The latest news, first of all. Arthur and Mrs. Holyroyd, Milton, were passengers on the Eastern train yesterday. There will be special music by the choir of the First Methodist church next Sunday morning. P. Bogus, Moncton arrived in the City this morning, and will remain here for a short time. 10 prizes guaranteed value over $100 for the big skating race in the Arena next Wednesday night. Geo. Rogers, City, and Sheriff Wright, Summerside, left by yesterday's outward western train. Miss Amy E. Moore, West Royalty, is visiting in Kensington, the guest of her sister Mrs. T. C. Casley. New Wonderland has an exceptionally inviting program tonight, particulars of which appear on page four. Persons desiring information by phone about the Guardian's Big Free Trip are requested to ask Central for 132-2. Rev. J. F. Floyd's lecture on New Zealand and Australia will be given in Central Christian Church next Tuesday. Rev. John Gillis will preach next Sabbath as follows: Bradshaw at 11 a. m., Rose Valley at 3 p. m., Hartsville at 7 p. m. Rev. Mr. White City, Rev. Mr. Frb, Hazelbrook, and Rev. Mr. Whitman, Montague, arrived in the City by the eastern train yesterday morning. Mark down next Wednesday night for the big skating event in the Arena; it will be the biggest thing ever attempted here in the racing line. Don't fail to see it. Miss Margaret Lea, who has been home for some weeks on account of the illness of her father Paul Lea, Moncton, has returned to Boston. (Moncton Times.) Miss Lea is well known here. The engagement is announced of Miss Muriel McAllen, youngest daughter of the late A. K. McAllen to Trevelyan H. Taylor, Montreal, second son of the late P. P. Taylor, M. D., Charlottetown, P. E. Island. The marriage takes place early in April. —Montreal Standard. A country youth, who wearied of the constituted authority at school and at home the other day took himself to Cape Traverse, crossed to the mainland and was wending his way to the Golden West, when he was intercepted by a telegram from home. Needless to say he quickly returned a sadder and a wiser boy. About eighty guests assembled on Wednesday evening at the residence of Mrs. Donald McLean, Argyle Shore, to witness one of the grandest weddings ever seen in that section of the Province, when Wm. Ambrose Seller, son of Wm. Seller, proprietor of the Mermaid Hotel, Charlottetown, was united in the Holy Bonds of Matrimony to Miss Gracie Melinda Campbell, one of the fairest daughters of Argyle Shore. Fred W. Andrew performed the duties of groomsmen and Miss Bertha Campbell, was bridesmaid. Miss Annie M. McLean played the Wedding March. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. Jas. McDonald of the Church of Scotland and after the ceremony the guests were entertained by an excellent program of solos, quartets, choruses and instrumental music. Miss Annie McLean and Mrs. J. T. Ferguson performed excellent music on the piano, after which the guests assembled in the large dining room and partook of the good things prepared in Mrs. McLean's usual style. An excellent address was given by Wm. Gibson, on matrimony also by Wm. McQuarrie and Peter Brodie, and all were listened to with interest especially by the young men who had not as yet taken unto themselves a wife. A large table filled with beautiful and valuable presents also several pieces of useful furniture, spoke of the popularity of the bride and groom. About fifty of the young men of the surrounding country, came on horseback and surrounded the house. They were dressed in various fancy costumes and demanded to see the bride and groom. The request was granted and the visitors liberally treated to refreshments which were thoroughly enjoyed. "Hear Annie Fraser sing "Stop your Tickle' Jock" at New Wonderland tonight. Also Harry Lauder's other famous song "She's a Daisy." See the whole Scotch entertainment at New Wonderland tonight. Four Scotch dances, and the Irish reel to finish. Don't miss it.

Chas. Gay, City, left for St. John, N. B., last night. J. M. Clark, Summerside, arrived by the mail special yesterday. J. Ryan a well known merchant of Georgetown was in town yesterday. The mail arrived in this City from Georgetown at one forty yesterday. Percy Turner of O'Leary has been spending the last few days in town. A blacksmith, wood and paint shop are for sale, see classified column. How the classified want ads are in the lime light of public attention, is told in that column. Rev. A. J. McLeod will preach in Bradshaw Christian Church Sunday morning at 11 o'clock. Wheatley River notes have been received, but the writer neglected to send name in confidence. There will be service in the Church of England at Long Creek next Sunday afternoon at three o'clock. Rev. G. Sinclair, J. McKinnon and J. Reddin came in on the Murray Harbour train yesterday morning. W. F. Tidmarsh, G. R. Monaghan and Mrs. W. Larkins arrived in the City by the western train yesterday morning. Lieutenant Col. J. M. Davidson, City, arrived home yesterday from Ottawa where he has been attending the D.R.A. meeting.

The funeral of the late Miss Cassie McLeod of Bonshaw, takes place today (Friday) at 1 p. m., not Saturday as previously announced. Dr. McLaughlin has kindly consented to give his lecture on anti-tuberculosis, in Grace Church Schoolroom, on Friday evening of next week. The funeral of the late Robert Lee, Hampton, takes place today at two o'clock to Hampton Cemetery and not yesterday as was regrettably announced. The Aid Society at New Glasgow, will hold an entertainment with sale of candy and fancy articles, in the hall on Tuesday evening next, at 7 o'clock. Admission ten cents. Thomas Stretch, son of W. E. Stretch, Long Creek, has bought Daniel McNeill's fifty acre farm at that place for $1650. Mr. Stretch recently returned home after spending several years in the Northwest. The McRae farm at Capre Core was sold this week to Mr. Gardiner, of Cape Traverse for $4,500. In addition to the sale of the farm there was a large sale of stock and implements. There was a large attendance of buyers.—Exam.

An address on the selection of good seed was given by Prof. Theodore Ross, at Alexandra on Monday last. This address was highly instructive and much appreciated by the farmers present, who tendered the professor a hearty vote of thanks. The lecture and entertainment at Milton on Wednesday evening in aid of St. Thomas Church, passed off most enjoyably. The numbers of the entertainment part of the program were all splendidly given, and the musicians and soloists were enthusiastically encored and kindly responded. Do not send communications to individual members of staff. Everything should be addressed "The Charlottetown Guardian, Charlottetown, P. E. I.," and on the left hand corner at the bottom of the envelope should be "advertising," "Subscription," "News," "Editorial," or "Tour Editor," according to the contents.

A correspondent calls attention to what he alleges is the inferior quality of liquors dispensed by druggists for medicinal use. He thinks the Prohibitory Law should be amended so that some guarantee would exist as to the purity of liquor so dispensed, and that power should be given to seize and confiscate inferior or adulterated liquors. "Two gold filled watches valued at $60, are the prizes for the winners of the big 2 hours race, next Wednesday night. Come up and see the winners.

"Chamois Lined Vests are the proper thing for winter wear—Light & feathers yet keep the cold and win out more effectively than heavy furs and the price would hardly pay to the pockets in a fur coat—For ladies and gentlemen. See them at "The Two Mac's Druggists."

We have all kinds of new frillings at the neckwear counter ready for you to-day. Moore & McLeod.
