

OUR NEWS BUDGET FOR OUR SATURDAY SUBSCRIBERS

MONDAY

The illness of Mr. Ernest Anderson of the C.N.R. Telegraph staff at his home is much retarded.

Mr. Stewart MacNutt of the staff of the University of New Brunswick, is spending a holiday with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. T. E. MacNutt, Charlottetown.

Miss Gladys MacDonald of York left Saturday to spend the festive season with her grandparents and uncles in Kensington and New London.

Mr. Eugene D. Gaudet, War Assets, is returning to Halifax this morning after having spent Christmas with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. John B. Gaudet, Charlottetown.

James M. MacKay, mining engineer student at Queen's University, is spending the holiday season with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. B. MacKay, 130 Finlay St. City.

Miss Helen Hansen, Coldbrook, N. S., who arrived on Friday evening in Summerside, is the house guest of Mr. and Mrs. Neil L. Walker, Victoria Road.

Miss Hazel Best, Watertown, Mass. arrived by plane on Christmas Day to spend the Yuletide season with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Beecher Best, Summerside.

Mr. J. E. McInnis with the Dominion Department of Agriculture Poultry Division, Halifax, was a visitor to Charlottetown over the Christmas holiday. Mr. McInnis was the guest of his mother, Mrs. A. E. McInnis, 91 Euston St.

Mr. P. D. Bennett, Morell, left yesterday for Moncton to meet the remains of his daughter, Annette, who passed away Christmas morning at Concord, New Hampshire. The remains from Concord, New Hampshire, will be accompanied home by her sister.

Bill reading from the effect of the Christmas Eve snowstorm, the City of Charlottetown was blanketed last night with an additional 12 inches of snow which began falling about 8:30 Saturday morning. Twenty-two inches are now down in the City area.

Friends and relatives of Mrs. Peter Perry, Howland, will be sorry to hear she has had a bad attack of stomach flu. The illness was called to her on Thursday. Latest reports are that she is much improved. Mrs. Perry is 84 years old and has been crippled with rheumatism and palsy for some time.

MISCELLANEOUS SHOWER - Miss Kathleen Deighan, Summerside, was guest of honor recently at a miscellaneous shower at her home by her friends. She was remembered also by her fellow employees of the local branch of The Island Telephone Company and presented with a beautiful leather travelling bag.

SPENT HOLIDAY AT DE SABLE - Miss Alma Gould, a supervisor at Grace Hospital, Halifax, has resumed her nursing duties after a pleasant vacation on the Island where she visited her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Gould, De Sable, and Mrs. Howard Gould, Summerside, and Mr. and Mrs. Scott Cairns, Free-town.

A pretty wedding took place at 2 o'clock Saturday morning in St. Mary's Convent Chapel, Summerside, when Mr. G. J. MacLellan, V.O., united in marriage Annie Kathleen, third eldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Deighan, Summerside, and Joseph Allen Cody, son of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Cody, North Wilshire.

DIES IN CALIFORNIA - Mrs. Edith Isabel McLean passed away at her home in Los Angeles, California, Dec. 21, 1947. She is survived by her daughter, Anna Maud McLean, and her son, Daniel I. McLean. Mrs. McLean was the widow of the late Archibald McLean, formerly of Charlottetown, P. E. I.

VISITING IN FREETOWN - Miss Thirza Sanborn of Grandford, B.O., who has been attending Lorne Park College near Toronto, spent Christmas at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Earle Pearson, Chelton, and is now visiting Mr. and Mrs. Scott Cairns, Free-town.

LAI D TO REST - The funeral of the late Mr. Ambrose Barrett of Green Bay, was held Dec. 23rd from his late residence. Services at home and grave were conducted by Rev. H. C. Hicks. Pallbearers were Messrs. James Cadmore, Thomas Carragher, Judson MacEachern, Everett Crosby, Seymour MacLellan, and John McEachern. Interment in Appin Road Cemetery.

FUNERAL YESTERDAY - The funeral of William F. Campbell of 185 Kent Street was held yesterday afternoon. A short service at the home was followed by services in the Montague Christian Church. Services were conducted by Rev. M. D. Dunbar, assisted by Rev. E. J. Bryan. Burial was in Montague Cemetery. The pallbearers were: Gordon Hutecheon, Arthur Ramsay, Ira Gay, Joseph Murray, Vernon Howatt and James MacCarty.

