

FOR CHARLOTTETOWN GUARDIAN

MONDAY

—LEFT FOR SPRINGFIELD—Mr. J. C. Wilkinson of Springfield, West of the province, was held last night by the early morning train on Saturday morning. He will spend the balance of the winter here.

—LEFT FOR TRURO—Mr. J. Ernest Morrison of Summerside left for Truro last week where he has accepted a position with the Canadian Column Stocks Co. and will have charge of the brick work in connection with the installation of the furnaces for the Nova Scotia airports.

FIND CLEVER—City Police last night announced the discovery of a clever, neat saw and broken black jack containing a few shot in the storehouse where the body of Peconia was found. A pool of blood early Friday morning. The cleaver and meat saw appeared to contain bloodstains. The articles were found Saturday night.

PURCHASES FINE STALLION—Mr. Alfred Webster of Midgell, King's County, recently purchased a very fine registered Clyde stallion, four years old. Horsemen who have seen this horse are unanimous in their opinion that it is an outstanding specimen. Mr. Webster is to be congratulated on securing a sire of such quality for his community. Mr. Webster is a stallion rising three year old by Perfect out of the same mother (Baron Kivora). This colt is over 1600 pounds, smooth, with lots of action and snap. Prospective breeders would be well advised to look this young horse over this spring.

—FUNERAL OF MRS. STANFORD GAY—Friends and neighbors attended the funeral services for Mrs. Stanford Gay which were held at her late home on Friday afternoon. Rev. Wm. Ver Wolf conducted the services. An impressive service. The choir of the Presbyterian Church of which the deceased was a member sang the beautiful hymn "The Rock of Ages" and "Softly and Tenderly Jesus is Calling." The pallbearers were Messrs. Donald Baker, Arthur Allen, James LeRoy, J. C. Mountain, Charles McIvor, and Harold Walsh. Interment was in the home of Mrs. Peconia. Mr. Gay who predeceased his wife almost two years ago.

The community at Truro was saddened on Saturday morning to learn that the Angel of death had visited the home of Mrs. George Canfield and claimed the life of his daughter Leah, aged five years. On Friday she had become quite ill and was rushed to the Prince County Hospital, where she passed away a few hours after arrival. The little girl, who was the only child of the grief stricken parents, was a very bright and affectionate nature and a general favorite of both old and young. The funeral service was held on Sunday afternoon at the home of the deceased and was conducted by Rev. J. C. Mountain. The Trinites who spoke words of hope and comfort and it was attended by many sympathers. The interment was made in Westmoreland cemetery. The heart felt sympathy of the entire community goes out to the parents in their irreparable loss.

Edmund Christopher, Clerk, Charlottetown; Murray Harbour; Henry Macdonald, Wireless Air Gunner, Brookfield; William H. Herring, Clerk Accounting, Murray Harbour; John Keir Owen, were presented with letters by the Red Cross and with certificates by the Provincial Government through the Canadian Air Corps. The presentations were looked after by Mr. A. G. Bruce of the Canadian Legion War Services.

"Mr. Peter Trainor came to his death by violence at the hands of some person whose name was not inquest brought in by a jury at the inquest held in the City Police hearing started at 10 minutes past 3.30 and the evidence of 11 witnesses was heard. At 5.15 the jurors retired and after 17 minutes deliberation returned with the verdict.

The text of this verdict is as follows: "We, the undersigned jurors find that according to the evidence submitted this first day of February, 1941, that Mr. Peter J. Trainor came to his death by violence at the hands of some person or persons by inflicting wounds in the deceased which caused his death." Signed: Messrs. W. A. Gaudet (foreman), T. A. Butler, Keir Burhoe, George Tullie, Harry L. Hardy, H. E. Lange, John Wilmie.

The hearing was before Coroner Dr. I. J. Veo, and the following gave evidence: Dr. D. McGuigan, Dr. H. H. Pierce, Dr. G. L. Smith, Constable A. J. Lund, of the City Police force, Constable Sterns Webster, of the City Police force, Constable Fredon Poole, of the City Police force, Constable James C. Cameron, of the Royal Canadian Mounted Police, Mr. I. Y. Reddin, Mr. William Ryan, Mrs. Clarence Dunn, James Gallani, and Mr. John Gormley. Mr. C. St. Clair Trainor, K.C. represented the Crown.

The largest wound started three inches in front of the left ear and extended downwards and backwards until it reached 1 1/2 inches below the lobe of the right ear. Dr. McGuigan said he told the Coroner that when the effect of this wound would be the severing of blood vessels to and from the head, causing fatal hemorrhage; it would also sever the spinal cord connecting the brain and rest of the body and a so the nerves to the heart and lungs would be cut off. This would cause a person to die as quickly as possible.

—INSPECTED NEW UNITS—Mr. H. H. Smith, Inspector of the Department of Transport, Ottawa, visited Summerside last week to inspect the new units at the airport. The units were installed for the purpose of supplying power to the new airport. Mr. Smith was accompanied by Mr. Ainsworth, who spoke briefly on the meaning of the statement "We are fighting for freedom." The speaker for the evening was Miss Mary Lawson. The service closed with the hymn "Day is Dying in the West" followed by a brief prayer by Rev. Mr. Gardner.

—HANSEN—SMALLMAN WEDDING—In the beautiful Canadian Memorial Chapel, Vancouver, B. C., a pretty bride and groom were united in matrimony on Saturday, January 25 at six p.m. when Miss Beattie Louise Hansen, only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. G. Hansen, Summerside, became the bride of Corporal Kaye Ingvard Hansen of the R.C.A.F. The bride was accompanied by her father, the Rev. G. A. Fisher, pastor. Rev. G. Harrison officiated. Daffodils adorned the choir rails and appropriate music was rendered throughout the ceremony. The organist, Mr. J. E. A. Welton. In the absence of her father, the bride was accompanied by her brother, Lt. Kingsley Grady of the Canadian Dental Corps. The bride was very lovely in a chic, short length frock of cashmere blue crepe, tiny blue "dolls hat" was trimmed with a pearl felt bow and shoulder veils; sandals and gloves were of the same shade and her corsage was of pink roses and lilies of the Valley. The matron of honor was Mrs. Hansen and the bridesmaids were Ruth Tuplin of Summerside, the former cousin of the bride who was wearing black chiffon velvet, matching very turban and corsage of American Beauty shade "Better Times" Roses. Flight Sergeant Harry C. Atwood of the Vancouver Air Station acted as groomsmen. Immediately following the ceremony, the wedding party were entertained at a dinner at the home of Mrs. Grady, later going to the Panorama Room of the new hotel "Discovery" to dine and dance. A romantic dinner was served when the orchestra leader announced a special waltz in honour of Corporal Hansen and his bride. A dainty wedding cake had been provided on which was perched a tiny silver airplane. After many good wishes had been extended to the happy couple, they took leave of their guests to spend a brief honeymoon in the city of Vancouver. Mr. and Mrs. Hansen will reside at Grey Street, Vancouver. The bride, who had been the court stenographer in the Supreme Court of Prince Edward Island, had been tendered a number of pretty showers by friends in Summerside and Charlottetown previous to her departure for the coast. The Guardian joins with Island friends in happy felicitations.
