and 12-oz. packages - also in improved FILTER tea balls.

A little later the car stopped before the building which housed their thirteenth unoccupied apartment. Len put the car over. "Any waiked through the hall and up three flights of stairs. The door closed behind them. They were in their new home, Grace said. "Well, we've done it, darling! We're married!"

Grace looked down into Frank Wheatley's face. How nicely he and Grace could use some extra money. "Yes, I might give it a try, Frank. Thanks."

CHAPTER III
"Papa Rollins, as I live and breathe!" Wheatley cried. "How are you?" Don asked, gripping his hand. "Don't worry! It's good to see you!"

CHAPTER III
"Papa Rollins, as I live and breathe!" Wheatley cried. "How are you?" Don asked, gripping his hand. "Don't worry! It's good to see you!"

CHAPTER III
"Papa Rollins, as I live and breathe!" Wheatley cried. "How are you?" Don asked, gripping his hand. "Don't worry! It's good to see you!"

CHAPTER III
"Papa Rollins, as I live and breathe!" Wheatley cried. "How are you?" Don asked, gripping his hand. "Don't worry! It's good to see you!"

CHAPTER III
"Papa Rollins, as I live and breathe!" Wheatley cried. "How are you?" Don asked, gripping his hand. "Don't worry! It's good to see you!"

CHAPTER III
"Papa Rollins, as I live and breathe!" Wheatley cried. "How are you?" Don asked, gripping his hand. "Don't worry! It's good to see you!"

CHAPTER III
"Papa Rollins, as I live and breathe!" Wheatley cried. "How are you?" Don asked, gripping his hand. "Don't worry! It's good to see you!"

CHAPTER III
"Papa Rollins, as I live and breathe!" Wheatley cried. "How are you?" Don asked, gripping his hand. "Don't worry! It's good to see you!"

CHAPTER III
"Papa Rollins, as I live and breathe!" Wheatley cried. "How are you?" Don asked, gripping his hand. "Don't worry! It's good to see you!"

CHAPTER III
"Papa Rollins, as I live and breathe!" Wheatley cried. "How are you?" Don asked, gripping his hand. "Don't worry! It's good to see you!"

Living & Leisure

The Woman's Realm

"Think beautiful thoughts and set them adrift. On Eternity's boundless sea; Let their burden be pure, let their white sails lift. And bring from you the comforting gift Of a heartfelt sympathy.

For a beautiful thought is a beautiful thing. And out on the infinite tide—May meet and touch, and tenderly bring to the weak and sick or sorrowing. A solace so long denied!

The last thing at night straighten out your living room. Take out papers, empty ash trays and put everything in place. Then it will be presentable the first thing in the morning.

Sports clothes and tailored suits are still fitted with softly padded shoulders, high necks and normal waists. A treat for any little dark frock that is still serviceable is a piece of frothy neckwear. One ruffled collar is crisp organdie with tiny lace frills held by even finer veils. Another comes in orchid, sky blue, rose pink or champagne.

Pale blue gabardine makes a neat tailored shirtwaist dress with nice detailing in the top-stitched band seams, the bellows pockets and natural leather belt.

VITAMIN PRINTS ARE NEW STYLE
Youngsters will take their vitamins externally this Spring! Fresh and newest of the cotton crop are the deliciously fresh-looking apple prints, carrots, pears, print, rose radials and crisp lettuce prints, as well as ripe strawberry and fruit prints. Splashed gayly on sweet cotton dresses, they're new, fresh for school and "best." Equally enchanting for big and little sisters are the floral prints on permanent glazed chintzes, peasant prints, for school and play, tote and teens prefer seersuckers, gingham, denim and poplins. The younger set's best loved styles are noted as princess long torso, jumper, dirndl and pinafores for all ages. Swirling hemlines tell a gay story with border interest played up in printed, applique or tie-die trim. Ruffled and puffed skirts as well as bib collars add more fashion news. Mother and daughter fashions are becoming more and more popular, and newest for Spring is the spun rayon pastel dirndl dress with fresh white pique applique at neckline and hemline.

SOUP TRICK
If the soup stock seems too greasy, tie a cloth that has been wrung out of cold water over the top of a deep pan. When poured, the hot liquid will run through the cloth and the grease should cling to it.

CAKE TIP
When adding nuts or raisins to cake batter be sure that they are completely dried before folding them in. Raisins may be spread on a flat pan and dried in the oven a bit after washing. Use part of the flour called for in the recipe for dredging.

SAFETY RULES FOR CHILDREN
A new series of "Don't" for parents has been drawn up by the Royal Society for the Prevention of Accidents. Here are some of them:
Do not send young children on errands which necessitate crossing busy streets, particularly in the dark hours.
If your child has a toy bicycle of car, or roller skates, he should not

Relieves distress from MONTHLY FEMALE WEAKNESS
Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound not only helps relieve monthly pain but also weak, nervous, and irritable conditions. It helps build up resistance against distress of "dainty days." Made in Canada.

Needcrafts

For The Home

Your kitchen cabinet, your refrigerator, your washing machine—they're all streamlined to save time, space, energy. Here comes a homemakers' dress that's in tune with your functional kitchen conveniences—a frock that you can sew up and slip into in a twinkling.

ALUMINUM TIP
To prevent aluminum cooking utensils from warping, don't cool the utensils too quickly after removing from the fire. Allow it to reach room temperature before putting to soak.

AND MANY TONGUES
India's 390,000,000 people include 45 races.

By Westover

2601
SIZES 14-48
To Charlottetown Guardian Needcraft Department
Style No. 2601 Size _____
Name _____
Street Address _____

TILLIE THE TOILER—A PICTURE OF JEALOUSY

ARRID

ARRID

