Retired Caretaker Has Fine Record Of Service

One of the most active men for his age in the Prince Edward Island when the above picture was taken last autumn was Mr. Thomas Cole of New London. Mr. Cole celebrated his eighty-sixth birthday on June 20 last, spending the day quietly with members of his family and some friends who called.

For nine years he has been the careful and efficient caretaker of the Anglican cemetery at New London, and although he received some remuneration for his work, he made it very much a labour of love. His parents are buried here, his father, William Cole, and his mother Mary Constable Cole, also his wife and an infant child who died with her more than forty years ago.

Mr. Wesley Cole, the well-known building moving contractor, is a son.

In his younger days Mr. Cole was a man of powerful physique, with the reputation of being able to do as much work in a day as two ordinary men. This picture shows him still erect and vigorous after the snows of eighty-five winters had whitened his hair.

Last winter Mr. Cole suffered a severe stroke, but it is pleasing to report that he is making a wonderful recovery. A few days ago he made a trip to Summerside on business. Acting under his doctor's orders, he has very reluctantly resigned from his job as caretaker of the cemetery.

Highlight of the three day conference will be the Wednesday evening banquet at which Gordon Smith, Hamilton, Ont., will be guest speaker. Mr. Smith is the Canadian Agent for Cuna Mutual Insurance Society.

Prof. A. I. MacDonald, formerly of St. Francis Xavier University Extension Dept., and now located at Ottawa, will also speak at the banquet.

Toastmaster will be W. R. Shaw, Deputy Minister of Agriculture. Speakers at the conference will include His Excellency Most Reverend James Boyle, Premier J. Walter Jones, Dr. W. J. P. MacMillan, C.B.E., Hon. W. F. A. Stewart, Rt. Rev. J. A. Murphy, Rev. Dr. A. D. MacKenzie, Rt. Rev. R. V. MacKenzie, Rev. K. G. Sullivan and P. M. Nash.

This year 1948 marks the 100th anniversary of the institution of the Credit Union movement.

The potato shippers stated that their plans called for a Government appointed controller to work with the railway who would be advised of the transportation requirements of the industry by a group of three specified officials selected from the Provincial Department of Agriculture and the Dominion Science Service and Fruit and Vegetable Branch. The Provincial Government is being asked to assist in obtaining permission for these men to act in this capacity. To complete the organization a secretary to the above Board is appointed whose function would be liaison between the shippers and the controller.

All directors of the Association were present as follows. From King's County, L. H. Poole, Montague; R. L. Buge, Five Houses. From Queen's, F. B. Clarke, vice-president, Charlottetown; Col. G. G. Peake, Charlottetown; Col. G. D. Thompson, Charlottetown; E. D. Reid (secretary); from Prince: L. H. MacFarlane, Summerside; Leslie Simons, Summerside; Geo. Brock, Kensington; Claude MacNeil, O'Leary.

It was decided to hold the postponed annual meeting of the Association within the next two weeks at Summerside at which time the full plan for handling the potato transportation problems in the forthcoming season will be submitted to the plenary session.

for good in a country. Hon. Dr. W. J. P. MacMillan congratulated the Charlottetown Board of Trade in having such a convincing speaker as Mr. Hill address it and cited instances from his own experience of the value of a Board of Trade in any urban community. He concluded by sending a vote of thanks on behalf of the local Board to Mr. Hill.

During the interval between the addresses of Mr. Hill and Mr. Morrell, a film was shown depicting the development of trade from the days of the Egyptians to the present time.

Canadian Nurses Ass'n Executive Meet in Ch'town

Here to attend an executive meeting today of the Canadian Nurses Association—the first such meeting to be held in Prince Edward Island—Miss Ethel Cryderman, newly elected president, and Miss Gertrude Hall, general secretary-treasurer, both expressed appreciation at the opportunity of visiting Charlottetown at this time.

In referring to the present position of public health and nursing in Canada, Miss Cryderman and Miss Hall mentioned that among the many interesting things which happened at the recent convention in Sackville, a resolution was passed in which the Department of National Health and Welfare was asked to establish a Federal division of nursing within that Department.

