Rheumatism

What is the use of telling the rheumatist that he feels as if his joints were being dislocated?

He knows that his sufferings are very much like the tortures of the rack.

What he wants to know is what will permanently cure his disease.

That, according to thousands of grateful testimonials, is

Hood's Sarsaparilla

It promptly neutralizes the acid in the blood on which the disease depends, completely eliminates it, and strengthens the system against its return. Try Hood's.

The marriage will take place this morning at the residence of Mr. Charles McGregor, Longworth Avenue, of his eldest daughter Miss Amy McGregor to Mr. John P. Gordon of the firm of Moore & McLeod. The ceremony will be performed by Rev. D. B. McLeod assisted by Rev. G. P. Raymond. The bride will be dressed in a dark blue travelling dress and will be attended by her sister, Miss May McGregor. The groom will be supported by his brother Mr. P. W. Gordon of St. John. The contracting parties have received many handsome presents among which is a magnificent oak easy chair from Mrs. Moore & McLeod. The groom's fellow boarders also presented him with an address, accompanied by a valuable Morris chair. The young couple will leave this morning on a honey-moon trip through Nova Scotia.

At a special meeting of the Caledonian Club, held on the evening of 15th inst., the following members were appointed a committee to prepare an address of condolence to be presented to Hon. Senator Macdonald and family, on the occasion of the death of the late lamented Mrs. Macdonald, John McSwain, David Small, John McEachern, Ronald McMillan and Alex. McDonald. On Wednesday afternoon the same committee waited upon the Hon. Mr. Macdonald at his residence, on the Esplanade, and presented the following address:

Whereas it hath pleased Almighty God in the exercise of his omnipotent power to call unto himself the beloved wife of our worthy ex-Chief, Hon. Senator Macdonald and the loving mother of our esteemed Clansmen Aeneas A. Macdonald, and A. Douglas Macdonald.

Therefore resolved that Caledonian Club of Prince Edward Island, of which organization our bereaved Clansmen have been honored and respected members for many years, place on record an expression of our deep sympathy in the great and irreparable loss which the rather suddenly and unexpectedly have been called upon to bear.

Further resolved that we record our due appreciation of the estimable career of the deceased lady, while in the walks of private life as well as when filling the position of hostess at Government House, her conduct during this period being worthy of the highest commendation.

The Hon. Senator thanked the Committee, briefly acknowledged the kindness and thoughtfulness of the Club, as well as the many individual expressions of sympathy which have been tendered him, and feelingly referred to his recent severe bereavement.