Another very fine musical recital was given last night in St. Paul's Church by Mr. William K. Rogers, pianist, and Mr. Royston F. Murgford, organist of the church. Mr. Rogers, a young man of good musical ability and most promising talent, is a son of Lt. Col. K. S. Rogers and Mrs. Rogers of this city. He is a student of composition at the Julliard School of Music and Composition in New York City.

FUNERAL AT KELLY'S CROSS - The funeral of the late Mrs. Louis Hagan took place on Dec. 23rd from her late residence in Kelly's Cross to St. Joseph's Church, Kelly's Cross where High Mass was celebrated by Rev. Wilfred Kreef who also officiated at the grave in the adjoining cemetery. The pall bearers were: Joseph Kelly, Francis Ronche, Reginald Kelly, Gordon Wadell, Frederick Matters and Patrick Haughey.

Amid softly-falling snow hundreds of men, women and children gathered with bowed heads, Friday afternoon in the United Church cemetery in the Prince City village of Elmdale as the charred remains of Mrs. Kenneth Matthews, her four-year-old daughter and her two-year-old son, Haldane, were consigned to their last resting place. Mother and children were interred in a common grave.

FUNERAL AT LOT 65 - The funeral of the late Mrs. Frederick Hagan, formerly of Emsvale, was held on Dec. 27, from the residence of her daughter, Mrs. Emmett McCloskey of Elmwood to St. Ann's Church, Lot 65 where High Mass was celebrated by Rev. George McCormac who also officiated at the grave in the United Church cemetery. The pall bearers were: Owen McQuillan, John Curley, Francis Egan, William Griffin, James B. Clarkin and James Cudmore.

A very large congregation attended the funeral of the late Maurice Gallant on Thursday morning which was held at St. Anthony's Catholic Church where he was always a very faithful member. Services were conducted by his pastor, Rev. P. Rooney. The late Mr. Gallant leaves a sorrowing widow, formerly Sophie Hurdge, Duval, also eight children, four of whom were away working at the time. They were all present at funeral except the oldest girl in Montreal, who was unable to attend through the sympathy of the community is extended.

RECEIVES SAD NEWS - Mrs. William MacLellan, 116 School Street, Charlottetown, has received word that her brother, Mr. Murdoch Graham passed away suddenly Friday at his home, 23 Dundas Street, St. John's, Nfld. He had previously been in good health and had wired greetings to all his immediate relatives in the Province on Christmas Day (late). Mr. Graham was a son of the late Mr. and Mrs. Murdoch Graham of Bradabane. His wife, the former Ellen Conrad of Lunenburg, N. S., predeceased him four years ago.

WEDDED IN LONDON - The marriage is taking place in St. Peter's Cathedral in London, Ont. of Cyril Edwin Hawkins, son of Mr. and Mrs. Frederick Hawkins of London, Ont., to Miss Anita Margaret Lachance, eldest daughter of Mrs. Della Lachance and the late Gideon Lachance of Ansonville, Ontario. The groom is a nephew of the late Mr. and Mrs. Murdoch Graham of Bradabane. He was stationed here during the war and has a warm regard for the Garden Province. Hostesses, congratulations are extended to Mr. and Mrs. Hawkins who are to spend their honeymoon at the bride's home in Northern Ontario.

The bride, who was given away by her father, looked charming in a street length dress of heaven blue wool, with black accessories, and wore a corsage of yellow chrysanthemums. She was attended by her sister, Miss Sabina Deighan, who wore a pale green, wool dress, with black accessories, and corsage of yellow chrysanthemums. The groom was supported by his brother, Aeneas Cody. Mr. Lawrence Gallant presided at the organ.

Following the ceremony a wedding breakfast was served at Hubberty Lodge where the bride's table was centred with a two-tier wedding cake, prettily decorated and flanked by lighted tapers. Rev. J. D. Kelly proposed the toast to the bride.

Mr. and Mrs. Cody left immediately by motor for Borden, thence by rail for Dawson Creek, B.C., where the groom has accepted the principality of the Rola School.

James Maxwell Murphy, youngest son of the late Senator P. C. Murphy, Tignish, died on Christmas Eve at Mount Pleasant, Texas, from injuries received in an automobile accident. His mother, the late Mrs. Murphy, nee Minnie Burke, was the sister of the late Rev. A. E. Burke, one-time parish priest at Alberton, and later editor of the "Catholic Register", Toronto. The late Mr. Murphy was about 46 years of age.

