DUNDAS NOTES.—Owing to the numerous arrivals from the United States our population has much increased during the past few weeks. The vacant places in the family circle and the vacant pew in the church are now well filled by those friends of yore. And still they come to seek a respite from their toil, and always to receive a hearty welcome from the "old folks at home." Haying has now become general, the crop is excellent, but the weather poor for making.—Mr. W. E. Leard and some friends from the western part of the island, recently enjoyed a fishing excursion to the famous fishing ground known as Morson's pond.—The Dundas Dairying Company made their first shipment of cheese a few days ago at 7 1/2 cents, delivered at Souris. They intend soon to hold a teaparty. A good time is expected.—We understand the money order system has been extended to the Bridgetown Post Office. This will supply a long felt need.

E. I. on Tuesday and Saturday reach Boston the following day at one p. m. The fares are away down and the run being less than thirty hours, part rail and part water, makes the trip a delightful one. All desired information can be obtained from your nearest ticket agent or from Mr. C. E. Laechler, agent St. John, N. B.
