PRINCE EDWARD
(OPERA HOUSE)

TWO DAYS ONLY
Evening at 8.15 Matinee at 2.15

WEDNESDAY, JANUARY 1st.
THURSDAY, JANUARY 2nd.

"HEARTS OF THE WORLD" is by the same producer as "The Birth of a Nation" and "Intolerance." It is the sweetest love story ever told.

ITS BACKGROUND IS THE GREAT WAR. David Lloyd George commissioned Mr. Griffith to make this wonderful production under the auspices of the British Government. THE ENTIRE BRITISH ARMY IN FRANCE was placed at his disposal in the making of this gigantic screen drama.

YOU WILT SEE peaceful France and Belgium; then comes the alarm of war, the mailed fist of the brutal Kaiser strikes and the holocaust is on.

YOU WILL SEE the most striking indictment of German Bestiality and German Frightfulness yet shown to the civilized world.

YOU WILL SEE the British Parliament, champion of Liberty, in its famous session when the House of Commsns votes in the name of humanity to resist the outrage upon a free people and TO FIGHT TO MAINTAIN JUSTICE IN THE WORLD.

YOU WILL SEE France, Cradle of Liberty, the memorable session of the Chamber of Deputies, voting war with Germany, waiting for the time that would bring them revenge for the crime of Alsace and Lorraine..

YOU WILL SEE WHY ANY COUNTRY THAT IS GOOD ENOUGH TO LIVE IN IS GOOD ENOUGH TO FIGHT FOR.

YOU WILL SEE displayed the grim story of the great struggle, with the rainbow of promise of success and happiness brought to Europe by the coming of the British, Canadian and United States troops.

After witnessing D. W. Griffith's supreme triumph, "HEARTS OF THE WORLD" you will go forth with renewed ardor and with increased faith in the justice of the war of our beloved country and allies in their fight for humanity and civilization.

"Hearts of the World" is more than a picture play; it is a world drama; it goes straight to the heart. It is this human quality that makes "Hearts of the World" as big as mankind—N. Y. Evening World.

"Hearts of the World" another Griffith triumph—a story more vital than "The Birth of a Nation." Last night's audience was spellbound. It was a monster success.—N. Y. American.,

"War vividly seen in Griffith film. A story that quickly stirs the emotions.

GREY RUBBERS for ladies. The latest shade Alley & Co. 3177-12-27M2i.

AN ANGEL OF MERCY is the title of a pretty calendar being issued by Mr. E. A. Foster to his customers.

CITY TAXES.—As there is quite a large amount of Taxes unpaid, we are making out the list of defaulters to publish. 3155-12-25 m5i

WRONG NAME.—It was Harriet Tarbush that presented the Convalescent Home Christmas Eve with the handsome pearl painting and frame, also a pair of bed socks to the soldiers, and not Harriet Fairbanks as stated in the Guardian Thursday morning.

GOVERNMENT POND.—Government Pond was crowded with skaters on Thursday night, the ice being in splendid condition. The slight snow fall of yesterday morning interfered with the skating to some extent but as the fall was only light if every boy intending to have a skate would take a broom along with him to the pond it would take but a short time to have it clear of snow and as good as ever.

WE DIRECT ATTENTION to the auction sale of Mr. Henry Hughes, Scotchfort, which appears elsewhere in this issue. 3097-12-21Msws3i.

P. J. NOY & CO., Hunter River have just received car flour, bran and middling. Prices low while unloading. 3178-12-27mIi.

TO GO BY RAIL.— The schooner Glendon, Capt. Kinch, which has been loading potatoes at Brush Wharf, Orwell, got nipped in by the ice there and was released by the C. G. S. Brant on Thursday and towed to Charlottetown and is now at the Railway Wharf. The schooner is owned by Mr. R. J. McNeill of Tyne Valley and her cargo of 5000 bushels of oats will be discharged and forwarded to destination by rail in sealed cars, the insurance underwriters refusing to insure vessel or cargo, for the trip to Halifax.

WORTH ATTENTION.—Camera-friends and collectors of beauties and oddities, who visit this city, should not fail to enrich their collection with a picture of that wonderful piece of fencing on Brighton Avenue, situated about 100 yards west of the brook This structure stands unrivalled in its atrocious hideousness; each post points skyward at a different angle, while the rails are composed of rough boards of various lengths and widths, which have never been defiled by paint or whitewash. In winter, this model of atrocity gathers the snow around it to the depth of from 4 to 6 feet, incidentally serving the sidewalk in a similar manner as this snow is never shoveled off, an accurate observation of its wondrous unsightliness cannot be procured during the winter. It is understood that complaints about the depth of snow on this piece of sidewalk are constantly being laid before the City authorities, where they lay as peacefully and undisturbed as does the snow on the sidewalk.

AT HOME.—Mrs. P. Claude Murphy, Tignish will be at home to her friends Thursday January 2nd from 3 to 5. 3200-12-28Mstt3ipd.

TRYON METHODIST CIRCUIT. — There will be no services on this circuit next Sunday. Rev. Mr. Fitzpatrick hopes to be able to take his services the following week.

