Montreal Exchange

MONTREAL, Oct. 21 (CP)—Utilities were alone in showing improvement in the averages in transactions today on the stock exchange and curb market.

A switch from the loss to the win column by Gaieneau gave pluses the edge in utilities. Stronger all day were Quebec Power and Bell Telephone. Brazilian and Montreal Power slipped. C.P.R. held on to an opening bid in carriers.

Noranda was a softer spot in pivotal metals, dipping 2 to a new low. International Nickel added a fraction and Consolidated Smelters lost an early lift. Imperial and International Petroleum did better in oils.

Dominion Coal preferred was harder in industrials but all others moving in the section were easier. Including the in-wisps, St. Lawrence Paper preferred and St. Lawrence Corporation, Asbestos and General Steel Wares.

Nationalities amplified recent slits in miscellaneous and chafed up a new low and also including were Dominion Textile, Distillers-Seagrams, Montreal Loan and Regent Knitting Royal posted a loss in banks.

LET'S ALL GET IN ON THE COMING OFFENSIVE WITH VICTORY BONDS

Shadows of coming events now reach out to you—to each and every one of us—with a challenge! For those shadows forecast great Allied offensives that must take place before our Victory comes. These shadows also warn of an urgent need for the tools of war—without which there will be no offensive—no Victory!

One of the greatest and most powerful tools of war is money. Behind every soldier, airman and sailor—behind every tank, plane and ship, there must be the power to purchase that war material of every description can be made available to our fighting men and women. It's our job to make it an early Victory by buying the new Victory Bonds!

Eastern Y. P. U. Rally At Hunter River

The Eastern Young People's Unions of the United Church held the 7th Rally in Hunter River on Friday, October 9, 1942.

The afternoon meeting was opened by an impressive "Worship Service" led by Rev. L. M. Murray, after which a report of the devotional period was a stirring address by Rev. W. A. Patterson to outline an officers' congress.

The Young People marched in a group to the hall, where we participated in a singing. The service of our luncheon, served during the evening, was a most enjoyable opening for our rally, as the Young People then took part in a singing, led by Rev. L. M. Murray, after which a report of the discussion groups was given by the secretaries of each group appointed during the afternoon session.

"Duties of Officers" was given by Vivian Hewat, president of the Y. P. U. of New Glasgow, N.S. president of the Y. P. U. of the Eastern Y. P. U. of the United Church, was appointed to fill the vacancy of Rev. D. C. Bochrory.

Miss MacDougall, deansess of Trinity United Church, was appointed to fill the vacancy of Rev. D. C. Bochrory.

Elizabeth Webster, George Town, N.S. was appointed to fill the vacancy of Rev. D. C. Bochrory.

W. A. Patterson, St. Peter's and Fulton, Hunter River, then reported for the group discussing the day of rest. Christians observe the first day of the week in commemoration of the resurrection and day of worship. Sunday should also be a day when the family can gather together and study the scriptures of the Bible. Elizabeth Webster reported for the group on "Young People and the D. L. K. K." Their findings were contained in a resolution committee on the resolutions committee.

Thelma MacLean, Hunter River, gave an interesting description of the day camp and outlined the course given by the various leaders. The camp was held from July 29 to August 7 and the following were the leaders: Rev. J. I. Levy, Rev. L. M. Murray, Rev. G. O. Wright, Rev. W. A. Patterson, Mrs. J. I. Levy.

P. L. Woodside was leader of the discussion of questions from the question box. Particularly of interest were the items discussed: Rev. D. K. Ross recommended the use of the booklet "The Upper Room in every Union. The Acts of the Apostles and "The Statement of Faith" were also recommended.

The evening meeting opened at 8 o'clock with quiet music played by Rev. L. M. Murray. The work of the evening was conducted by P. L. Woodside, who presented the Christian religion for the service was "Making Use of Our Talents." This theme was carried through the devotion. Anti-Christian leaders were de-period and was most inspiring. It terminated to destroy the Christian Church. When peace comes, if it our talents, even if they be few, until she left for Canada. She told the matter before God in prayer, hundred only half done. Rev. W. A. Patterson pronounced the benediction.

The president then called on the Rev. L. M. Murray, who was appointed secretary for the Rally. He said: "We are not here to take a vote and yet not hate the in-Union, to which fifteen Unions responded. Elizabeth Webster was then asked to give the report of the Nominating Committee. Etta Ross, the devotional leader of the Rally, was given by Rev. W. I. Green, who was unable to attend. Rev. W. A. Patterson, who read as follows: "We are not here to take a vote and yet not hate the in-Union, to which fifteen Unions responded.