The funeral services will be held at 10 o'clock this morning at Millbrook Lodge where the late Mr. Murphy practiced his profession of law. Married in the name of his wife and children were unavailable last night.

He was one of four children by the late Senator's first marriage. The others are Alfred of Vancouver, B.C., who, as a Captain in World War I, won the Military Cross for gallantry in action; Gordon, and Howard, all being RETURN FROM SCOTLAND - Mr. Joseph Duncan, former pipe major with the L.O.L., has returned last night from Scotland where he had been residing for about two years. He was met at the railway station by members of the Boyne Lodge, including former members of the band, and escorted to Boyne Lodge rooms where he was given a warm welcome. Mr. Duncan was accompanied from the Old Country by his son, William, Mr. and Mrs. Duncan, who came formerly from Scotland, returned to their native land to reside about two years ago. Since then Mrs. Duncan passed away and Mr. Duncan decided to return to Canada.

The apartment of Mrs. Clarence Harris, in the Morrison apartment house on the corner of Church and Spring Streets, Summerside, was entered early Saturday evening and a sum of money amounting to about $27 was taken from a handbag. This apartment is occupied by Mrs. Harris for a brief visit. To do this she had to come outside the building and she left her door unlocked. Apparently someone was watching for an opportunity to enter during the short period of twenty minutes that she was absent someone came in, opened her handbag and removed some bills and ripped the change purse out.

At a special meeting of the Summerside Town Council held last evening, a resolution was passed authorizing the purchase by the Town of the Canadian Legion property on Central Street for the sum of $15,000. A letter was read from the Legion turning down an offer of $14,000 for the property and making a counter offer of $15,000. The council stated that the Legion holds an option which expires on December 31 over the Tulpin property on Church Street which was originally a part of the Legion property. It stated that this property can be purchased for $2,000 but no motion was passed by the meeting to this effect.

Two United States Air Force planes were grounded at the Summerside Airport last evening. A native of Summerside, from Harlow, Newfound, which comes three times a week for milk and eggs, arrived in the morning and it was planned to take off in the afternoon but the trucks taking supplies to the airport were delayed and by the time the road was opened it was too late. They expected to leave early this morning. Later in the day a plane arrived from Goose Bay, Labrador, also for milk and eggs. Twice last fall a plane came from the U.S. base at Goose Bay for dairy supplies but this is the first time they have been here for two months. It is hoped that a regular service will be established similar to that between Summerside and Harmon Field.

The death of Robert Joseph Arsenault, linotype operator with the Charlottetown Guardian for the past eight years, occurred at 8:45 yesterday evening in the Charlottetown Hospital. The late Mr. Arsenault, who was 37 years of age had been in ill health for several months and his passing was not wholly unexpected.

A son of the late Mr. and Mrs. Robert Arsenault, Mr. Robert Joseph Arsenault, linotype operator with the Charlottetown Guardian for the past eight years, occurred at 8:45 yesterday evening in the Charlottetown Hospital. The late Mr. Arsenault, who was 37 years of age had been in ill health for several months and his passing was not wholly unexpected.

He is survived by his wife, the former Josephine Gallant, Charlottetown, and six children, Robert, David, Patricia, Ian, Ivan and Linda. Mrs. Arsenault, predeceased him in May, 1946.

Four brothers also survive him. They are Mark and Peter in Rumford, Maine; Fred in Wellington, Ontario; and Robert in Charlottetown. In addition, there are four sisters, Madeline, Mrs. Pacific Gallant, Elmont Bay; Hermine, Mrs. Alys Gaudet, Summerside; Marie, Mrs. Philip Lewis, Belmont, Mass.; and Mary, Mrs. Alex Larsen of Welland, Ont.

Funeral arrangements were not completed last night.

WEDNESDAY - Mr. J. Hibbert Saunders has returned to Montreal by plane after spending Christmas week with his wife and family.

SERIOUSLY ILL - Her many friends and acquaintances will be glad to hear that Mrs. George Whittlock of Kensington is very sick at her home.

Mr. George McNeill of Montreal has returned after spending the Christmas holidays with his mother, Mrs. Leonard McNeill, Summerside.