The nurses of Canada are fully aware of the part which members of their profession must play in any progressive health measure. As the Federal plans include a marked increase, during the next few years, in the number of hospital beds, the Association feels that this cannot be accomplished without suitable and sufficient personnel.

The C.N.A. has many suggestions for the better utilization of nurses at the present time, as well as carefully considered plans for increasing nursing personnel in Canada.

Officers of the Association visiting in the City this week-end are: Miss Ethel Cryderman, newly elected president, head of V.O.M., Toronto; Immediate past-president Miss Rae Chittick, University of Alberta; Miss Gertrude Mallory, first vice-president, University of Alberta; Miss Marion Myers, second vice-president, Saint John, N. B.; Miss Lilye Creelman, third vice-president, Toronto; Miss Gertrude Hall, general secretary-treasurer, Montreal.

Other members of the national executive present for today's meeting in Charlottetown include: Miss Marian Myers, Saint John, N. B.; Miss Lucy Crerar, Vancouver, B. C.; Miss Barbara Key, Hamilton, Ont.; Miss Blanche Emerson, Edmonton, Alta.; Miss Frances Ferguson, Calgary, Alta.; Miss Alice Wright, Vancouver, B. C.; Miss Esther Paulson, Vancouver, B. C.; Miss Kathleen Ellis, U. of Saskatchewan; Miss Ethel James, Regina, Sask.; Miss Irene Barton, Winnipeg, Man.; Miss Lillian Pettigrew, Winnipeg, Man.; Miss Nettie Fidler, Windsor, Ont.; Miss Florence Walker, Toronto, Ont.; Miss Ellen Flanagan, Montreal, P. Q.; Miss Allida Law, Saint John, N. B.; Miss Hilda Bartsch, Moncton, N. B.; Miss Nancy Watson, Halifax, N.S.; Miss Margaret Kerr, Montreal; Sister Mary Beatrice, Antigonish, N. S.; Sister Denise Lafevre, Montreal, P. Q.; Sister St. Albert; Sister Valerie de la Sagesse, Montreal, P. Q.; Sister Rosalie, Saint John, N. B.

The beautiful Book of Remembrance, which now has sixty-nine names inscribed was on display. Announcement of the personnel of the staff of the G.A. Camp from July 21-31 was received with great satisfaction.

A generous offering was received during the singing of the closing hymn "Spirit of the Living God" which will be used to assist in the mission work at Inverness. The members of the Crapaud branch were given a hearty vote of thanks for their kind hospitality and hearty co-operation in making another semi-annual such a success.

AIR FREIGHT (Continued from Page 1) city's food supply ran out. Sir Brian Robertson said the Russians would have "no cause to fear your currency will be exposed to any risk" by keeping the highway to Helmsstedt closed.

That was the reason given by the Russians for closing the road two weeks ago when a Western Power currency reform was decreed for Western Germany.

Sir Brian also complained that large traffic up the Elbe River to Berlin "is not proceeding as smoothly." He asked Sokolovsky to look into the matter and "give me an assurance that this important traffic will not be impeded."

Experts dealing with the United States-British airlift operation said last night "flying coal cars" may soon join the streams of food-carrying transport planes now winging into Berlin on an around-the-clock basis.

William H. Draper, United States undersecretary for the army, said he expected American planes soon would be bringing coal into western Berlin. The Russians have stopped shipments of industrial coal into the city in addition to their food blockade.

The Allied air-borne answer to beleaguered Berlin was growing bigger but at a cost of millions of dollars as the ceaseless labor of thousands of men.

High British and American officials are dealing with the matter.

Anti-War Petition From Anglican Churches

LONDON, July 2.—(Reuters)—A petition signed by Anglicans throughout the world has been sent to the Lambeth Conference seeking a declaration that "all participation in war even in a good cause is contrary to the Divine will."

The Lambeth conference of archbishops and bishops of the Anglican communion throughout the world opens here Monday.

