

OUR BUDGET FOR OUR SAILORS BARBERS

MONDAY

A meeting of citizens of the town of Kensington was held in the Council Chamber on Thursday, January 15th when the Mayor and Council submitted accounts for the year ending 31st, December, 1941.

Mr. Gordon Sutherland Bowness, wireless operator, came from New York to spend Christmas holidays with his wife (Mrs. Nancy Campbell) and his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Byron Bowness. His many friends here were glad to see him looking so well, but regretted that his stay was so short. On his return he was accompanied by his wife as far as Moncton, then to Halifax. She returned to Charlottetown Saturday.

ISLANDER BEREAVED - There passed peacefully away in the Borden Hospital on Dec. 29th, the late Mr. R. Smith, after a brief illness of heart trouble. Mr. Smith formerly came from New York and was highly respected and liked by all who knew him. He was in usual good health and never complained so his passing came as a shock to his widow, who was formerly Miss Ella Caldwell of Tryon, Prince Edward Island.

It will be with deep regret that many friends will mourn the death of Mrs. G. L. Murphy on Friday morning, the 18th inst. at the Halifax Infirmary. Mrs. Murphy was born at Norboro, Prince Edward Island, on October 20, 1875, married in 1900 and settled in Sydney, N.S., where she resided until 1929. While in Sydney she was very active in church work and was a member of the A. O. H. and Catholic Women's Club. She has resided in Halifax since 1930.

HUGHES-MCLEOD - On Monday morning January 12, a pretty wedding was celebrated in St. Patrick's Church, Montreal, when the Reverend Father Ryan united in marriage Miss Evelyn Hughes and Harold McLeod, both formerly of Drumore, Prince Edward Island. The bride wore a street length dress of blue transparent velvet with matching accessories. The groom was supported by Mr. Edward MacKenzie. Both attendants are also former Islanders. After the wedding the bridal party partook of a sumptuous breakfast, served in the banquet hall of the Berkeley Hotel and then proceeded to the Ottawa and points in the province of Quebec. Their many friends unite in wishing them many years of happiness.

LAD TO REST - The funeral of the late John Patrick Oatway was held from his late residence 69 Dorchester Street, Charlottetown, on Tuesday, January 13th, at 10 o'clock, at St. Dunstan's Basilica where Requiem High Mass was sung by Rev. Louis A. Dougan who also conducted services at the grave. Assisting in the Sanctuary were: Rev. John Sullivan, George McDonald, Richard Ellsworth, D.D., Emmet O'Hanley, Frank McQuaid of St. Dunstan's University and Rev. G. MacKenna, C.S.S.R. of Holy Redeemer Parish, also the altar boys of the parish. The casket was borne in the Sanctuary. The students of St. Dunstan's University attended in a body. The pallbearers were: Messrs. Emmett Roach, Phillip Spross, Aeneas McEneaney, Henry Murtagh, John Butler and Anthony McInnis. Interment R. C. Cemetery.

RECEIVES SAD NEWS - Mr. E. H. Beer received word yesterday of the passing away Sunday morning of a younger brother at Vancouver, B.C. The deceased Mr. Arthur L. Beer was born in Charlottetown, February 15, 1871, where he was educated. He came to Ontario in 1891 and was in business at Montague, where he married Miss Nettie Van Iderstine who with two daughters survive him. Later Mr. Beer removed to Charlottetown and for many years represented The Pure Food Manufacturing Co. he then removed to Oakland, Cal., and later to Vancouver where he carried on business. He enlisted and went overseas in the last war. The late Mr. Beer was one of the children of the family of the late George Robert Beer and Leonora Ann Weatherbee of which family Mr. A. H. Beer is the only surviving member.

SKI TRAIN YESTERDAY - A ski party carrying about 250 ski enthusiasts left the city at 10 o'clock yesterday morning for the hills of Hunter River. This special train was chartered by members of the Royal Air Force and the major and his wife, accompanied by their men and their girl friends although there was a sprinkling of other citizens making the trip. The ski party did not return to Charlottetown until about 6 o'clock last evening.