Mr. and Mrs. John Murray, Summerside, spent the holidays with their daughter, Mrs. Jack Kennan, Wellford, N. B., and Mr. Kennan.

Mr. Peter Clary, who is a patient in the Prince Edward Island Hospital, has returned for treatment following the Christmas holiday spent at his home in Montague.

Charles Whittlock, Jr., left by plane for Montreal, N.B., Monday after spending his Christmas holidays with his parents at Hunter River, Mr. and Mrs. Chester Whittlock. He is employed at Massey Harris Co. in Montreal.

Misses Jean Adams and Florine Campbell, who have been spending their Christmas holidays at their respective homes in Montague, have returned to their duties in the bank at Halifax.

Friends will regret to learn that Mr. Ellis Llewellyn suffered a severe accident while working in the mill where he is the manager. Mr. Llewellyn's hand was caught in the rolls, thereby losing a thumb and almost two fingers. All wish him a speedy recovery.

AWAY FOR HOLIDAY - Master John MacNaught, son of Mr. J. Watson MacNaught, K.C., P. and Mrs. MacNaught, Summerside, left by plane yesterday for Halifax. He will visit relatives here during the New Year holidays.

KENSINGTON TREE FIRE - An electric spark, probably due to faulty wiring, caused a flash fire in Christmas trees at the home of one Dunning. The onlookers tried to smother it with coats and blankets, and in her usual riposte, several articles nearby were burned and scorched. A fire extinguisher was used but it is believed, but it is quite a fire hazard. Better be rid of them soon and feel more secure.

In the midst of life, we are in death" were the words that came to the minds of a host of friends on December 11th, 1947, as it became known that the spirit of Mr. John Rogerson of Hampton, N.S., had returned to its maker. To all appearance, full of life and vitality, and in her usual good spirits, the grim reaper beckoned, and without warning, she had gone to join all those who have gone before.

Mrs. William MacLellan, 116 School Street, Charlottetown, has received word that her brother, Mr. Alexander Graham passed away suddenly Friday at his home, 23 Dundas Street, St. John's, Nfld. He had previously been in good health and had wired greetings to all his immediate relatives in the Province on Christmas Day (late). Mr. Graham was a son of the late Mr. Murdoch Graham and Mrs. Graham of Bradabane. His wife, the former Ellen Conrad of Lunenburg, N. S., predeceased him four years ago.

The funeral of the late Edward J. Kerr was held from Montague on Christmas Saturday, December 27th, at 2:00 P.M. The very impressive service was conducted by the Rev. M. MacLellan, assisted by Rev. R. D. MacLellan, Collins, and Sidney MacLellan. Interment took place in Lower Montague Cemetery.

ISLANDER INJURED - David Milligan, 20-year-old native of MacNeil's Mills, Prince Edward Island, was reported in improved condition at the General Hospital, Charlottetown, after he was injured for injuries received in a highway accident near Sussex, Saturday afternoon. Police said Milligan was a passenger in a car operated by Harold Burr, 21, of Calumet, Me., that swerved off the highway, rolled over several times and was badly wrecked. Burr escaped serious injury. Milligan, suffering from severe cuts and head injuries, was given emergency treatment by Dr. E. T. Kennedy of Sussex, then removed by ambulance to hospital at Saint John. Investigators said Burr had turned over the snow-covered highway to pass another vehicle driven by Earle Sproule of Sussex when the car went out of control. Hospital officials said Monday said that Milligan's condition is not serious. Saint John Telegraph Journal.

FRIDAY - Mr. Otis Ford left yesterday by plane on a brief visit to Monty and Sackville, N. B.

Mr. and Mrs. Russell Matthews are spending a couple of weeks with members of their family in St. John, N.B.

Mr. Russell Jeffrey of Halifax, N.S., spent Christmas week in Alberton the guest of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Richard Jeffrey (Sr.).

Dr. Purdy left on Saturday for Halifax where he will be the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Luman Purdy for the remainder of the winter months.

Walter Batchelder and Leonard Batchelder who are employed in Montague, N.B., left on return to last New Brunswick centre early last week after having spent the Christmas holidays with Mr. and Mrs. John Batchelder.

On Sunday, December 28th at 3:30 p.m., Caylene Marie, infant daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Leonard W. Fitzgerald was christened in St. James Church by the pastor, Rev. O. Higgins. The sponsors were Mr. and Mrs. Albert Burke of Charlottetown.