SCHOONER OVERDUE.— The schooner "Joseph Johnson" which was loaded by George Forbes, Vernon River Bridge, with oats and potatoes, and left for Newfoundland on the 30th of November, is now long overdue, and is believed to be lost with all hands, as there has been no tidings of her since leaving port. Vessel and crew belonged to Grand River, Newfoundland.

FUNERAL YESTERDAY.— The remains of the late Mr. Gordon Large whose death from pneumonia in the P. E. Island Hospital occurred Thursday, were forwarded to his late home in Hunter River yesterday morning where the funeral took place in the afternoon. Mr. Large was a brakeman on the P. E. I. R., a splendid type of young robust manhood whose death at the early age of 25 years is deeply to be deplored. T. is bereaved mother and others of the family deepest sympathy is extended.

CAPT. BAGNALL RETURNING.— Among the officers arriving by the "Grampian" in St. John on Christmas Eve, was Captain John S. Bagnall, of Charlottetown, who was accompanied by his wife and little daughter. The proceeded first to North Sydney, Mrs. Bagnall's old home, where she will visit relatives. The Captain is expected this evening from Halifax on a visit to his parents, Dr. J. S. Bagnall and Mrs. Bagnall. Capt. Bagnall has seen service from the very day war broke out, leaving here for Sydney Mines, and subsequently going overseas with the Fifth (now the Eighth) Siege Battery in 1916 and was in France until gassed and returned to England. He became Adjutant of the Reserve Camp at Witley and later was transferred to Camp Borden.

A BATH CHAIR for sale on Dec. 30th at Cymbria Lodge.

BAPTIST CHURCH.— The splendid programme of Christmas music, so magnificently rendered last Sunday morning and evening by the choir of the Baptist Church, will be repeated tomorrow (Sunday.) 3205.

CORNWALL CIRCUIT.—Rev. J. Horney will conduct services next Lord's Day at Cornwall 11 and 7. Hampshire at 3. The services at North Wiltshire at 11 and at Kingston at 3 will be conducted by Laymen.

NEW GLASGOW AND FREDERICTON.—There will be preaching services in the Church of Christ at New Glasgow next Lord's Day, Dec. 29th morning and evening, and at Fredericton at 3.30 p. m.

KURTSWAN PLAYTR PIANO. Morris Piano for sale at Cymbria Lodge, also Cherry and Walnut beds etc., etc. If not all sold on Dec. 30th sale will continue until following afternoon.

GOOD NEWS.—Mrs. William Scott, city, was made very happy yesterday on receiving a cablegram from her son, Lt. W. A. Scott, who wired that he was in Copenhagen, (the capital of Denmark), and sends Christmas greetings. This means that he has been set free from the German prison where he has been confined since the latter part of last March. Lt. Scott was with the Royal Flying Corps when he wascaptured.

HEARTS OF THE WORLD

D. W. GRIFFITHS LATEST MASTERPIECE

The biggest event in the entire season in the world of motion pictures, will be the presentation of D. W. Griffith's latest film masterpiece, "Hearts of the World" at the Prince Edward Wednesday and Thursday January 1st and 2nd. [illegible]

"Hearts of the World" required [illegible] months in the making and many of the scenes were taken on the actual battlefields of France by Mr. Griffith, with the official aid and assistance of the British and French governments. Mr. Griffith, however, is anxious to remove any apprehension that "Hearts of the World" is primarily a war picture. It is, he announces, primarily a love story, in which war figures as the grim background. It may be called "the story of a village," and for more than forty minutes during the exposition of the story, there is not a cannon shot, not a suggestion of war's alarms. There is the pretty romance of two girls each in love with the same man; there is the quiet an dpeaceful atmosphere of a small French town before the holocaust of the war. Then comes the conflict, with its ensuing effects upon the fortunes of those in the little village. The battle scenes shown are actual battle scenes taken right in the trenches during the death struggles of the French and the Germans; only occasionally has it been found necessary to piece the story of the battles together by means of acted scenes taken at Witley Camp in England and in which the 105th Battalion of this province plays a part. The story was written two years before the United States entered the war and was written mainly to awaken that country to a sense of its danger and its duty. Thus one sees the life in the trenches; the charges of the French soldiers; the thrilling hand to hand conflicts and the thrust of bayonets; the murder of the shells; the great guns in action, the tanks; the attack by liquid fire; the charges, and the retreats; the German pill-boxes; the flights of the villagers; the ruthless destruction of property; the treatment of young girls who fall into the hands of the Germans; and other things too numerous to mention, the whole culminating in the arrival of the American troops.

Mr. Griffith is anxious to have it understood that while "Hearts of the World" deals with war and love, it is a drama he has staged, rather than a propaganda film. Yet no one can sit through this wonderful pictorial representation of tragedy of Bleeding France, without going forth more determined than ever, that such grim horrors of war must never happen again in the history of the world. Prominent in the cast of "Hearts of the World" are the beautiful Gish sisters, Lillian and Dorothy, Robert Harron, George Fawcett, George Seigman and other well-known players.
