Home From College Mrs. Caller: "I suppose you find your daughter very much improved by her two years' stay at college?" Mrs. Proud-Mother: "Oh, yes, Mary is a carnivorous reader now, and she frequently impoverishes herself. But she ain't a bit stuck up; she's unanimous in everybody, and she never keeps a cater waiting for her to dress, she just puts in, 'non de plume, and you know that makes one feel so comfortable!'"