The signatories are quoting 8,750 made up of 534 clergymen and 8,218 laymen and women. They came from all parts of the Anglican communions.

Diocesan Board Of Anglican Women's Auxilliary Meets

The semi-annual meeting of the Prince Edward Island Diocesan Board of the Women's Auxilliary to the Church of England in Canada was held on Wednesday, June 30th, in conjunction with the Diocesan Church Society, at the Anglican Church center, Crapaud.

Holy communion was celebrated in St. John's Church with Archdeacon Harrison, Summerside as the celebrant assisted by Rev. Canon Malone, St. Peter's Cathedral, Charlottetown; Rev. B. Freeman, Crapaud and Rev. Jos. Nowe, Alberton. Mr. Russel Way, student in training at Wycliffe College, Toronto doing summer work at Inverness, took part in the service.

The address, taking as his text St. Luke 5: "Master, we have toiled all night and taken nothing, nevertheless, at Thy word I will let down the net." Mr. Way likened the mission work at Inverness to this passage of scripture, saying that like Peter, failure was admitted at first but through faith and obedience to Christ's command, failure has been turned into success for a mission church is now in the course of erection and soon the full ministrations of the Church.

The business sessions in the afternoon were presided over by the diocesan president Mrs. A. B. Cosh. The attendance was excellent and for the first time in many years, every parish in Prince Edward Island was represented.

Mrs. Ernest Birch and Mrs. Russel Birch both of Port Hill Parish were admitted into diocesan life membership. At the impressive service of admission, Mrs. Cosh was assisted by Mrs. H. D. Raymond, the honorary president who had recently returned from Toronto.

Tribute was paid to the life and work of Mrs. Chester Acorn a life member and until recently an officer of the board who had passed on to higher service.

Short reports were presented by the officers and letters of sympathy and regret were sent to the officers who were absent through illness.

The beautiful Book of Remembrance, which now has sixty-nine names inscribed was on display. Announcement of the personnel of the staff of the G.A. Camp from July 21-31 was received with great satisfaction.

A generous offering was received during the singing of the closing hymn "Spirit of the Living God" which will be used to assist in the mission work at Inverness. Union Commercial College Closing

The Union Commercial College held an informal closing on Friday, June 25, for the summer recess. Diplomas and certificates were awarded a number of students. During the year a number of improvements in the classrooms were effected. The number of typewriters was increased to twenty-six, a record-player and dictation records were procured for the use of shorthand classes, and other equipment to further the efficiency of instruction was obtained.

During the term 1947-48, fifty-five students received instruction in the day classes, sixteen of this number being veterans taking training through the Department of Veterans Affairs. In the evening classes, which were conducted from October to April, sixty-five students were enrolled. Nine additional students received instruction by correspondence.

To date 95 per cent of the students completing training have been placed in positions. The following students received graduating diplomas: Harold Bernard, Shirley Boulter, Lorraine Buote, Jean Carr, James Cummings, Elizabeth MacDougall, Florida Thomas.

The following students have successfully completed that portion of the work prescribed for their classification to date: Emory Bruce, Rebecca Campbell, John Caswell, Olga Forsythe, Eric Mooney, Anne Murchison, Elizabeth Puncher, Ruby Ramsay, Mary Reeves, Joan Szezelle, Eldon Stewart.

In addition, a number of students completed short courses in a limited number of subjects during the year. Union Commercial College will re-open for classes on September 7, 1948.

planes indicated the firing food armada soon would swell to more than 500 flights daily to the two Berlin airports supplying 2,000,000 western sector Germans.

The R.A.F. planned at least 200 flights and the United States about 260 daily.

"We will go on until the job is done," said Gen. Sir Brian Robertson, the British military governor, at Hannover Field, the British take-off point. "No effort will be spared."

American pilots reported a mysterious interference with their radio directional beam over the Russian zone had caused a few to swerve off course. Air Force officers said they were investigating to see if the Russians were responsible. They pointed out the Russians might be building up a case for charging air corridor violations.
