GRATIFYING

re-elected as follows: Mr. W. A. Stewart, M.L.A., President; Mrs. H. S. Henderson, Vice-President, and Mr. Ira M. Brown, Secretary.

The discussion of Orphanage was heartily joined in, Mr. J. J. MacLeod, Bonshaw, leading, followed by Mr. G. D. Wright, whom all were delighted to welcome again to the orphanage work, Mr. Isaac Carter, Dr. J. H. Ayers and Mr. George Wheatley, who moved, seconded and supported the adoption of the reports and Mr. Heath Strong. The motion to confirm the appointment of Mr. Burrell was made by Mr. J. G. MacLeod, and seconded by Rev. Mr. Nicholson, and that to re-appoint the trustee board by Mrs. J. F. MacLeod and Mrs. G. Munn.

Votes of thanks were extended to those who assisted the work during the year, including the clergy, the auxiliaries, the press, the doctors, the P. E. I. Hospital, Miss Beers, the secretary, and to Mrs. Henderson and the finance committee.

The meeting closed with Benediction by Rev. Mr. Raymond.

The report of Miss Eva Beers, nurse in charge of the home, was listened to with attention, and she received many compliments on the manner in which her work was done and her report prepared. In her report, which will be published more fully in a later issue, Miss Beers stated that the work in the home had proceeded along much the usual lines. The highest daily average was 58 children in the institution, of whom only eight were responsible for their own daily care. Reference was made to the specialized care which sub-normal children should receive. The routine was described, and the various situations which arose from time to time referred to in some detail. In closing Miss Beers voiced an appeal for continued support, and thanked those present for the co-operation shown.

Review

The following review of the year 1932 was presented by Mr. W. A. Stewart, Chairman of the Board of Trustees:

In reviewing the reports of the various committees on the work of the past year, we may look upon the results accomplished with a feeling of satisfaction and sincere thankfulness.

The average number of children continues high, reaching at one period a total of fifty-eight.

A large number have been placed in Foster Homes and an almost equal number received into the Home.

The health of all the children has continued at the usual high standard, under the careful supervision of Dr. Tidmarsh and the untiring efforts of the Nurse in Charge and her staff.

A visit to the Institution at any time will demonstrate that the children have a real Home, judging by the smiling happy faces that greet you.

The farm continues under rental and the property reserved for orphanage use is kept in first-class condition.

The financing of the Institution has been carefully and satisfactorily handled by our energetic chairman and committee.

The untiring efforts of many workers has carried us successfully over a most difficult period.

The year has brought considerable increase to our endowments; this fund is the hope for the future and we trust that it will not be overlooked by a thoughtful public.

By strict economies considerable reduction has been effected in our maintenance account.

This Trustee Board is extremely grateful for the generous assistance and whole-hearted co-operation of all friends and workers including: the Clergy, the Auxiliaries,

DISCUSSES INDIA AND CHRISTIANITY

Visiting Hindu Apostolic Preachers Delighted With Visit to Charlottetown.

India, land of mysticism of ancient castes, of seemingly irreconcilable antagonisms, of many tongues and creeds, is unmistakably making progress in true Christian idealism. While sectarianism is on the decline as a missionary force, the teachings of Christ have taken root and are influencing more and more the lives of the people. Eventually the caste system, and all the barriers of race and tradition, will fall before the Christian gospel and a new and better era will dawn, in which India will take its place as a potent factor in the religious life of the world. This, in effect, was the opinion expressed to a Guardian representative yesterday by Sadhu J. N. Christananda, M. A., Ph. D., who, with his younger brother, Edmund Devadoss Christananda, is delivering in Charlottetown a series of addresses on the mystic teachings of Christ from the Hindu standpoint.

As already noted in the press, the Sadhu came to Canada two years ago as an apostolic itinerant preacher, his official connection being with the Church of England. Previously he traversed the length and breadth of India and has preached in every European country except Russia. He has travelled also in the United States, where he received from the Atlanta, Ga., University the degree of Doctor of Philosophy. In his home in South India, a few miles from Madras City, he conducted an independent indigenous mission among his own people. His chief work, however, has been travelling from city to city, appealing with his message to educated non-Christians.

"In spite of the national movement and all kinds of minor disturbances, I should say that the true spirit of Christ is kindling the minds and hearts of the people," he declared. "My first aim, first of all, has been to show the utter need for Christ alone, and then to make people see how the power of Christ transforms the raw material of the natural man into the finished product of the spiritual man. This message is a compendium of what we might call the mystic side of religion. We have fellowship with all bodies of Christian people. I have had letters from about twenty different church dignitaries in England and other parts of the world, and I have had the joy of preaching in many magnificent cathedrals, including the famous York Minster, in England."

So far as the higher classes of India are concerned, Christian evangelism must be accomplished by native Christians, Sadhu Christananda believes.

denounces Gandhi's influence

Questioned as to the influence of Mahatma Gandhi in India, the Sadhu replied that Gandhi's influence is very great indeed. His aesthetic manner of life, and his evident deep sincerity and devotion to his ideals, have made a profound appeal. That did not mean, the Sadhu explained, that Gandhi's ideas were right; but it

This time she notified the town police and then, on their instructions, placed a dummy package in the field while officers stationed about the locality kept watch. Their vigil went unrewarded, and late that night the widow received a third call. "Why did you have the cops over in the ball field" came the same voice. And the man hung up before she could answer. Tonight, police were on the trail of the extortionists and arrests were believed imminent. Reports linked them with a car theft and blackmail ring said to have been operating here some time.

A GREAT BIRTHDAY SALE — The 76th Birthday Sale of R. T. Holman's Ltd., turned out to be like one of the old time sale days in Charlottetown, the store being more or less crowded from early morning until closing time, the firm reporting they had done the best day's business since Christmas. Various departments were fully patronized and the assistants had a busy time attending the wants of their many customers, who seemed to appreciate the greatly reduced prices being charged for household equipments. The sale continues today and closes at 9.30 this evening.

BIRTHDAY PARTY—A pretty little birthday party was held at the home of Master Glen Newson at Harrington on June 7th when a number of invited guests gathered to celebrate his seventh birthday. After a jolly time playing games, all sat down to a dainty tea table, prettily trimmed with flowers and pink candles and entered into the delight and mystery of the birthday cake and ice cream. After supper, games were again enjoyed until time for home when all departed wishing Glen many more such happy birthdays.

Rev. Dr. MacMillan, Minister of Health and Education, returned last evening from St. John, where he attended the sessions of the Canadian Medical Association.
