OF LOCAL INTEREST.—Miss Jean Howard, Mt. A., 1916, daughter of Rev. Samuel Howard, B.D., of Woodstock, has gone to Invermay Sask., where she has accepted a position as a teacher in the public schools.

SERMON BY REV. D. McLEAN— Rev. D. McLean, Great George St., Charlottetown, has issued in pamphlet form a sermon, entitled, "The Two Ways," which shows careful and serious consideration of the great problem of man's destiny. The sermon is an earnest admonition to accept the way of life to "enter in at the strait gate" and will well repay careful perusal.

BRITISH MAIL— The letter mail for the United Kingdom will be despatched this week via New York. The next Canadian mail steamer will be the "Scandinavian" which will leave Montreal on Thursday morning the 12th. instant, and will carry a full mail. This steamer will call at Quebec outward bound so that all mail leaving this province up to Wednesday morning the 11th., instant, will connect with her.

POLICE COURT— A number of cases engaged the attention of the Police Court yesterday. In the ejectment case of Egan vs. Flynn, judgment was given for plaintiff. An abusive language case, Mrs. Brydges vs. Simon McDonald resulted in defendant being fined $10 or twenty days. James Weatherbie, the fourteen-year-old Charlottetown boy, who has been up before the court on a previous occasion for stealing a horse and breaking into certain houses and went to Summerside and got into trouble there, having been convicted and sent to jail for stealing was brought down from Summerside Monday night by Detective Sergeant Bradley. His case will come up before the court to-day.

WEDDING BELLS— The marriage of Miss Jennie M. Manning, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. David Manning of Inkerman, Lot 29, P. E. I. and Mr. Edward F. Christie, took place Tuesday morning, Aug. 29th., at 9 o'clock in Bristol at St. Mary's Church, of which the bridegroom is organist. Preceding the ceremony a musical programme was presented by Miss Catherine E. Connery, organist and Salvatore Giglio, violinist. The bridal party entered the church to the music of Mendelssohn's "Wedding March." The bride wore a trained gown of embroidered oyster-white satin with tulle veil arranged in cap effect. She was attended by her sister, Mrs. David Fitzpatrick, of this city as matron of honor and by a bridesmaid, Miss Norah Ryan of Bristol. The matron of honor wore a gown of white silk with white picture hat, and a corsage bouquet of white roses, and the bridesmaid was gowned in light blue silk with hat to match and carried an arm bouquet of white asters. She wore the bride's gift, a sapphire ring. The bride was also preceded by two flower girls, her nieces, Miss Alice Gunn and Miss Margaret Gunn, the former carrying the bride's bouquet of Bride roses, and the latter a basket of white roses and sweet peas which she scattered before the bride as she left the altar, and by a ring bearer, her nephew, Master Harold Fitzpatrick, who carried the wedding ring on a white satin pillow. The bride entered with the groomsman, Mr. Grover Christie, nephew of the bridegroom, from whom he received a carbuncle ring, and the ushers were, Messrs. Philip C. Morris of Bristol, and George Manning of this City, brother of the bride. The ceremony was performed by Rev. Fr. Thomas J. Gillan, pastor of St. Mary's, who also celebrated the nuptial mass, which was sung by an augmented choir. Miss Louise Malafronte, soprano, sang "Ave Maria" as an offertory solo with violin obligato. The ceremony and mass were followed by a reception at the home of the bridegroom, 189 State Street, at which nearly one hundred guests were present, several from a distance. Musical selections were given by an orchestra, with songs by some of the guests. In the afternoon Mr. and Mrs. Christie left for a wedding journey through New England, after which they will return to Bristol to live at 31 Cottage Street.

FUNERAL— A large number of citizens turned out to pay their last tribute to the memory of the late Mr. Michael Duffy. The service at the Cathedral was conducted by Rev. Leo Herrell while the last rites at the graveside were performed by Rev. Maurice Macdonald and Rev. Fr. Smith of Montague. The pall-bearers were, Messrs. Walter B. Robertson, James Eden, Edward Davy, Peter Trainor, John Bradley, and Edward Cullen.

CORRECTIONS— In the report of the prize winners at the Provincial Exhibition, several lines were disarranged, causing regrettable errors. One of these was in regard to the champion carriage mare, any age for which Mr. C. B. Clay of Bridgetown, was awarded first prize instead of J. Livingstone. In class 17 and section 7 the paragraph should read: "G. L. Hayden, first; and W. O'Brien & Son second."

THE HALIFAX— The S. S. Halifax arrived in Charlottetown last evening at 8 o'clock from Boston and Halifax with a fair sized cargo and the following passengers: Jas. Musick, Mrs. Spence, Miss M. E. McAdams, A. McKenzie, Mrs. McKenzie, Mrs. A. McDonald, M. McLean, J. Clay, H. Hubbard, Mrs. Hubbard, W. J. Johnstone, Mrs. Johnstone, J. Doran. The steamer sailed at midnight taking a large outward cargo of lobsters and general produce.

