

THEY DON'T HESITATE TO TELL OF MOST WONDERFUL CURES

Letters in almost every mail bring true testimony of cures by "Fruit-a-tives", the great fruit medicine.

Reasons why the writers are anxious for all to hear their messages,—these stories are a matter of public interest and benefit.

It is astonishing the number of letters the proprietors of "Fruit-a-tives" receive every day, each praising this wonderful fruit medicine, and telling in simple language what it has done in cases of Chronic Constipation and Kidney Trouble.

Frequent mails bring testimonials from people—good, reliable and honest people amongst whom are not a few in prominent positions. It might be thought that such persons would not care for the publicity of having their testimonials reproduced. But no, they want their glad testimony to circle the globe if possible.

They have been great sufferers, but they have been cured by "Fruit-a-tives". The writers give their names and addresses, and frequently forward photographs to be published with the testimonials. "Fruit-a-tives" testimonials are not written for worldly reward. The recompense is in the good these testimonials will bring to others, who may be suffering from Bladder Troubles, Severe Headaches or Impure Blood.

Whether you have read "Fruit-a-tives" testimonials or not, don't miss one of them from this day forward.

You will gladly add your testimony no doubt when you have been cured by taking "Fruit-a-tives". Sold at 50c. a box, 6 boxes for $2.50, trial size 25c. If you don't get them right at hand they will be sent post paid on receipt of price by Fruit-a-tives Limited, Ottawa.

MY FREE TRIAL TREATMENT MAY CURE YOU

Dear Mrs. Currah—I feel so very much better after using the 10 days' treatment of ORANGE LILY you were kind enough to send, that I will not require any more. In fact, I feel entirely well, and it is now a month since I stopped using the treatment. (Miss F. W. T.)

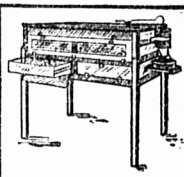

Similar letters to the above are not infrequent, though, of course, such cases are not of long standing. Most women who have suffered for a long time will require to use ORANGE LILY longer than the 10 days' trial treatment in order to effect a complete cure, but in every case the benefit will be permanent. Further, the benefit will be permanent whether they continue to use ORANGE LILY or not. It is not taken internally, and does not contain any alcohol or other stimulant. It is an applied treatment, and acts directly on the suffering organs. In all cases of women's disorders, these organs are congested to a greater or less extent, and the action of ammonia or soap on soiled linen. It is a simple chemical complete cure. In order that every suffering woman may prove its good qualities, I will send enough of ORANGE LILY for 10 days' treatment, absolutely free, to each lady who will send me her address. MRS. FRANCES E. CURRAH, WINDSOR, ONT.

$5,000,000.00 FOR PEERLESS WAY POULTRYMEN

Into the pockets of the users of The Peerless Way last year went five million dollars made from the poultry these people raised. Yet chickens are scarce in Canada and eggs are the scarcest of all food commodities. That is positively the fact.

To-day there are not enough Canadian CHICKENS or EGGS to go around. Thousands of chickens and hundreds of thousands of dozens of eggs are being shipped into Canada from the United States and other countries to help meet the demand.

Yet there is a shortage! Eggs are commanding a tremendous price—chickens are worth dollars.

Now is the time to take advantage of this situation and make money out of it yourself. You can raise and sell 600 chickens this year, and you will find a quick and sure market for every one of them. You can get the top notch price for all the hundreds of dozens of eggs that your poultry lay.

Let us tell you how!

Poultry raising is the best business for any farmer, any farmer's wife or farmer's child. The poultry crop is the one crop that never fails. It pays better for the time and money invested; the profit is sure; it isn't overworked and never will be.

Our book "When Poultry Pays," will show you. Let us send it to you. It is interesting; it is instructive; and it contains the proof.

You need this book. It will be mailed free. A post card will bring it.

ABRAM AND LOT.
Gen. 13: 1-12.

GOLDEN TEXT.

"The blessing of Jehovah, it maketh rich; and he added no sorrow therewith."—Prov. 10-22.

POINTED SUGGESTIONS.

By Rev. D. W. Snider.
Men who have pledged themselves to obey God and to be content in His service and with the measure of prosperity it may be His will to grant them, make a sorry mess of it when, for some so-called prudential reasons or false ideas of self-protection, they descend to the deceptions, and trickeries and crafty contrivances of the world. Abram looks a marred and shrunken and disreputable figure in that role.

He took flight at his own picture in Egypt and broke away. Like the prodigal of whom Jesus speaks, he came to himself. And he did the best thing he could do, and for him the only right thing. He went straight back to Bethel. . . . "unto the place of the altar, which he had made there at the first." And that is the only right thing for anyone to do and the safe thing; stay close to the altar of personal thanksgiving and surrender to God.

Abram had "made money" in Egypt. He became rich in cattle, etc. But like the richest of too many Christian men, it was unallowed gain. It brought no blessing. It could give none. It was the source of trouble. What comfort had he in it? It may be that disgust at his career with the gains of it may be credited as the father of, at least, a portion of the magnanimity which he later showed.

The opportunity came. Shameful bickerings and quarrels over the disposition of flocks and herds among contending herdmen and stewards presented it. And when the Canaanite and Perazite got talking about them it was time for Abram to act. Worldlings are quick to see and greedy to chuckle over the differences and disputings of Christian men.

There is a beautiful scene pictured to us at this point in the lesson, so far as Abram is concerned. His words are right words. His spirit is a right spirit. His whole character comes to princely elevation as he holds converse with his nephew as to the wisdom of a separation in pasture lands, rather than to let cattle separate the brotherly ties which Abram was not one to "kick horns" because the crowded cattle did. How like cattle men become when brute actions can symbolize mental determinations.

