

LOCAL BRIEFS

The Latest News of the City and Province.

Gathered by Guardian Reporters and Correspondents Everywhere.

(See also on page 5.)

THANKS TO R. H. RAMSAY & Co for a pretty little match case.

By a telegram received yesterday from New Carlisle it is learned that the S. S. Gasperia will arrive here this morning.

A series of neatly designed calendars are being circulated amongst his patrons and friends by Mr. Watson the druggist.

An important business meeting of the Crescent Hockey club will be held at 8.30 o'clock this evening. All members are requested to attend.

THE hockey match which was scheduled to take place on Jan 3rd between the Amherst and Picton clubs, is off for the present owing to the teams not being able to agree on the day.

THE City of Ghent will not call here this week. According to a telegram received yesterday by the agent Mr. W. W. Clark, she will arrive in Souris tomorrow and freight from this port will be transferred to that place for shipment.

THE School for the Blind at Halifax has recently purchased, for the use of its pupils, two New Century Calligraph typewriters, and although the pupils have been using the machines for only a few weeks they can already write on them with ease.

In this issue of THE GUARDIAN the well known business stand on Queen street formerly occupied by Beer Bros (and now by Sentner McLeod & Co.) is offered for sale. One of the largest businesses in P. E. I. has been done and is being done in this stand and the same will no doubt strongly commend itself to capitalists.

R. H. RAMSAY and Co. are in line with the leading window trimmers and are exhibiting a handsome and nobby array of gents furnishings, intermixed with pretty decorations, in their window front on Grafton St. The display is very neatly and tastefully arranged in keeping with the reputation of this establishment and an exemplary proof that the Sunnyside is not behind in business of this kind.

DR. CLIFT cures Chronic Diseases and Rupture at Ch'town, Fr. day, Saturday and Sunday. Call or send stamp for information.

COURT MOUNT STEPHEN I. O. F.—The regular meeting of this court will be held to night at 8 o'clock sharp. Two Initiations, payment of dues and other business, as this is the last meeting for the year 1898 it is important that the should be a large attendance.

MONTAGUE ITEMS.—Our enterprising butcher and cattle dealer, D. McGregor, shipped to Picton by the S. S. Electra on Monday 210 sheep and lambs making in all, about 2000 for the season.—On Wednesday evening, Mr. M. E. Genge, delivered to a large audience, in the Methodist Church, a lecture on "The Ocean of Life, A ship A boy!" It was spoken of by all as a master-piece of that gentleman's talent.—The Montague Literary Institute organized a short time ago, is progressing favorably. The following are its officers:—Pres., G. S. Egan, barrister; Vice-Pres., A. R. Dauncey; Sec'y, Elin Cameron; Treas., Frank S. McDonald. On last night of meeting Rev. H. Penna read a very interesting and instructive paper on "Dickens' Works." Dr. Matheson is preparing one for the next meeting on Dec. 19.—One of our respected citizens, while trout-fishing a few days ago, accidentally took a "cold bath," and had it not been for the assistance of a gentleman from Sparrow's Road, he would have met a watery grave.—Mr. S. Mutch, collector of customs, who has been confined to his bed for a few days, is able to move around again.—Mr. Donald McLeod's face has lately been wearing a smile of satisfaction, caused by the advent of a little stranger in the family, who has come to stay.—This section of the country has experienced a matrimonial rally of late. A number of barks have launched. Yet another is in contemplation about Xmas time when one of our rural district men will lead to the altar one of our popular young ladies.

It is said that the soldiers who had taken Hood's Sarsaparilla stood the long marches in Cuba much better than the others.

CHOOSE your Xmas Presents from John Newson's. Rattan chair, and rockers, bamboo goods, cobbler-seat rockers, oak cabinets, etc. All unmarked low for Christmas.—20 d 1.

CELERY is now recognized as the very best thing to take immediately after dinner to aid digestion.—20 d 1w

BETTER leave that big fat turkey or goose alone Xmas unless you have some of Gay's celery to assist in its digestion.—20 d 1w