ENJOYING VISIT - Mrs. W. E. Leonard of Delta, Ohio, is visiting her mother, Mrs. W. C. Wood and family of Gowanda, N. Y. Mrs. Wood and Mrs. Leonard were born on P. E. I. and resided there a good many years. They were in Buffalo for a few days shopping, accompanied by Mrs. Wood's granddaughter Ethel Earle, who was taking exams and expects to enter a hospital this fall for training as a nurse. The day was one of the finest in the winter of New York for some years, a real blizzard with roads so blocked for miles it was hard for cars, busses, or trucks to get along. The trip from Gowanda to Buffalo takes an hour but this time it took four. It reminded these ladies of the storms on good old P. E. I. and they enjoyed it. They returned to Gowanda by train. Mrs. Leonard visited her niece and family Mr. and Mrs. Earl and had a 6 o'clock dinner with them. She attended church with her sister and had the pleasure of hearing a man from England preach. On Tuesday the sisters had afternoon tea with Mrs. Gardiner and her lovely children. Mrs. Leonard also visited different places of interest. Mrs. Leonard left Wednesday the 14th for Hiram, Ohio, to spend a few days with her daughter and husband, Mr. and Mrs. G. G. Spencer. She expects to return home to Delta, Ohio, this week where Mr. and Mrs. Leonard own a large fox ranch. (Other Papers Please Copy.)

In the morning the Minister, Rev. E. H. Russell Somers, M.A., S.T.M., preached on the words of our Lord "He that is faithful in that which is least is faithful also in much; and he that is unjust in the least is unjust also in much." (St. Luke 16:10) and in the evening the words of Jeremiah "Wilt Thou be unto me as waters that fail." (Jer. 17:18). Announcement was made that the annual congregation meeting would be held in the (Monday) evening at 7 p.m. instead of 7:30 because of the blackout.

ISLAND BEEF - Prince Edward Island beef cattle will be placed on a par with western beef in the local Airport markets, was the assurance given to Hon. Horace Wright in Ottawa recently by Col. the Hon. J. L. Ralston. However, the Island beef must come up to the specified requirements before it will be purchased on a par with the other. Hon. Mr. Wright returned from Ottawa Saturday night where he had been attending a Labour Conference. He immediately contacted Mr. T. J. Inman, secretary of the Provincial Marketing Board, Bedouque, and conveyed the above information. The Board prepared a brief asking that Island farm produce be purchased for the Airport and this was delivered to Col. Ralston by Hon. Mr. Wright.

A miscellaneous shower was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Arsenault in honor of Miss Gladys Pollard, who is to become one of the month's brides. The room was nicely decorated in yellow and white streamers and all had gathered. Miss Pollard was seated in the seat of honor, which like the room was also decorated and situated under a large bell. The gifts were presented by Mrs. Edward Arsenault, while Mrs. Preston Wadman read the accompanying good wishes and the guests expressed their appreciation by thanking one and all for their gifts and good wishes and extended an invitation to visit her in her future home after which all joined in singing "The Shee's A Good Fellow." Lunch was served by some of the ladies present and the remainder of the evening was spent in dancing, the music was supplied by the band of the Rev. Mr. John Ingles and William Durant with guitars and Mrs. Fred Arsenault and Mr. Ernest Pollard with mouth organs.

ANNUAL MEETING OF TRINITY CHURCH - The annual meeting of Trinity United Church was held on Thursday evening with a very large attendance. Rev. K.G. Sullivan very capably presided and Mr. G. Phillips secretary read the minutes of the previous annual meeting. The reports of the different organizations of the church showed a considerable increase in every branch of the churches' work. There was a large increase in membership. Mr. J. P. Stewart, chairman of the Board of Stewards, delivered a very fine address on the activities of the church during the past year. Election to the Board of Stewards were: Messrs. R.H. Ink, Bradford Cairns, Albert Linkletter, Harold Nicholson, George Muttart, Mrs. Victor Travers and Fred Walton. At the close of the meeting Mr. G. Phillips moved a hearty vote of thanks to the Board of Stewards for their untiring work for the welfare of the church and the various organizations to the janitor, Mr. Albert Gay for their part in the work of the church. The annual meeting of St. James Presbyterian Church was held last evening with a large and representative attendance. The devotional exercises were conducted by Hon. Fr. Rev. T. R. Bussell Somers, who read from the difference with the appointment of Mr. W. Hyndman as chairman and Mr. N. D. Maclean as secretary.