On December 1st, 1947, there passed peacefully away after a brief illness, Angus L. MacKinnon at the home of his brother, John, 863 Mass. Ave., Cambridge, Mass. Mr. MacKinnon was born in Canoe Cove, P. E. I. 67 years ago, the son of the late Mr. and Mrs. Ewen MacKinnon.

RECEIVES WORD - Mr. Russell Jeffrey of Halifax, N.S., spent Christmas week in Alberton the guest of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Richard Jeffrey (Sr.).

Dr. Purdy left on Saturday for Halifax where he will be the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Luman Purdy for the remainder of the winter months.

Walter Batchelder and Leonard Batchelder who are employed in Montague, N.B., left on return to last New Brunswick centre early last week after having spent the Christmas holidays with Mr. and Mrs. John Batchelder.

On Sunday, December 28th at 3:30 p.m., Caylene Marie, infant daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Leonard W. Fitzgerald was christened in St. James Church by the pastor, Rev. O. Higgins. The sponsors were Mr. and Mrs. Albert Burke of Charlottetown.

On December 1st, 1947, there passed peacefully away after a brief illness, Angus L. MacKinnon at the home of his brother, John, 863 Mass. Ave., Cambridge, Mass. Mr. MacKinnon was born in Canoe Cove, P. E. I. 67 years ago, the son of the late Mr. and Mrs. Ewen MacKinnon.

RECEIVES WORD - Mr. Russell Jeffrey of Halifax, N.S., spent Christmas week in Alberton the guest of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Richard Jeffrey (Sr.).

Dr. Purdy left on Saturday for Halifax where he will be the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Luman Purdy for the remainder of the winter months.

Walter Batchelder and Leonard Batchelder who are employed in Montague, N.B., left on return to last New Brunswick centre early last week after having spent the Christmas holidays with Mr. and Mrs. John Batchelder.

On Sunday, December 28th at 3:30 p.m., Caylene Marie, infant daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Leonard W. Fitzgerald was christened in St. James Church by the pastor, Rev. O. Higgins. The sponsors were Mr. and Mrs. Albert Burke of Charlottetown.

On December 1st, 1947, there passed peacefully away after a brief illness, Angus L. MacKinnon at the home of his brother, John, 863 Mass. Ave., Cambridge, Mass. Mr. MacKinnon was born in Canoe Cove, P. E. I. 67 years ago, the son of the late Mr. and Mrs. Ewen MacKinnon.

RECEIVES WORD - Mr. Russell Jeffrey of Halifax, N.S., spent Christmas week in Alberton the guest of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Richard Jeffrey (Sr.).

Dr. Purdy left on Saturday for Halifax where he will be the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Luman Purdy for the remainder of the winter months.

Walter Batchelder and Leonard Batchelder who are employed in Montague, N.B., left on return to last New Brunswick centre early last week after having spent the Christmas holidays with Mr. and Mrs. John Batchelder.

On Sunday, December 28th at 3:30 p.m., Caylene Marie, infant daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Leonard W. Fitzgerald was christened in St. James Church by the pastor, Rev. O. Higgins. The sponsors were Mr. and Mrs. Albert Burke of Charlottetown.

On December 1st, 1947, there passed peacefully away after a brief illness, Angus L. MacKinnon at the home of his brother, John, 863 Mass. Ave., Cambridge, Mass. Mr. MacKinnon was born in Canoe Cove, P. E. I. 67 years ago, the son of the late Mr. and Mrs. Ewen MacKinnon.

RECEIVES WORD - Mr. Russell Jeffrey of Halifax, N.S., spent Christmas week in Alberton the guest of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Richard Jeffrey (Sr.).

Dr. Purdy left on Saturday for Halifax where he will be the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Luman Purdy for the remainder of the winter months.

Walter Batchelder and Leonard Batchelder who are employed in Montague, N.B., left on return to last New Brunswick centre early last week after having spent the Christmas holidays with Mr. and Mrs. John Batchelder.

On Sunday, December 28th at 3:30 p.m., Caylene Marie, infant daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Leonard W. Fitzgerald was christened in St. James Church by the pastor, Rev. O. Higgins. The sponsors were Mr. and Mrs. Albert Burke of Charlottetown.

