LOUIS N. FULLER

Among the successful investment brokers of Nova Scotia, is Louis N. Fuller, who has made a specialty of financing local industries. He has financed concerns that are in the front rank of New Glasgow manufacturing industries such as "The Brown Machine Co. Ltd.," and the "Fraser Machine & Motor Co. Ltd."

Another of his recent ventures, which has been very successful is the Logan Tanneries, Ltd., of Pictou, N. S., which is enjoying the best year in its history. Mr. Fuller is a great believer in the future of New Glasgow and Pictou County, and of the industrial awakening in the Maritime Provinces, he says that in the next ten years will witness more industrial development than the preceding twenty-five years.

The policy of Mr. Fuller is to make money for his clients by giving them a profit on any security he may sell them. We heartily commend the general sentiment of the community in wishing Mr. Fuller continued success.

A High Grade Public Utility Bond

Yielding 6 p.c.

The issuing Company's business is located in Great Britain's second largest and most prosperous West India Island.

The Company's service are indispensable to modern every-day life. Owing to the nature of its business, the Company's earnings are not affected by depression in trade, and do not show wide fluctuations.

The Company's net earnings are nearly equal to twice the amount necessary to pay the interest on the bonds outstanding.

The Company's assets are valued at more than twice the amount of bonds outstanding.

The management is thoroughly experienced, competent and careful. The Bonds we have in mind are the 6 per cent. Bonds of the Trinidad Consolidated Telephones.

The cost of operating and maintaining a telephone business in Trinidad is materially less than in northern countries, where such companies suffer severely from heat and other climatic conditions.

We offer a block of these Bonds in denominations of $100 and $500 at 100 and accrued interest, yielding a full 6 per cent. on the money invested. The interest coupons will be cashed at par on any of our offices.

DECEMBER CANADA MONTHLY

The name of Mackenzie is written broad across the maps of Western Canada, and it is rather surprising to find that the last days of Donald Mackenzie, the explorer, were spent in an unpretentious New York village. But there is where Ernest Cawcroft found his sons and grandsons, and the story of the family is written by him in December Canada Monthly, accompanied by some remarkable photographs. James I. Larkin writes in the same number about the recent experiments of the government in coast-production. Frank R. Adams, co-author of "The Time, The Place and The Girl," etc., has a snappy story of "The Firing of Bo" from a theatrical real-company playing the number two towns. Elliot Flower writes breezily of "Katy of Calgary"; F. M. Clark discusses the growth of art in Canada; Frank Lee Benedict tells the story of a girl with a long nose and two pretty sisters under the title of "No More of Me You Know"; "Just Smith," the Mounted Police serial, is continued, as is "Kit's" Podler's Pack and "In the Heart of Old Mexico". There is also fiction and verse by Thomas A. Daly, Mary Wiselwright, Hubert McBean Johnston, Kathleen K. Bowker, Louise Upham Brooks, Wilbur D. Nesbit, and others. The cover design, appropriate to Christmas, is by F. D. Schwalm, and many illustrations lighten the number.

WHY THE KISS WAS MISSING

It had been their first separation, and during the week the young husband had sent his wife ten letters, fifteen picture postcards and four telegrams.

Why, then, this touch of coldness in her welcome on his return?

Dearest, he whispered, what is wrong?

Oh, George, she replied in broken tones, you didn't send me a kiss in your seventh letter.

George thought like lightning for a moment before he replied:

I didn't, pety, but I had steak and onions that night for supper, and you wouldn't like me to kiss you after eating onions, would you?

SHEAR NONSENSE.

HAD A DREADFUL COUGH FOR OVER SIX MONTHS. Thought It Would Turn Into Consumption.

Miss Jane Doussette, Point a la Garde, Que., writes:—"Just a few lines of praise I must write on account of your famous remedy, Dr. Wood's Norway Pine Syrup. I had been suffering from a dreadful cough, for over six months, and tried everything but in vain. I thought it was going to turn into consumption. A friend happened to come to my house, and was so frightened when he saw me he nearly dropped. He asked me what I was taking, so I showed him some medicines I had, but he said for me to try Dr. Wood's Norway Pine Syrup. I bought a bottle and before it was finished I was well, and did not cough a bit. I will recommend your medicine to every suffering friend, for I know it will do good to them just the same as it did me."

See that you get "Dr. Wood's" when you ask for it. Do not accept any imitation. Price, 25 and 50 cents. Manufactured only by The T. Millburn Co. Limited, Toronto, Ont.

QUEBEC GIVEN NAMES

The need of the proposed guild of god-parents to save innocent children from the burden of grotesque names is revealed by the registers at Somerset House. Hundreds of examples of this poor form of parental wit occur in the entries for the past few years. Noah's Ark Smith, Sardine Box, Jolly Death, Judas Iscariot Brown, One-to-Many Johnson, Not-Wanted Smith, Bovril Simpson, Merry Christmas Figgett, Odious Heaton, Anno Domini Davis are the names of children probably living who will have to bear them through life, unless they wash themselves clean with subterfuge. How can such children observe the Fifth Commandment?—London Chronicle.
