Ham Bethune and J. A. Rodd, city spent New Year's Day in Summerside.

The Fanning building was sold by auction on Saturday. Percy Tarton bid it in for $150.

Commencing on January 2st., 1906, the principal stores will close at 6 p. m. from that till the end of March.

E. W. Manson, Summerside, has been appointed special agent for the Nova Scotia Fire Insurance Company.

Mrs. Winfield, wife of Rev. J. A. Winfield, of Trinity church, St. Stephen, and formerly of Kensington, is quite ill with pneumonia.

John McDonald shipped a very fine pair of dapple grey mares weighing 1400 pounds to J. B. Friar, Sussex, by the Stanley on Saturday.

John Brown, teacher, Grand River, was presented by his pupils on Christmas with an appropriate address accompanied with a toilet set and a silk handkerchief.

The Stanley left here at 7 o'clock Saturday morning and returned at 12.30 in the thickest of a storm storm. She returned yesterday about 12 o'clock.

The Angel of death has for the third time within a week visited the vicinity of Hamilton and called home another aged and respected resident in the person of James Ramsay who departed this life on Friday last, 29th inst. The deceased was a prominent member of the community, was for many years a leading elder of the Princetown Presbyterian Church and at one time held the position of reporter to the Legislative Assemoly of P. E. Island. He leaves to mourn besides a sister and brother, five sons and two daughters as follows:—Fulton, O'Leary; Rev. James, stationed in Nova Scotia; Rev. Ernest H. now in Edinburgh, Howard and Fred at home, Mrs. Fred Lockerby, Hamilton and Mrs. W. D. Burgess, Cunard, N. S.

The opening of the New Year was duly honored in Summerside. On Saturday a considerable number left the town to spend New Year's elsewhere. Two promising embryo barristers were among the missing. They went "chasing the dee (a) r," and have not yet returned. On New Year's eve appropriate sermons were preached in all the churches and at the Midnight Watch joint services were held in the Presbyterian church by the Methodists and Presbyterians. On New Year' Day a number of excursionists made the round trip by the Stanley. The driving was good with an (em) bracing atmosphere and a larger number took advantage of this favorite pastime. The Band turned out and added much to the enjoyment of the afternoon. In the evening the annual New Year's Concert was given in the Market Hall under the auspices of the Presbyterian Choir. It was one of the best Concerts ever given here by local talent, equalling, if not excelling the standard of former years.

There have been 126 documents recorded in the Prince County Registry Office during the past year. This is 300 above the yearly average since the office was opened in 1864.

Good resolutions cannot always be carried into effect at the time appointed owing to changed conditions. The directors have decided that our store shall remain open a few weeks longer during which customers will be given exceptionally good bargains, Jardine & Co. Ltd. 1d 2i.

The Dunk River Farmers' Institute will meet in Wilmot Valley Hall on Friday evening, January 5th. The subjects for discussion will be:—What is best to be done with the Government stock farm? The best way to apply manure and does commercial fertilizer pay? All members of the Institute are expected to be present.

Arrangements having been made for the taking of a vote and the question of repealing the Canada Temperance Act in Prince County on Feb. 1st next it is urgently desirous that all clergymen representative of temperance societies and all others interested in the cause of temperance should attend a meeting of the Prince County Temperance Alliance to be held in Y. M. C. A. room Summerside, on Friday, Jan. 5th at 2 p. m. The time for active work is short. Let no one be absent who wishes for the success of the prohibitory law. Announcements as to railway fares to persons attending the meeting will be made through the press as soon as completed.

On Thursday, Dec. 28th at St. Mark's Parish Hall, Kensington, a Christmas concert and tree was held and a very creditable entertainment was given by the little ones consisting of recitations, dialogues, choruses, etc. After the entertainment the tree was stripped each child receiving a gift to remind them of the Great Gift from Our Heavenly Father. The teachers were not forgotten each one being the recipient of a handsome present. During the evening the rector vacated the chair which was then taken by James Howard, who called upon Wm. Pidgeon to read an address to the rector and his wife accompanied by very appropriate gifts. The rector who has just completed the first half year in the parish, feelingly replied for Mrs. Nicholls and himself in which he stated that he had endeavored to preach "Christ and Him Crucified," and urged the people to look away from the preacher and fix their gaze, their thoughts, their love, upon the One preached. The gifts to the rector and his wife consisted of a handsome pair of dogskin gauntlets, for himself; to Mrs. Nicholls a pair of sealskin gauntlets and kid gloves, while from the tree they received a number of presents amongst which was a small gift of money. Their little daughter, Miss Vivian received a very handsome doll.

Cured His Mother of Rheumatism.

"My mother has been a sufferer for many years from rheumatism," says W. H. Howard of Husband, Pennsylvania. "At times she was unable to move at all, while at all times walking was painful. I presented her with a bottle of Chamberlain's Pain Balm and after a few applications she decided it was the most wonderful pain reliever she had ever tried, in fact, she is never without it now and is at all times able to walk. An occasional application of Pain Balm keeps away the pain that she was formerly troubled with." For sale by all druggists.

We Greet All Our Patrons

on the threshold of the New Year with the wish that 1906 may be for them, one and all, a year of contentment and prosperity. We wish also to express our appreciation of the greatly increased patronage accorded us during the past year, and to assure you that our best efforts will be put forth during 1906 to make our already popular store, an ideal place to shop in.

During 1905 we have made many changes for the better in the store itself, and have installed a new and improved system of lighting, which makes it possible to purchase with equal satisfaction in the evening, as in the earlier part of the day.

Added to this we have improved our methods, our merchandise, and our service generally, and will continue to do so, until we have brought them up to the high standard of our ideals—which will result in a store where you can purchase with the utmost confidence, convenience and economy—and consequently satisfaction, and merit even a larger patronage than we at present, enjoy.

Thanking you again for past favors, and soliciting your further valued patronage for 1906, we wish to each and every one