On December 1st, 1947, there passed peacefully away after a brief illness, Angus L. MacKinnon at the home of his brother, John, 863 Mass. Ave., Cambridge, Mass. Mr. MacKinnon was born in Canoe Cove, P. E. I. 67 years ago, the son of the late Mr. and Mrs. Ewen MacKinnon.

RECEIVES WORD - Mr. Russell Jeffrey of Halifax, N.S., spent Christmas week in Alberton the guest of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Richard Jeffrey (Sr.).

Dr. Purdy left on Saturday for Halifax where he will be the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Luman Purdy for the remainder of the winter months.

Walter Batchelder and Leonard Batchelder who are employed in Montague, N.B., left on return to last New Brunswick centre early last week after having spent the Christmas holidays with Mr. and Mrs. John Batchelder.

On Sunday, December 28th at 3:30 p.m., Caylene Marie, infant daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Leonard W. Fitzgerald was christened in St. James Church by the pastor, Rev. O. Higgins. The sponsors were Mr. and Mrs. Albert Burke of Charlottetown.

On December 1st, 1947, there passed peacefully away after a brief illness, Angus L. MacKinnon at the home of his brother, John, 863 Mass. Ave., Cambridge, Mass. Mr. MacKinnon was born in Canoe Cove, P. E. I. 67 years ago, the son of the late Mr. and Mrs. Ewen MacKinnon.

RECEIVES WORD - Mr. Russell Jeffrey of Halifax, N.S., spent Christmas week in Alberton the guest of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Richard Jeffrey (Sr.).

Dr. Purdy left on Saturday for Halifax where he will be the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Luman Purdy for the remainder of the winter months.

Walter Batchelder and Leonard Batchelder who are employed in Montague, N.B., left on return to last New Brunswick centre early last week after having spent the Christmas holidays with Mr. and Mrs. John Batchelder.

On Sunday, December 28th at 3:30 p.m., Caylene Marie, infant daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Leonard W. Fitzgerald was christened in St. James Church by the pastor, Rev. O. Higgins. The sponsors were Mr. and Mrs. Albert Burke of Charlottetown.

On December 1st, 1947, there passed peacefully away after a brief illness, Angus L. MacKinnon at the home of his brother, John, 863 Mass. Ave., Cambridge, Mass. Mr. MacKinnon was born in Canoe Cove, P. E. I. 67 years ago, the son of the late Mr. and Mrs. Ewen MacKinnon.

RECEIVES WORD - Mr. Russell Jeffrey of Halifax, N.S., spent Christmas week in Alberton the guest of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Richard Jeffrey (Sr.).

Dr. Purdy left on Saturday for Halifax where he will be the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Luman Purdy for the remainder of the winter months.

Walter Batchelder and Leonard Batchelder who are employed in Montague, N.B., left on return to last New Brunswick centre early last week after having spent the Christmas holidays with Mr. and Mrs. John Batchelder.

On Sunday, December 28th at 3:30 p.m., Caylene Marie, infant daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Leonard W. Fitzgerald was christened in St. James Church by the pastor, Rev. O. Higgins. The sponsors were Mr. and Mrs. Albert Burke of Charlottetown.

On December 1st, 1947, there passed peacefully away after a brief illness, Angus L. MacKinnon at the home of his brother, John, 863 Mass. Ave., Cambridge, Mass. Mr. MacKinnon was born in Canoe Cove, P. E. I. 67 years ago, the son of the late Mr. and Mrs. Ewen MacKinnon.

RECEIVES WORD - Mr. Russell Jeffrey of Halifax, N.S., spent Christmas week in Alberton the guest of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Richard Jeffrey (Sr.).

Dr. Purdy left on Saturday for Halifax where he will be the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Luman Purdy for the remainder of the winter months.

Walter Batchelder and Leonard Batchelder who are employed in Montague, N.B., left on return to last New Brunswick centre early last week after having spent the Christmas holidays with Mr. and Mrs. John Batchelder.

On Sunday, December 28th at 3:30 p.m., Caylene Marie, infant daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Leonard W. Fitzgerald was christened in St. James Church by the pastor, Rev. O. Higgins. The sponsors were Mr. and Mrs. Albert Burke of Charlottetown.

On December 1st, 1947, there passed peacefully away after a brief illness, Angus L. MacKinnon at the home of his brother, John, 863 Mass. Ave., Cambridge, Mass. Mr. MacKinnon was born in Canoe Cove, P. E. I. 67 years ago, the son of the late Mr. and Mrs. Ewen MacKinnon.

