OBSERVE THE END OF 40 HOURS DEVOTION

MONTREAL, Oct. 21. — The end of the forty hours' devotion was observed at St. Peter's church last night by the celebration of solemn vespers. There was an enormous attendance, many being unable to gain admittance, to the church. An interesting feature of the service was a procession composed of men and children. Yesterday marked the first occasion on which the church has been publicly used since the new floor was laid. This floor, which cost about $4,300, is of rubber tiling in a beautiful design and presents a very handsome appearance. The altar has also been redecorated, a noticeable feature of the improvements being the new paintings.

CHARLOTTETOWN TO HAVE GRAND OPERA IN ENGLISH.

Opera House Four days next week. There is no question about the popularity of grand opera if it is properly presented with careful attention to the many little details that go to make music enjoyable to all. The Boston Opera Singers' Company is an organization which has met with great favor in other cities where it has been presenting a varied repertoire with unprecedented success. It has been looked upon by music lovers as worthy of comparison with many more pretentious organizations, although the object of its management is to give the public the benefit of first class productions of grand opera at prices within the reach of all. This excellent company comes here Tuesday for an engagement of four days. The operas to be given are Verdi's "Il Trovatore," and "La Traviata," Gounod's "Faust," "Lizet's Carmen," and Mascagni's "Cavalleria Rusticana." The organization itself is so well known that it needs no comment and the music lovers of this city will no doubt respond most willingly to this opportunity of expressing their appreciation of being able to hear grand opera presented by the most thoroughly competent organization singing grand opera in English. Seats are now on sale at Jamieson's and Rankin's Drug Stores. The Prince Edward Island Railway will run excursions from all points. Any information required by outside parties will be furnished on application to local R. R. Agent.

Death or Insanity Nervous, Sleepless. Worn out. Expected to die or go crazy with nervousness.

"I could not sleep—I could not rest—was ready to cry on the least occasion—yet I was plump and fat. Can you imagine a more distressing condition than weakness of body and mind?" writes Mrs. Wensley, of Halifax. "I lost myself in a sort of self pity because health seemed so shattered, and with the mental distress that grew with my bodily weakness, I was a burden to myself and a greater burden to my family. "Though I sought and really needed pity, I got very little, for I did not look so very sick. It was only my nerves that were sick, and anyone who has sick nerves knows too well how awful a sickness it is. "From the first Ferrozone strengthened my nerves, and it seemed to help them for I became stronger, more composed, slept more and grew more hopeful. When I had taken Ferrozone for about two months I lost that miserable sense of dread. I never could tell what I was afraid of, but expected something dreadful was going to happen to me. Ferrozone gave me the strength to throw aside all these fancies and made me well again."

Go at once to any druggist, get a few boxes of Ferrozone—start right on the road to health and vigor. Ferrozone will keep you there—will show you what it means to be healthy, vigorous, full of nerve energy. Once you're braced up and energized with Ferrozone you'll never again be content with ill-health. All dealers sell Ferrozone, 50c. per box or six boxes for $2.50.
