NORTH TRYON.—The following pupils received their Grade VIII certificates from North Tryon School: Sheldon Dixon, Leah Lord, Ethel Leard, Mabel McInnis, Jean Muirhead and Doris Lefurgey. Much credit is due, not only to the pupils, but to the careful teaching given during the term by their teacher, Miss Jeanette MacVittie.

SUCCESSFUL STUDENT.—Among those who successfully passed the public school examinations and received their certificates are the Misses Beatrice Clark, Zena Barbour, Jennie Currie, Lila Mountain, Daisy Dunbar, Frances Kinch, Hattie Mountain and Mr. Waldron Barbour. Their friends congratulate the pupils and their teacher, Miss Helen Dunbar, on results attained. Miss Dunbar has a school of forty-seven pupils including an entrance class and Alma school, but will now hold the championship for the largest number of pupils obtaining certificates, on the Island, that is an ungraded school.

ON STRANDED STEAMER.—Miss Grace Harper, East Royalty, arrived home Sunday night on the special train from Borden. Miss Harper was on the ill-fated S. S. Governor Dingley, which left Boston Friday morning and in a heavy fog struck a wreckage at midnight off Machias, Maine. The ship lost her propeller and was so badly damaged that the Captain was doubtful at first if she could be kept afloat until help arrived. The steamer was anchored till 2 o'clock Saturday afternoon, when the Kakapoo towed her 50 miles in to East Port, Maine. Here the passengers were transferred to the Grand Manan, which sailed to St. John. The Governor Dingley was also towed there and put on Dry Dock for repairs.

CORNWALL-YORK POINT WOMEN'S INSTITUTE.—On the evening of June 2nd, this Institute met with Mrs. Dean MacEwen at her home in York Point, where twenty-six members answered the roll call, with choice summer desserts. At this meeting two new members joined the ranks, making a membership of thirty. Fifteen dollars was voted for the annual school closing prizes. A discussion on the lighting of Cornwall Hall was left over till the painting and other work on the inside of ANNIVERSARY IN POWNAL.—The sixtieth anniversary of the Pownal Church will be celebrated Sunday, July 6th. Sunday School meets at 10 o'clock. The special speaker at 11 o'clock will be Rev. Henry Pierce, B. A., of Vernon River.

Service at Millview at 2:30 p. m. St. 7 o'clock p. m. at Pownal. Rev. Clarence McKinnon, M. A., D. D., L. D., principal of Pine Hill Divinity Hall will be the speaker. Monday evening July 7th, at 8 p. m. The young people will have a musical service at which Rev. E. M. Aitken will deliver an address. Subject, Livingstone.

There will be special music at all these services, including anthems, duets, quartettes and solos.

FOX BREEDERS MEET.—LINCOLN, Me., July 2.—About 100 fox breeders, fur experts and specialists on fox diseases have been in conference here for the past two days, with demonstrations and clinics at the fox ranches here where there are several thousand foxes owned by different corporations.

The general view was taken that the silver black fox industry was entirely prosperous and very promising. The speakers today were: Dr. Karl B. Hanson, on cross breeding; J. M. Bossak, New York, who discussed the saturation point; J. C. DeWolf, New York, who spoke on legislation concerning fox ranching, and Dr. W. E. Russell, of Milligan & Morrison, P. E. Island, who told how to increase

No Curtailment of Ocean Freights Canadian Grain Stored in Bond

MONTREAL, Que., July 3.—The Canadian National Steamships are not considering the curtailment of their ocean freight services according to an official statement issued from the head office of the company here. The freight services which are in operation will be continued despite rumors to the contrary which have been circulated recently. The statement continues that the services now in effect between the eastern and western coasts of Canada and between Canadian ports and those of South America, Australia, New Zealand and the West Indies Islands and British Honduras are working out satisfactorily and it is felt that they are a very great benefit to Canada in encouraging the extension of trade between the different parts of the Empire, and as such there is no intention of curtailing them.

delightfully enlivened our evening with a descriptive talk on her travels and also on her "fly" in an airplane. At Mrs. Mack Vickerson's, Cornwall, on July 7th, the roll call will be answered by each member with a joke. A luncheon was served by the York Point members and the singing of God Save The King brought a very enjoyable evening to a close.
