Wrestling card Sporting Club Tonight

Brilliant, hard-hitting and cagey Red Mephisto, world known wrestler makes his appearance at the Sporting Club tonight pitted against Tuffy Cleet in one of the main events of the wrestling card being staged there while in the other main event popular Len Hughes better known as 'Cowboy" stacks up against Buddy Knox, two bouts that should satisfy every moment that the grapplers are in action.

Last Thursday night a big crowd of fans went away completely satisfied that they had witnessed a great show so after tonight's encounters they should be more than satisfied. The appearance of Mephisto alone, given world rating, stamps the show as a real one and then add to this the fact that in Tuffy Cleet he will be facing a real grappler stamps it as even greater. Of course these two won't hold all the spotlight. In Knox and Hughes are two more grunt and groan artists who know all the answers. Each can turn on the heat plenty hot and each can go outside the rules if the occasion arises. Usually in wrestling matches those taking part do forget mere rules on occasions and tonight's show shouldn't or will not be any exception.

So sport fans if you crave action and thrills and an exhibition of wrestling by some of the world's best be sure and attend the Sporting Club tonight. The prices are as low as they can possibly go and you will be well paid for the small admission price that is to be charged.

Chiefs snap Hurler's streak

ROCHESTER, N.Y., Aug. 6—(AP)—Syracuse Chiefs today snapped at three games the successive victory string of lefty Ed Wissman, Red Wing hurler, as they combed him for 11 hits and a 6-3 verdict.

Syracuse had the benefit of glittering relief pitching by Lynn Nelson who gave the Wings only three hits in the last 6 2-3 innings after replacing Ken Burkhart.

Yankees split Doubleheader With Red Sox

BOSTON, Aug. 6—(AP)—New York Yankees, apparently coasting along on their previously acquired momentum, divided an American League doubleheader today with the third-place Boston Red Sox.

The Red Sox slugged Spud Chandler out of action with a four-run fourth-inning rally in the first game and went on to win 6-3, but the Yanks captured the nightcap 3-1 on Marvin Breuer's five-hit hurling.

The Yankees were held to six hits in the first game by Tex Hughson and Mike Ryba and two of their runs came on homers by Joe Gordon in the second and Joe DiMaggio in the eighth.

At Cleveland, the Tigers were at bat 17 times against three Cleveland pitchers in the third inning, and their 11 runs comprised the biggest half-inning of the major league baseball season. The final score was 11-2.

Every Detroit batter except Rudy York was at the plate twice, as six hits, two errors and seven passes ran up a total equalling the American League record set by the Red Sox in 1928 and equalled by the Athletics in 1933.

At St. Louis, Chicago White Sox split a doubleheader with Browns winning the second game 5-2 after losing the first 9-6.

Dodgers climb Into league lead

NEW YORK, Aug. 6—(AP)—The rampaging Brooklyn Dodgers put on a two-run rally in the ninth inning tonight to beat down New York Giants 3-1 before 52,791. Kirby Higbe pitched four-hit ball and the victory, Dodgers' sixth straight, shoved them into first place in the National League by three percentage points over St. Louis Cardinals

Reds snap to life To beat Cards 5-1

CINCINNATI, Aug. 6—(AP)—Cincinnati Reds came to life today and or St. Louis Cardinals fell to pieces as the world champions tacked together a 5-1 National League victory behind the eight-hit, seven-walk, nine-strikeout hurling of Johnny Vander Meer.

The main blow of the game was a phenomenon for the Red fans, a home run by Mike McCormick who has hit all three of the Red homers since June 21, when Bucky Walters got one. Two men were on base today, and with Vandy striking out the Cards about every time they got a man on third, the game was safe in the third inning.

At Chicago, Pittsburgh Pirates won their fifth straight and their 17th in 20 games when they romped off with an easy 13-3 triumph over the Cubs.

The Bucs pounded three Cub pitchers for a total of 13 hits, including Truett Sewell's first homer of the season, while the Cubs made nine hits off Sewell. It was Sewell's 11th victory of the season, including five over the Cubs.

The Pirates scored three runs off Tot Pressnell in the first two innings and then pounded Bill Lee for seven more runs before they knocked him out in the sixth. Vance Page finished up for the Cubs.

Bill Miller In hospital

CAMPBELLTON, N.B., Aug. 6—(CP)—William (Bill) Miller, hockey star who is seriously ill in the Soldiers Memorial Hospital here, is reported to be much improved tonight. After being confined to his home for two weeks by a severe attack of rheumatism, Miller became seriously ill and was removed to the hospital.

Miller won an enviable reputation as a member of the Montreal Maroons and Canadiens teams. Previous to turning professional he had been a star defenceman with the champion Moncton Hawks, who twice captured the Allen Cup, symbol of amateur supremacy.

Favorites Advance

RYE, N.Y., Aug. 6—(AP)—Two surprises were recorded today as most of the favorites paraded into the quarter finals of the Eastern United States Grass Court Tennis Championships.

Gardnar Mulloy of Coral Gables, Fla., ranked seventh nationally and seeded eighth in this tournament, bowed out before William Talbert of Cincinnati and Jack Kramer of Los Angeles, the country's sixth-ranking player, was eliminated by Bryan (Bitsy) Grant of Atlanta, Ga.

Otherwise the favored stars came through handily against fairly strong opposition. Bobby Riggs, Don McNeill, newlywed Frank Kovacs, who today announced his marriage to Virginia Wolfenden, ranking woman star; Wayne Sabin, Frank Parker and Ted Schroeder completed the round of eight in the men's singles.

In the women's division the only surprise came when Patricia Canning of Hidden Valley, Calif., eliminated another young California star Louise Brough, who recently upset Mrs. Sarah Palfrey Cooke. Joining her in the quarter finals were top-seeded Pauline Betz, Mrs. Cooke, Mrs. Kovacs, who made tennis history by changing her name on the drawsheet right in the middle of a tournament; Mary Arnold, Margaret Osborne, Dorothy Bundy and Hope Knowles.

Snead shoots Two steady Practice rounds

TORONTO, Aug. 6—(CP)—Samuel Jackson Snead of Shawnee-On-Delaware, Pa., demonstrated today that he is quite ready to defend his Canadian Open Golf Championship over surburban Lambton Golf and Country Club.

Samuel shot two steady practice rounds and as the day wore on his putting touch was surer than it has been in many weeks.

However, he also demonstrated that his task in the Canadian Open might be easier if he elected to play in his bare feet. He made his best shot of the entire day during an amiable interlude in which he was temporarily deprived of his shoes.

Snead's stout brogans gave him a little trouble this afternoon so he doffed them to his caddy with orders to perform a small repair job. Meanwhile Samuel stood in his bare feet while he watched Horton Smith and Tom Draper, a St. Louis amateur, drive from the first tee.
