—LOWER FREETOWN—The monthly meeting of the Lower Freetown W. I. was held at the home of Mrs. Jasso Burns, on April 16th. Meeting opened with Ode and Creed. Roll call was answered with riddles. Minutes of the last meeting read and adopted. After reports of committees and the transaction of other business, a spelling match was held. Meeting closed with National Anthem, after which lunch was served by the hostess. Next meeting to be held. Meeting closed with National Anthem. Roll call to be answered with singing or play.

—CELLS FOR DELINQUENT JUVENILES IN CIVIC BUILDING—At an adjourned meeting of the Summerside Town Council held on Wednesday evening the report of Councillor Moore in regard to the construction of cells in the basement of the Town Building for the detention of delinquent children was received and it was decided to proceed with the work of constructing the cells immediately. A lengthy discussion on financial matters by Councillor McNeill and some talk on the work to be done on the streets also took place but no business was done. The Council adjourned until Wednesday next, when these matters will be brought up—S.

—INTERESTING VISIT TO OTTAWA—Dr. H. T. Colvin of Summerside, on his way to Alberta to visit his relatives, paid a flying visit to Ottawa on April 10th. He was deeply impressed with his first view of the Capital. His brief stay was made all the more enjoyable by the kindness shown to him by Senator Creelman MacArthur, who introduced him to members of the Senate. It may interest some of the older residents of Malpeque to hear that Dr. Colvin had a very interesting conversation with Senator Daniel Riley of High River, Alberta, who is a native of Malpeque having migrated to the West in 1882. In the course of their talk it developed that Senator Riley was an old friend of Dr. Colvin's father, who was also one of Alberta's pioneers. The doctor was entertained by Mr. A. E. McLean, M. P., to dinner in the Parliamentary dining rooms and also enjoyed the hospitality of Senator and Mrs. Creelman MacArthur at their residence at the Capitol. He had the privilege of being present in the House during the debate on the Government Fair Wage Bill in which Premier King and Hon. Mr. Bennett were the principal speakers.—S.

OBITUARY

PETER STEPHEN MALONE

On the night of March 24th, the angel of death visited the home of Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Malone, Green Bay, claiming as its victim their beloved son Peter at the early age of nineteen years. Death at all times is sad but when it calls one on the very threshold of manhood, the sorrow is the more poignant.

Although the deceased had been in failing health for some time he was always cheerful and never complained of his sufferings. During his illness he was visited by Rev. Father Herrell, who administered to him the last sacraments. Peter, as he was familiarly known will be greatly missed not only by his own family but also by his many friends who had the pleasure of his acquaintance. Besides his sorrowing father and mother there are left to mourn the following brothers: and sisters Frank, who arrived home from Bingham, Maine, a few days before his brother's death, Patrick, Joseph, Matthias, Ephraim, Sadie, Regina and Mary Agnes. His funeral which was very largely attended took place on Thursday morning, March 27th, to St. Ann's Church, Lot 65 where a High Mass of Requiem was celebrated by Rev. Fr. Herrell. The remains were then laid to rest in the adjoining cemetery. The pall bearers were: Joseph Costello, Frank Egan, Joseph McQuaid, Thomas McQuaid, Wm. Oudmore and Amos Costello. May his soul rest in peace.

EASTER SERVICES

Although Easter Sunday was gloomy York Church, decorated with beautiful blooming plants gave an air of cheerfulness which impressed those who came to worship.

At the morning service Rev. J. E. Boothroyd, speaking from John 20, proclaimed the joyful tidings, "The Lord is risen indeed." The choir rendered the anthems, "Victory Over Death" and "Hallelujah." The sacrament of the Lord's Supper was partaken of at the close of the service. The evening service was conducted by the young people of the congregation.

Mr. Wilfred Boothroyd acted as chairman. Miss Doris Brown read the scripture lesson after which Mr. Harold Vesey led in prayer. Miss Mary Vesey sang "Open the Gates of the Temple." The difficulties which Mrs. Kim has overcome in her native land of Korea in order that she might bring the message of Christ to her people, the impression C. F. Andrews has of India and Ghandi, and the faith which Dr. Patterson has in the young people of today provided interesting material for a talk given by Miss Isabel Brown. Mrs. Harry Vesey gave an interesting reading, "Her Brother's Friend" during the past few weeks members of the Sunday School have been participating in the Scientific Temperance Contest sponsored by the "Northern Messenger." Mrs. Peter Brodie, one of the judges of the final papers, expressed her interest in such contests and her surprise in seeing how well these young people are grasping the many evils caused by alcoholic liquors. Mrs. W. D. Cook who assisted Mrs. Brodie in judging the papers presented the prizes to the following successful contestants, Misses Alice and Jessie Crockett and Miriam Vesey, Messrs Louis Vesey, and Donald Boothroyd. —INSTITUTE MEETING—The Cable Head West W. I. held their April meeting at the home of Mrs. George McLaren with seven members and one visitor present. Meeting opened by singing "The Wreck of The Number Nine." Minutes of last meeting were read, approved and signed. Roll call was answered by "Where I would like to travel." A letter from Wm. Landrigan, Souris, about spinning and weaving was read and discussed. The members are in favor of doing up some linen for the new Sanatorium. Members on the school committee were unable to visit the school this month and were re-appointed. The next meeting will be at the home of Mrs. John M. K. Simons. Roll call answer to be "A book I have recently enjoyed and author," and opening Chorus, "The Little Rosewood Casket." Following was the program. Recitation, "Why Biddle and Pat Married," by Mrs. Robert McKenzie, reading "Jimmie Brown's Steam Chair," by Laura Simons. Reading, "How a Married Woman Goes to Sleep," by Mrs. R. McKennie. Recitation, "Jean Despres" by Mrs. Jasper McLaren. A dainty lunch was served by the hostess and a pleasant hour spent in musical selections. Accordion, Mr. Ira McLaren, and organ, Miss Laura Simons. Meeting closed by singing God Save the King.

—INSTITUTE WORK—On Wednesday evening, March 26th, the ladies of Morell East W. I. met at the home of Mrs. Russel Webster for their regular monthly meeting. The meeting opened by singing a chorus, "Carry me back to old Virginia." Roll call was responded to with "House-cleaning Hints." Minutes of last meeting were read, approved and signed. A letter of thanks which was received from Mr. E. W. Webster and family was read, also a letter from Miss McPhail, concerning the making of linen for the new sanatorium. Sick committee for month of April, Mrs. Russel Webster and Miss Helen Toben. Donations of clothing and bedding were collected from members for a needy family. Letters were distributed among members. One new member was enrolled. A program of music was put on at this meeting instead of usual contest, which has been postponed at the last two meetings due to the illness of the Captains. We hope they will be able to take up their duties at next meeting. Meeting to be held at the home of Mrs. Warren of the evening was the address and presentation to our faithful Sunday school and Church organist, Mr. Arthur Vesey. The service was brought to a close by a pageant representing a scene in an Angola Mission. Mr. Roy Vesey, the big chief, introduced the various members of his tribe about the campfire. These little African boys told of their life of unhappiness until they had heard from the missionary of Jesus Christ and had learned of his wonderful love for them.
