COMMISSIONER

Through the effort of our zealous Browns Commissioner, Mrs. Fred Pickard, Browns enrollment has increased and a new Browns Leader's Club has been instituted. We hope this group will prove as successful as the Guides' Club of Charlottetown and Summerside.

This year our newly formed Award's Committee, (Mrs. William Rowe, Mrs. Frank Murray, Mrs. H.L. Bunker) fulfilled their purpose when they presented one half of the Dominion, long service ribbons to the following: Miss Carrie Holman, Miss Gladys Hart, Miss Thelma Arsenault, Miss Lillian Duchemin and Mrs. Harry Gudmors.

Medals of Merit were awarded to: Mrs. Louis Sadler, Miss Carrie Holman, Mrs. Harry Gudmors, Miss Jessie Fullerton and Mrs. K.M. Martin.

The efforts of a Book Committee headed by Miss Fullerton resulted in a Guide bookcase being placed in the Public Library in Charlottetown, which we hope will be widely used by our Guides. The bookcase was generously donated by Mrs. Gavin Duffy, the books given on loan by the Prince Edward Island Libraries.

A Provincial song sheet, compiled by Miss Jean Pancher, has had a wide usage at Guide functions.

Coordinating the work of our different departments, regular monthly executive meetings were held this year at the various members' homes. We are grateful to these hostesses and to our faithful Telephone Committee: (Mrs. Frank Murray, Mrs. William Massey, Mrs. Harry Davidson and Mrs. Parvill MacMahon) who assured a good attendance at our Executive meetings.

This year, as well, we inaugurated the Provincial Festival, a regular monthly meeting which we hope will develop a better continuity in Provincial Guiding.

This year, we were happy to welcome to the Island, Captain Macdocks, Dominion G.G. representative of the Salvation Army.

A registration fee of twenty-five cents per Guide was collected this year, towards paying our quota of Dominion expenses.

The first Cadet Corps in this Province was registered this year, under the leadership of Captain Gudmors. The energy of this captain and her cadets, has been a strong factor towards promoting Guiding in the Island.

In June, we held our first Provincial Guide Day with Guides and Browns much at the fore. They played their part well, but Guiding Day was not as good a financial prospect as we had hoped.

One of the most satisfactory Guide projects of the year was the six week course of instruction given on the household arts (Little House Emblem) by Summerside and Charlottetown.

The Local Association of Summerside and Charlottetown are again to be commended for their fine and useful work. To the instructors and examiners, we owe grateful thanks.
