ROYAL YEAST IS BEST YEAST IN THE WORLD

WIT AND HUMOR

TODAY'S GREAT THOUGHT.

Many a true word is spoken behind our backs.

BULL'S EYES.

A woman judge has been appointed in California.

The "query" feather is the hat trimming of the moment.

Many schoolboys, as the result of medical examination, were found to be overclad.

Blind girls are the best telephone girls, it is stated.

"The journalist goes everywhere at the word of his editor," says the Athenaeum.

There is a place of worship for every 722 people in England.

CONSOLING.

The following dialogue was overheard on one of our local boat ferries:

Old Lady (with fear): "Are there ever any persons lost in the river, boatman?"

Ferryman: "Bless you, no; we always find 'em again the next day!"

DOUBTFUL.

"Rev. M. S. Richardson, pastor of First Baptist church and Mrs. Richardson," says an exchange, "are back from a month of real pleasant restful vacation."

This seems hardly complimentary to Mr. Richardson's congregation.

AN INFALLIBLE TEST.

"How do you know that your daughter's music is improving?" asked a resident of Grafton street of a neighbour, the other day.

"The neighbors are getting more friendly," was the truthful if unexpected reply.

JUST SO.

Magistrate (to burglar): "What is your trade?" The Handy One: "Locksmith, yer worship."

Magistrate: "What were you doing when the police entered?" The Handy One: "Making a bolt for the door."

A MATTER OF DETAIL.

We read in a Nova Scotia paper "The many friends of Judge Landry in this city will be pleased to learn that he has about fully recovered from his illness and is sufficiently strong to sit up daily."

The writer might properly have gone on and told his readers when the judge would be able to put on his boots and wash his face!

HARD TO FIND.

This story has no local bearing:—Mrs. Wilson was known to her boarders as being rather "near" in the portions of food that she doled out to the boarders at her table.

At one dinner wishing to be polite to a new boarder, she asked: "Mr. Finlay, how did you find the steak this evening?" "By turning my potato over," replied the boarder.

CAUGHT.

The telephone has its great advantages but it also has its drawbacks, as a certain young man in this city knows to his cost.

—CHARGED WITH STEALING.—Robert Gallant of Tignish was arrested on Monday by Constable Smith and brought to Summerside yesterday morning on a charge of stealing liquor by violence. It appears that some weeks ago the prisoner entered a drug store at Tignish and demanded of the clerk a quantity of liquor which was refused. After making several threats he brushed the clerk aside and proceeded to help himself, which action on his part was highly resented by the clerk, who immediately had a warrant issued for Gallant's arrest, but owing to the latter being away fishing it was only executed on Monday last. The prisoner was taken before stipendiary Wright, who remanded him to jail until Monday next.—J.

The large number of beautiful presents show the esteem in which the happy couple were held by their many friends. The groom's present to the bride was a gold watch and fob.