What is to be said about this man Lot? Reptiles, skunks, crawling things are studies in natural history and Lot is also a study in character. Alas, that his kind are still alive. He is the father of the spongy, greedy opportunist and of the breed of the "get-rich-quick."

But it must be remembered before we are recalled to it that Lot was righteous above many. Down in Sodom there were those who were worse. Lot was, somehow, righteous enough to be vexed day by day with the unrighteousness with which he willingly placed and kept himself in contact. Funny? yes, if not so unworthy and contemptible. What a miserable soul, leading a joyless life, whose daily business gives him a daily shame! Doe to the men who gamble in the stocks and markets and make rich out of the sweat and labor of their fellows, as those in Sodom do. Lot deliberately pitched his tent toward Sodom. He had, for some reason, good or bad, hung on to Abram until he was rich. Perhaps he started right. But as one advantage after another was flung in his way by the great-minded Abram, he permitted himself gradually to sink to that low-minded condition which works and waits for the fortunate turn of opportunity, as though everything, sooner or later, must bring grist to his mill.

March 2
GOD'S COVENANT WITH ABRAHAM.

Gen. xv., 5-13; Commit verses 5, 6.

GOLDEN TEXT.

He is Faithful that I promise, Heb. X., 23.

HOME READINGS.

Monday—Gen. XV., 5-18. God's Covenant with Abraham.

Tuesday—Gen. xvi. Divine and Human Plans.

Wednesday—Gen. xvii., 1-8. An Everlasting Covenant.

Thursday—Gen. xvii., 15-21. A Son Promised.

Friday—Gen. xviii., 1-15. The Promise Renewed.

Saturday—Heb. ix., 11-22. A Better Covenant.

Sunday—Eph. ii., 11-12. Universality of the New Covenant.

Since the events of our last lesson, Lot had been taken captive by the Elamite King who made an attack on Sodom and carried away a number of captives and many spoils. Abraham on hearing of Lot's capture set out in pursuit of the Elamite army and succeeded in rescuing Lot and securing the spoils. When returning he was met by the priest—King of Salem, Melchizedek and later by the King of Sodom. The former blessed him and the latter urged him to keep the spoils as his reward, but Abraham refused.

Abraham thinking the promise of a great posterity was long in being fulfilled, signified his willingness to adopt an heir. Many years had passed since the promise was given; Abraham and his wife were growing old and were still childless. The Babylonian law of adoption permitted the childless man to adopt a son who took his name and became his heir.

To strengthen Abraham's faith God shows him the spectacle of the stars in the heavens which He uses as an impressive figure of descending angels who would call him father. The 'Stars of Heaven' travellers tell us are much more impressive and numerous viewed through the Syrian atmosphere than the moister air of Northern climes. Abraham was first commanded to offer sacrifice. So God's blessing is always revealed to us through sacrifice. We must first make full and complete surrender of ourselves to His will. The animals were divided representing the two parties to the covenant. Abraham's descendants were to become a great nation. For four hundred years they were to wander in Egypt. God was to judge them—a reference to the plagues and the destruction of the Egyptians. Afterwards they were to come out with great substance (Ex. xii., 35, 38), and return to Canaan. Abraham was to live to a good old age. In four hundred years the people were to return to Canaan.

The Amorites were the most powerful tribe of Canaan and here the name stands for all the people of that land. They were to have four hundred years of opportunity, and Israel's inheritance was limited by the use they made of their opportunity.

The ratification of the covenant took place when the bright light enveloped in cloud passed between the victims. God gave the promise of the inheritance of Canaan and Abraham on his part promised faith and obedience.

To Abraham Jehovah was more than a ruler and a judge. He was Father and Friend. He held close and constant communion with God and his mind was so fixed on obeying Him that he never failed to receive the message or command. As when we wish to hear anything distinctly we shut out the things, so in order to have God's will revealed to us we must shut out the things of the world which lead us away from Him. Abraham believed God and no doubt realized what a divine future was held out to him. He had left his home and kindred and any future which he might have carved out for himself, realizing that greater and better things awaited him in the path in which God would lead.

Gained in Weight. Digestion Restored. Health Renewed

HERE IS MORE PROOF OF QUICK CURE FOR ALL FOLKS THAT ARE WEAK, AILING, NERVOUS.

More Praise for Dr. Hamilton's Pills.

"For a period last summer the thought of food excited feelings of nausea," writes Mrs. C. A. Dodge, of Bloomebury. "The heat had made me listless and the distaste for food reduced me to a condition of semi-starvation and brought me to the verge of nervous collapse. Tonics were useless to restore an active desire for food. The doctors told me my liver and kidneys were both at fault, but the medicines they gave me were too severe and reduced my strength so that I had to abandon them. At the suggestion of a friend who had been cured of blood and skin trouble, I began the use of Dr. Hamilton's Pills. The difference I first noticed was, that while they cleansed the system, instead of feeling weaker I felt better after taking them. Indeed their activity was so mild it was easy to forget I had taken them at all; they seemed to go right to the liver, and in a very brief time not only did all source of nausea disappear, but I began to crave food and I digested it reasonably well. Then I began to put on weight until within three months I was brought to a condition of good health. I urge Dr. Hamilton's Pills for all who are in poor health."

Get this best of all medicines to-day and refuse a substitute for Dr. Hamilton's Pills of Mandrake and Butternut. Sold by all druggists and storekeepers, 25c. per box or five for $1.00. Sent postpaid by The Catarrh Co., Buffalo, N.Y., and Kingston, Canada.
