Gary Cooper As "Marco Polo" At Prince Edward

A magnificent cavalcade of romance, splendor, excitement and fun moved swiftly across the screen of the Prince Edward Theatre last night in "The Adventures of Marco Polo."

The production offers Gary Cooper in his most romantic role as the swashbuckling adventurer who was the world's first travelling salesman and opened the first important trade route between Europe and Asia during the colorful reign of the great Chinese Emperor, Kublai Khan, fighting and loving as he went.

The picture also introduces Sigrid, who completely captivated last night's audience with her loveliness, charm and ability.

When the story opens the romantic, adventurous young Marco is sent by his father from Venice to China.

Arriving in Pekin with his servant (and stooge) Binguccio (Ernest Truex), he amuses and impresses the great Khan and falls in love with his daughter, the beautiful Princess Kukachin (Sigrid Gurie), who is pursued by the villainous Saracen, Ahmed, who determines to do away with Marco.

Marco Polo is captured by Lord Kaidu (Alan Hale), a general at war with the Khan. Kaidu's beautiful but jealous wife (Binnie Barnes), falls in love with Marco and Kaidu promises to let him live as long as he can keep her amused and off his trail.

Meanwhile, Kublai Khan gives Ahmed full control of his army and the villain plots to send the army to destruction in a typhoon in the China Sea and marry the Princess.

The girl sends an appeal to Marco who persuades Kaidu to rally his army and march to Pekin to attack the palace and save the Princess.

Ahmed traps the army within the city walls and just when it looks as if Kaidu's army will be wiped out, Marco blows up the palace gates with gunpowder—which had hitherto been used simply for firecrackers. After a terrific battle, Marco rescues the Princess and Ahmed is killed.

Marco establishes peace between Kaidu and the Khan, gets his trade agreements and carries off the Princess.

Cooper is at his lovable, romantic best as the swashbuckling Marco, the lovely Sigrid is something to see, and others who score in the magnificent cast are Rathbone, Truex, a welcome addition to the comedy annals of screendom, Hale, Barbier and Miss Barnes.

Gene Autry At Captol

Any one seeing "Prairie Moon" the new Gene Autry picture which opened last night at the Capitol Theatre, will not find it hard to understand just why the afore-mentioned Mr. Autry stands at the top of the heap as Public Cowboy Number One. Gene does just about everything that the Number One Cowboy should do and does it in the approved, grandiose manner. Smiley Burnette, without whom, Autry wouldn't seem to be Autry is again the side-kick of the star and again "clicks" one hundred per cent.

The story concerns itself with the adventures that befall Gene and Smiley when they fulfill a promise that a friend of Gene's had exacted from him while he lay dying.

The promise was that Gene send to New York and get his young boys, who were residing there, bring them west, and see that they received the ranch which he has left them and which is currently in the hands of a band of cattle rustlers. Gene gets a real dose of "double-trouble." The three youths have been raised in the tenement districts of the Metropolis and are typical hard boiled kids. Add to the child trouble that with the cattle rustlers,and you have some idea of the complications that Gene has to face before everything ends happily.

HAS EXCELLENT CAST

Outstanding supporting role credit is captured by the new screen find, Tommy Ryan. The other two youths, David Gorcey — brother of the "Dead End" Gorcey, and Walter Tetley, the boy wonder of radio who played all child roles on the "March of Time" airshows for over a year, also turn in outstanding performances

Shirley Deane displays promise in the role of the school teacher who captures the heart of Autry. Others contributing outstanding work to the picture include Stanley Andrews, William Pawley, Warner Richmond, Raphael Bennett, and Jack Rockwell.

REGINA, Nov. 16—(CP)— The Chinese-Japanese conflict has brought a union of the people of China under General Chiang Kai-Shek, Gordon Avison, Toronto born Young Men's Christian Association secretary in Korea, told reporters here.

Avison, partially educated in China, is convinced the Chinese ultimately will drive out their oppressors. He estimated the conflict would rage another three years.

"The Japanese people are nervous and jittery over the war and the Japs would have quit after winning the northern provinces but the Chinese won't let them stop now, he said.

After six years of schooling in China, Avison graduated from Western Reserve University at Cleveland, Ohio, and then completed a physical training course at Johnstown, Pa. He has been at Korea since 1926
