THEY'RE ALL OF IT.—An exchange says:—Success to the effort to be made to show party-line telephone users that holding the line for a long period and refusing to give way on the request of other subscribers is selfish, mean, ungenerous, inconsiderate, thoughtless, ill-bred, unamiable, disliking, unkind, churlish, impolite, ill-mannered, ungracious, discourteous, unaccommodating, boorish, unneighborly, perverse, hogish and unreasonable!

WEDDING BELLS.—A very happy wedding took place at 6.30 a. m. on the evening of March 10th at the Baptist Parsonage, Charlottetown by the Rev. Chas. R. Freeman when Miss Leona May, youngest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Alexander McDougall, Argyle Shore was united in holy bonds of matrimony to Duncan A. Stewart of New Glasgow, N. S. The bride looked charming in a dress of taupe silk with blue trimmings and hat to match. The groom's gift to the bride was a cheque for one hundred dollars. The happy couple left next morning for different points in the Maritime Provinces after which they will reside in Halifax where the groom holds a responsible position with the Imperial Oil Co. The bride's travelling suit was of blue serge. Their many friends wish them many happy years of wedded life.

CONCERT AND CANDY SALE.—On the evening of Tuesday, March 4th a very successful concert and candy sale was held in the Orange Hall at Lunter River, under the auspices of the Town Improvement Society. SAD INCIDENT.—Mrs. Charles Wyand, Mayfield, received on Tuesday the sad news of the death in Heward, Sask., of their niece, Miss Kathleen Wyand, on March 18th. Only a few weeks ago Kathleen with her father and mother, Mr. and Mrs. Silas Wyand and brother Elymer, left P. E. I. for their new home in Sask. When nearing their destination she contracted influenza, which developed pleuro-pneumonia. She was only seventeen years of age, beautiful in character and a favorite of all. Much sympathy is felt for her stricken parents, brothers and sisters in their sad bereavement.

HERE'S QUICK RELIEF FOR YOUR TIRED, STRAINED MUSCLES

When your muscles become tired and swollen and the joints become stiff, your circulation poor, and your suffering makes you irritable, an application of Sloan's Liniment gives you quick relief—kills pain, starts up a good circulation, relieves congestion. It is easier and cleaner to use than messy plasters or ointments, acts quickly and does not clog the pores. It does not stain the skin. Made in Canada.

For sprains, strains, bruises, "black and blue" spots, Sloan's Liniment reduces the pain and eases the soreness. Certainly fine for rheumatism, stiff neck, sciatica, lacer back, toothache. You don't need to rub—it penetrates. Its use is so universal that you'll consider Sloan's Liniment a friend in the whole family. Generous—the bottles at druggists everywhere.

some yarn. It was voted and unanimously carried that the balance be placed toward a memorial window in Belfast Church, in memory of the boys from the Belfast district who have given their lives for their country. As all the work is not yet in a full report will be published later.

M. S. MOORE, Secretary Treas.

MOUNT ALLISON WINS DEBATE AND BASKET BALL

Last night was a night of victory for Mount Allison. While the University of New Brunswick and Mount Allison were debating at Fredericton, Dalhousie and Mount Allison were playing Basket Ball in the gymnasium at the University here.

The Basket Ball match was the final game in the intercollegiate series and resulted in a win for Mount Allison by a score of 26 to 18. The names of the players are as follows:

Table comparing players from Dalhousie and Mount Allison, listing names and positions.

The teams were pretty evenly matched and the game was fast and well played and in the spirit of good sportsmanship. At the end of the period the score was 8 to 8, but in the second period Mount Allison, by superior playing and the very accurate throwing of Capt. Clark, succeeded in outdistancing her rival. Only three teams are in the Basket Ball League, namely Dalhousie, Mount Allison and the University of New Brunswick. Since both Mount Allison and Dalhousie have already defeated the University of New Brunswick, last night's win over Dalhousie leaves Mount Al-