RECEIVES WORD - Mr. Russell Jeffrey of Halifax, N.S., spent Christmas week in Alberton the guest of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Richard Jeffrey (Sr.).

Dr. Purdy left on Saturday for Halifax where he will be the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Luman Purdy for the remainder of the winter months.

Walter Batchelder and Leonard Batchelder who are employed in Montague, N.B., left on return to last New Brunswick centre early last week after having spent the Christmas holidays with Mr. and Mrs. John Batchelder.

On Sunday, December 28th at 3:30 p.m., Caylene Marie, infant daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Leonard W. Fitzgerald was christened in St. James Church by the pastor, Rev. O. Higgins. The sponsors were Mr. and Mrs. Albert Burke of Charlottetown.

On December 1st, 1947, there passed peacefully away after a brief illness, Angus L. MacKinnon at the home of his brother, John, 863 Mass. Ave., Cambridge, Mass. Mr. MacKinnon was born in Canoe Cove, P. E. I. 67 years ago, the son of the late Mr. and Mrs. Ewen MacKinnon.

RECEIVES WORD - Mr. Russell Jeffrey of Halifax, N.S., spent Christmas week in Alberton the guest of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Richard Jeffrey (Sr.).

Dr. Purdy left on Saturday for Halifax where he will be the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Luman Purdy for the remainder of the winter months.

Walter Batchelder and Leonard Batchelder who are employed in Montague, N.B., left on return to last New Brunswick centre early last week after having spent the Christmas holidays with Mr. and Mrs. John Batchelder.

On Sunday, December 28th at 3:30 p.m., Caylene Marie, infant daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Leonard W. Fitzgerald was christened in St. James Church by the pastor, Rev. O. Higgins. The sponsors were Mr. and Mrs. Albert Burke of Charlottetown.

On December 1st, 1947, there passed peacefully away after a brief illness, Angus L. MacKinnon at the home of his brother, John, 863 Mass. Ave., Cambridge, Mass. Mr. MacKinnon was born in Canoe Cove, P. E. I. 67 years ago, the son of the late Mr. and Mrs. Ewen MacKinnon.

RECEIVES WORD - Mr. Russell Jeffrey of Halifax, N.S., spent Christmas week in Alberton the guest of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Richard Jeffrey (Sr.).

Dr. Purdy left on Saturday for Halifax where he will be the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Luman Purdy for the remainder of the winter months.

Walter Batchelder and Leonard Batchelder who are employed in Montague, N.B., left on return to last New Brunswick centre early last week after having spent the Christmas holidays with Mr. and Mrs. John Batchelder.

On Sunday, December 28th at 3:30 p.m., Caylene Marie, infant daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Leonard W. Fitzgerald was christened in St. James Church by the pastor, Rev. O. Higgins. The sponsors were Mr. and Mrs. Albert Burke of Charlottetown.

On December 1st, 1947, there passed peacefully away after a brief illness, Angus L. MacKinnon at the home of his brother, John, 863 Mass. Ave., Cambridge, Mass. Mr. MacKinnon was born in Canoe Cove, P. E. I. 67 years ago, the son of the late Mr. and Mrs. Ewen MacKinnon.

RECEIVES WORD - Mr. Russell Jeffrey of Halifax, N.S., spent Christmas week in Alberton the guest of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Richard Jeffrey (Sr.).

Dr. Purdy left on Saturday for Halifax where he will be the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Luman Purdy for the remainder of the winter months.

Walter Batchelder and Leonard Batchelder who are employed in Montague, N.B., left on return to last New Brunswick centre early last week after having spent the Christmas holidays with Mr. and Mrs. John Batchelder.

On Sunday, December 28th at 3:30 p.m., Caylene Marie, infant daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Leonard W. Fitzgerald was christened in St. James Church by the pastor, Rev. O. Higgins. The sponsors were Mr. and Mrs. Albert Burke of Charlottetown.

On December 1st, 1947, there passed peacefully away after a brief illness, Angus L. MacKinnon at the home of his brother, John, 863 Mass. Ave., Cambridge, Mass. Mr. MacKinnon was born in Canoe Cove, P. E. I. 67 years ago, the son of the late Mr. and Mrs. Ewen MacKinnon.

FOR RAINY SEASON - Umbrellas were used in ancient Egypt.