Summer Complaint

Few people, especially children, escape an attack of summer complaint during the hot weather. Summer complaint begins with a profuse diarrhoea very often accompanied by vomiting and purging. The matter excreted from the stomach has a bilious appearance, and that from the bowels watery, whitish, ill-smelling, or even odorless. When the children show any sign of looseness of the bowels the mother should administer a few doses of Dr. Fowler's Extract of Wild Strawberry so as to bring quick relief. This medicine has been on the market for the past 94 years. Refuse substitutes. They may be dangerous. Get "Dr. Fowler's" and feel safe. The T. Millburn Co., Ltd., Toronto, Ont.

DEATH IN MONTREAL.—The death occurred in Montreal last Saturday of the late Rev. Roy Leach made 821 marks, and the late Professor Bennett 815 in their entrance tests. In 1938 another fine record was scored by two sisters, Jean and Mary MacKay, of West Kent School, the former making 727 out of a possible 800, and the latter 714.

HIGH ENTRANCE MARKS.—Reference was made in The Guardian recently to the fine record of William C. Dunn, Summerside, in passing the P. W. C. matriculation examinations with 723 marks, but it was erroneously stated that these were the highest attained by any pupil in the history of the College. Educator's authorities cite the year 1906 as an exceptional one in this regard, when Elizabeth Noonan, of Emerald School, led with 855 marks out of a possible 900, an average of 95 per cent. In the same year Roy Leach made 821 marks, and the late Professor Bennett 815 in their entrance tests. In 1938 another fine record was scored by two sisters, Jean and Mary MacKay, of West Kent School, the former making 727 out of a possible 800, and the latter 714.

YEARLY VISITOR.—Mr. Weldon L. Crossman, an employee in the composing room of the Boston Traveller was a visitor in town yesterday. He was one of 525 passengers who left Boston Sunday evening on the steamer Yarmouth for the Nova Scotia town of that name and landed there Monday morning. He came to the Island by way of Truro and Sackville. This summer no steamer runs between Boston and St. John, so Mr. Crossman took the Yarmouth route in order to travel by steam where it was possible. He was an employee of the Patriot years ago, and is making his annual visit to relatives at this time. Mr. Crossman has now passed his 80th birthday and, just a bit more, but he belies his age and enjoys life just as much as any youngster. He goes to work daily and is enjoying his well earned vacation. He left yesterday afternoon for Summerside.

MANY VISITORS IN PROVINCE.—Daily large numbers of tourists arrive in this province to enjoy a holiday in the Garden of the Gulf. The trout streams, beaches where warm sea-bathing is found, picnic grounds and other places are undergoing the usual friendly summer invasion by these visitors. Yesterday summer hotels, tourist cabins and farm houses were crowded as visitors from all parts of the continent began arriving for Old Home Week and the Provincial Exhibition which takes place here next week. Unusual cold and wet weather has forced itself on the Island during the past few days but the optimistic look forward to the full moon tonight with the expectation that it will usher in some real summer weather.

MISSISSIPPIANS FAVORABLY IMPRESSED.—The Guardian representative on his usual call to the Travel Bureau yesterday was shown some of the many letters received by Mr. B. Graham Rogers from members of the recent "Know Mississippi Better" train party that was entertained by the Provincial Government at Charlottetown.

If the first taste makes you think

THIS FLAVOUR BEATS THEM ALL!

You'll know it's really Kellogg's Corn Flakes!

Dip your spoon into a tempting bowlful of Kellogg's Corn Flakes and your palate will soon tell you why thousands of Canadian families voted these crisp, crunchy flakes their favourite breakfast cereal. And that mouth-watering Kellogg flavour actually helps digestion! A bowlful with cream and sugar gives real food energy—helps you start the day right! Order Kellogg's Corn Flakes tomorrow! Now in two convenient sizes. Made by Kellogg's at London, Canada.

What's your family's favourite breakfast cereal? During three successive years impartial investigators put that question to over 5000 Canadian housewives. Each year Kellogg's Corn Flakes won by a large majority. Last year the specific question was also asked: "Which brand of corn flakes tastes best?" 84%, or more than 4 out of 5 said, "Kellogg's!" Your family, too, will prefer Kellogg's more mellow, distinctive flavour. Easy to prepare, this "30-second breakfast" costs only a few pennies a serving for the whole family. When you breakfast out, ask for the triple-wrapped individual package!

River, arrived home after a three weeks visit with her husband, Pte. Kenneth MacKenzie, R.C.O.C. at Sorel. They also spent some time visiting in Montreal.

Miss Eleanor Clarke, M. A. of Copper Cliff, Ontario, and her sister Miss Elizabeth Clarke, B.A. of Madison, N. J., are the guests of Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Wright of Charlottetown. Miss Eleanor Clarke was the 1941 winner of the Marty Memorial Scholarship awarded by the Alumnae of Queen's University, Kingston, Ontario.

ing, spinning, and weaving wool are now practical curiosities; so too are many harvesting devices.

All true says Mr. Average Citizen. But such an institution would cost and taxpayers are now overladen. Hitler first must go. Such an institution might help prevent future Hitlers from coming in. A dime per capita would make a fine start, and would not bring bankruptcy nor lose the war. The German said upwards of a century ago, "what you would have in the next generation, put into the schools of this generation." Did he succeed? May we use his methods and develop the indispensable love of country? Museums and movies should have our best in thought and direction. None speak more effectively to the child. "Dumb forgetfulness" of the past has had too long held sway in Prince Edward Island. Is it not time to tell children where we came from and bring reverence and appreciation for the present, and courage and vision for a real future. To your correspondent it would seem that the citizens of tomorrow have a right to ask this of the citizens of today.

We would not be like the crute of the weather—ever talking about it, yet never doing anything about it. So we have asked our splendidly interested Lieutenant Governor to appoint an interim committee who have expressed their willingness to serve and who will be ready with needed information as to where things are, to whom they belong, and how may they be obtained. This we hope may be made a matter of record. This committee would seek to make our Island museum-minded and be eyes for those who will have the needed appropriation and legislation in charge, so that when the war is over, or before, the desired goal may be quickly reached.

It is suggested that such an institution be established in connection with Prince of Wales College. Might not a third story be added to the present fine plant, with skylights, to house a museum? Might not a course on past history as presented by a capable curator be added to the courses now offered to coming teachers, who would bring the past, attractively and effectively to the citizens to be? We would have them love the homes and haunts we love. Ignorance breeds fear and indifference; knowledge breeds faith and love. Let us give the tremendously interesting part of this Province a chance to lure the strangers in still larger numbers to come within our gates, and our future citizens a chance to know intimately our colorful history, our real achievement, and the boundless possibilities that spring from such a background.

We, now old and growing older, cannot refrain from casting lingering looks behind. In the presence of reminders of the past we would like to renew our youth, living over again the days that are no more—yet are. Can a forgotten past have a worthwhile future is a real question?

Cordially yours for better plans than here suggested—and a mind to work the best that Prince Edward Island's well known mentality and initiative can suggest.

A native son—now an interested tourist from another land.