WEDDING BELLS.—A very pretty wedding took place on Wednesday, Sept. 27th at the Victoria Hotel, Charlottetown when Mrs. Lulu Raynor of O'Leary and Mr. Nelson Palmer of Freeland, Lot11, were united in matrimony. The ceremony took place amidst a group of relatives and friends who travelled to Charlottetown for the occasion the Rev. Job J. Bamford, of Port Hill, officiating. The bride was charmingly attired in a navy blue suit with hat to match. The happy couple after their honeymoon will reside at Lot 11.

FOR ENGLAND— Mrs. Hoar, who came to this province some time ago from Cornwall, England, and has been engaged in nursing, left yesterday for Quebec, where she will take passage to England, on one of the liners sailing out of that port. She is called home by the serious illness of her father, Mr. Hambly, who has paid several visits to P. E. Island and intended settling here had his health permitted. Should it happily prove that his health may be restored he will accompany his daughter back to Canada and reside here. Mrs. Hoar is a sister of Mrs. Gorham Cook, Lower St. Peter's Road.

PATRIOTIC WORK— At a meeting of the Montague Institute the secretary reported that five hundred dollars had been placed in the Savings Bank after all expenses had been paid, as the proceeds of the dinner served at the Driving Park on Aug. 30th. The members of the Institute then voted that this money be expended as follows: $100. to Belgian Relief Fund, $100 to Red Cross Fund, $50 to Y. M. C. A. Work at the front, $50 to British Sailors' Relief Fund, the remainder to be used for our own boys, and for Red Cross work as needed. For this most satisfactory result the ladies deserve the highest commendation.

RED CROSS WORK.—The Marshfield Ladies' Institute has resumed Red Cross work which was discontinued during the summer months. The work of this society to date includes the following: $112.93 given in cash to the different war funds. 140 pair socks, 112 hospital shirts, 12 day shirts, 22 pneumonia jackets, 7 dozen handkerchiefs, 6 hot water bottle covers, 4 dozen mouth wipes. Donations for the work were received from Mr. Wm. McLeod, Cambridge, Mass. $5.00; Farmers Club Marshfield, $5.00; From gentlemen attending R. C. meetings, $16.75. The Society has about $155.00 on hand for this year's work.— B. M. Crosby, Sec.

THAT POSTPONED VISIT—In regard to the postponed visit of Sir Herbert B. Ames, to this province in connection with the Patriotic Fund it is only proper to state, in view of certain statements circulated, that Sir Herbert did not desire to come here unless assured that a large meeting could be held. The malicious and absurd statement published by a Summerside paper to the effect that he was warned to stay away from here owing to lack of accomodation is of course without foundation. Sir Herbert merely, upon learning that the Exhibition would be in progress in Charlottetown, decided that a more suitable date could be arranged for his meetings here.

105TH BATTALION MEN HOME—Seven members of the 105th Battalion have arrived home from Shorncliffe, England. These men have been discharged as being physically unfit for service. They are as follows: Sergt. Herbert Heustis, of O'Leary; Privates John Woods, Charlottetown; E. G. Brown, Little York; Joseph Rielly, Freetown; William Lawless, Bradalbane; Harry Smith, Tignish and Roland Cousins, Elmsdale. Another man of the Regiment Bandsman Frank Worth of Charlottetown, is now reported at Quebec on his way home. These men deserve every credit for their bravery in enlisting and had their health not given out they would have cheerfully followed their comrades into the trenches and stood all the privations and dangers to which men in war are liable. Private Woods reports all the boys of the 105th in good spirits and getting into fine shape for the time when they will go forth to face the Huns.

BRIDGE SWEPT AWAY BY CLOUDBURST. AUTO PARTY PLUNGES INTO BROOK.

(Canadian Press Despatch.)

PARRSBORO, N. S., Oct. 3.—A serious accident occurred Saturday night about three miles from town, caused by the furious storm then raging. In the height of the tempest Arthur Cochrane of Fox River, left Parrsboro, in an automobile accompanied by two daughters of Robert Salter of Diligent River. When they reached Wharton there was a regular cloudburst and the car plunged into a deep brook that crossed the road. It is believed that the bridge was carried out by the flood before they reached it, for a heavy car had crossed safely just before. Both of the young ladies were badly bruised and one of them has been delirious ever since. Young Cochrane, who is a son of the late John Cochrane, was badly shaken up and had one knee cap split. He was taken to the Amherst Hospital. The car is badly wrecked.