The sessional report, read by Dr. Moore, paid tribute to Rev. Dr. Somers for his faithful and successful pastoral work under most trying circumstances, and referred to the loss he and the congregation had sustained in the death of Mrs. Leggett.

Reference was also made to the part St. James congregation is contributing to the King's Forces, 61 members being in the various branches of the army. Excellent reports were read from the different societies, Sunday School, Young Men's Class, Choir, Mission Band, Goodwill Group, Boy Scouts, Sea Rovers, Woman's Missionary Society and Ladies Auxiliary, all showing favorable balances in their financial and general work. Fr. Monaghan's report, read by Dr. Heath McIntyre, was entirely satisfactory and showed the church to be in a firm financial position. The four retiring trustees, Mr. Louis Sadler, Dr. Heath McIntyre, Mr. Alan MacLean and Mr. Arthur Bruce were unanimously re-elected. A very cordial welcome was extended to Mr. Somers, who was attending his first annual meeting as pastor of St. James Church. Hearty votes of thanks were tendered to all the active workers. A resolution was passed expressing to Mrs. J. A. Lawson the keen appreciation of the congregation for the fine work done by her as choir leader and president of the Ladies' Auxiliary before her retirement, and to the late organist, Mrs. K. S. Rogers for faithful service. A welcome was also given to the new organist and choir director, Miss Lillian MacKenzie, Mus. Bac. After a full discussion on the financial report of the trustees Mr. Somers closed the meeting with the benediction.

At the meeting of the Kinsmen Club last evening, Mr. J. P. Gordon, Regional Director of Licensing, was the speaker. Mr. Gordon gave a very complete discussion of the efforts which are being made to control prices. Such control must be made in order to prevent the inflation and its inevitable disaster which in the past has followed great war. The merchants were co-operating in a very fine manner, Mr. Gordon stated. It was decided to hold the next New Dece dance on the anniversary of the Club, Feb. 20th. Andy Andrews, Charles McGregor, Arthur Arsenault, Reginald McLeod, were put through the sacred rituals of initiation.

A pretty wedding took place at Trinity United Church, Charlottetown, on Wednesday afternoon, January 14th, when Matilda Jean, only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Muttart of Charlottetown, was united in marriage to Lieut. William Brenton Stewart of St. John's, Nfld. in 1917. The ceremony was performed by Rev. D. Hugh Millar. The winsome bride looked very charming in a white gown with black accessories. She was attended by Lydia Stewart who wore a brown dress with matching accessories.

According to reports heard here McIntyre was seriously injured in an accident.

GAUDET-JENKINS - A wedding of interest to the younger set was quietly solemnized at 5 o'clock on Tuesday morning at St. Dunstan's Basilica when Gilbert Gaudet, eldest son of Mrs. Elizabeth Gaudet and the late Gilbert Gaudet K.C. was united in the holy bonds of matrimony to Sadie Marguerite Jenkins, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Hedley Jenkins of Mr. Albion. The Nuptial Mass was celebrated by Rev. Eric Robin, a classmate of the groom. The charming bride was becomingly attired in a street length dress of heavenly blue crepe with which she wore a large black velvet halo hat and black accessories and carried a corsage of American Beauty roses. Her bridesmaid was Miss Eleanor Gaudet, a sister of the groom who chose a dress of dusky rose wool crepe with large black picture hat and black accessories and carried a corsage of Tallman roses. Mr. Aloysius Gaudet acted as groomsmen. During the Nuptial Mass appropriate hymns were rendered by Mr. W. J. Brown and Miss Bernadette Gaudet. Following the ceremony a wedding breakfast for the immediate family was held at the residence of the groom's mother, Mrs. Gilbert Gaudet, Rochford Square, Mr. and Mrs. Gaudet left for Quebec and Montreal on their honeymoon. Many beautiful gifts were received by the popular young couple. The out of town guests included: Mrs. Hedley Jenkins, Mrs. Albion and Mrs. V.P. Doucet of Moncton, N.B.
