

Red Ridinghood was a Hep Kid!

There's a gal who knew how to take care of herself. The way she handled wigs was something to see! And observe that Red Ridinghood dressed to ward off weather. Probably took her vitamins, too. Ah, yes, a Hep Kid, that Red!

Take pattern from Little Red. Guard your health at every turn. Consult your physician when there's need—and of course we hope that you'll want to bring his prescriptions here for expert compounding.

Sub Inspector McCombe has had 23 years of experience with the Royal Canadian Mounted Police and came to Charlottetown from Western Canada one year ago.

CITY POLICE COURT — At the Stipendiary Magistrate's Court yesterday, a woman charged with breach of the Temperance Act had her case adjourned for one week by agreement, while three drunk and disorderly were remanded until today. A drunk and incapable was also remanded until today. These were the only cases to be brought before Magistrate K. M. Martin.

SEQUEL TO ACCIDENT — The sequel to the accident which took place on the highway near Fredericton on September 25th last when a car driven by a Summerside man struck and injured two highway construction workers after falling to heed the warning signal of the flagman, occurred in Magistrate's Court yesterday morning before Stipendiary Magistrate Gilbert A. Gaudet, when the driver pleaded guilty to a charge of causing bodily injury by wanton and furious driving. Besides payment of costs totalling $21.50 the driver had his operator's license cancelled for a period of one year. It is understood that the operator of the car had already paid a substantial sum in damages to those injured in settlement of a civil action.

November Wedding At Murray Harbor

A quiet but very pretty wedding was solemnized at the manse in Murray Harbour on Monday evening, Nov. 15th at 7 p.m. when the Rev. R. E. Vessey united in the bonds of holy matrimony Miss Irene Alberta White, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. R. E. White, of Murray Harbour, and William Gordon Duffy, son of the late Mr. and Mrs. William Duffy of Charlottetown.

The bride looked very charming in a brown suit with matching accessories. Her only ornament was a double strand of pearls, gift of the groom.

The bridesmaid, Miss Ida Doyle of Charlottetown, wore a dark grey striped suit with black accessories.

The groom was supported by Mr. Darrell White, brother of the bride. The bride's gift to her bridesmaid was a gold locket while the groom presented the bridesmaid with a leather wallet.

After the wedding the bridal party motored to the home of Mrs. Belle White, cousin of the bride, where a delicious supper and relatives. A three-tier wedding cake topped with a miniature bride and groom gracefully adorned the wedding table.

Following the reception the bridal party motored to Charlottetown from where they left on Tuesday morning on their honeymoon to visit various points throughout the Maritimes.

On their return they will reside in Charlottetown where the groom is an employee of the Postal Department.

Previous to her marriage, the bride was a valued employee of Canada Packers. Their many friends wish them many years of wedded bliss.

BURNHAM-ON-CROUCH, Essex, England — (CP) — The Agriculture Ministry bought 1,000,000 seed oysters from Brittany to put down on the beds near here, ruined during the war. But it's a chancy business, the ministry says. Result of the experiment will not be known until 1950.

WHEN THE HARVEST IS GATHERED IN

In the spring the farmer sows his fields. And watches with delight To see the earth awaken. And the first blades come in sight.

From dawn till dark he is busy. As he works with skill and care. And thinks of the time of harvest When his fields, their crops will bear.

He sees the fruit of his labour As he looks at his sheaves of wheat. And his orchard, and garden. With beautiful things to eat.

When he picks from his trees their apples. With their color no art can describe.

He will think of the wonderful Giver of all activities. This beautiful fruit did provide.

For man may work and harrow. And turn with the plough the sod. But he is only a toiler. In partnership with God.

When he ploughs, his long straight furrow. And sows his fields of grain. He knows his heavenly Father Will send the sun and the rain.

Then as he rests from his daily labour. When his grain is threshed in the bin. And he sees the fruit of his labour. When the harvest is gathered in.

Then in the long winter evenings He can sit by the fire and sing. And count his many blessings. When the harvest is gathered in.

—Mrs. Edgar Gillespie 76 Douglas Street.
