

The Best Gift For A Soldier—

WALTHAM Military Wrist Watch

Very often during an advance, a soldier must leave many of his most treasured gifts behind. But his Waltham Military Wrist Watch is always with him through thick and thin. Designed especially to withstand the shocks and strains of active service, it will keep time accurately always, and prove a constant source of usefulness to its wearer. If desired, it is equipped with a luminous dial that can be read easily on the darkest night. Ask your jeweller to show you his Waltham Military Wrist Watches, from $10.00 up.

The Stranger in Your Cup

Those stalks you see in your tea cup have no business there at all. They contain absolutely no tea essence; they are like stones in fruit, adding to the weight and price, but you cannot digest them.

The best Tea is

Rakwana Tea

because it is made from carefully selected leaves from which the stalks have been extracted.

That is why it is so richly flavoured so healthful and more economical than most Teas.

It is all Tea, the good part of the Tea leaf without the bad waste-ful parts.

ENTERPRISING CONSTABLE

"You're under arrest," exclaimed the officer with chin whiskers, as he stopped the automobile. "What for?" inquired Mr. Caughey. "I haven't made up my mind yet. I'll just look over your lights, and your license, and your numbers, and so forth. I know I can get you for something."—Washington Star.

FURNISHING A SUBSTITUTE

Bessie had a new dime to invest in ice-cream soda. "Why don't you give your dime to missions?" said the minister who was calling. "I thought about that," said Bessie, "but I think I'll buy the ice-cream and let the druggist give it to the missions."—Christian Herald.

MISPLACED SYMPATHY

A Jersey man of a benevolent turn of mind encountered a small boy in his neighborhood who gave evidence of having emerged but lately from a severe battle.

"I am sorry," said the man, "to see that you have a black eye, Sammy." Whereupon Sammy retorted: "You go home and be sorry for your own little boy—he's got two!"—Everybody's Magazine.

IN NO HURRY TO FLY

"John, you ought to get in the aviation service," a York man told a negro last week. "You are a good mechanic and would come in handy in an aeroplane. How would you like to fly among the clouds a mile high and drop a few bombs down on the Germans?"

"I ain't in no special hurry to fly, Cap," the negro answered. "When we use up 'bout a mile high s'pose the engine stop and de white man told me to get out an' crank it!"—Work News.

—A MESSAGES FROM FRANCE.—On Sunday afternoon an important conference was given to a large meeting of the parish that had gathered at S. Phillip's Hall. The speaker was a woman from France and her subject was an interesting one viz. The horrors of War. Having being a prisoner under the Germans for twenty-eight months, after they took the town Peronne where she lived, she is in a position to relate some incidents that are pathetic. The news of the capture of the town by the Germans came at too short a notice and most of the inhabitants had not time to escape. She was among the number who remained and was employed as a nurse under the Germans, being compelled to tend soldiers whom she knew were guilty of the most terrible cruelties. She was a witness to the real warfare as the struggle for the recapture of the town lasted several days. A continual fear was felt as the bullets from the contending forces were flying overhead in one instance she, with her mother and four children sought shelter in a dugout and there passed three days and three nights without anything to eat. The town was recaptured by the Canadians of 22nd Battalion and it was won in so short time that the Germans had not time to take any of their captives with them. Such real descriptions of experiences of war were eagerly listened to and will tend to urge more and more to contribute to the various funds for patriotic purposes. A collection was taken up at the meeting, the proceeds going to the Red Cross Society in France for the relief and comfort of the wounded soldiers.—M.

IN MEMORIAM

MISS EDITH R. SANDERS.

The settlement of Belle River was very much surprised to hear of the death of Edith R. Sanders. She was in school on Friday in her usual good health. On Sabbath she felt unwell but nothing serious was anticipated until Monday morning when a doctor was called in and pronounced it as a serious case of Peritonitis and on the same evening about eighth o'clock her gentle spirit returned to God who gave it. Edith was a very bright intelligent girl or nearly ten years and her presence not only in the home but in the community will be very much missed, as she was a general favorite. Much sympathy is felt for the parents as was clearly shown by the very large attendance at the funeral services which were conducted by the Rev. Daniel MacLean. The little casket was borne by Messrs. Alexander MacMillan, Alex. Mathieson, Elmer Stewart and Wm. Stewart and laid to rest in Belle River Cemetery to await the resurrection morn. Six little sisters remain in the family. Other papers please copy.

THE LATE MRS JAMES V. McDONALD.

Died at Lincoln, Mass at the home of her daughter Mrs. J. B. Lannon Mrs. James V. McDonald in the seventy-fifth year of her age. The late Mrs. McDonald went to Lincoln about fourteen months ago to have her eyes treated. She underwent a successful operation, but later succumbed to central pneumonia. Her remains accompanied by her daughter, Mrs. Lannon were taken to her home in Little Pond where her son Alex. A. resides. On Nov. 3rd her remains were followed by a large concourse of people to St. Frances De Sales Church, where a requiem High Mass was sung by her Pastor, Rev. E. Walker, after which her remains were laid to rest beside those of her husband, who predeceased her twenty years ago. She leaves to mourn, three sons and three daughters: Mrs. Patsy and Mrs. J.B. Lannon, Lincoln

Mass. Mrs. N. Campbell, Eureka, Cal. James, Lincoln, Mass; Chas. and Alex. A. Little Pond. Her pall bearers were Michael Walsh, Joseph Chaffey, Angus Walker, James Mills, William Jenkins and James A. E. McDonald. May her soul rest in peace.

OSCAR BRENNAN

The pall of death spread a gloom over the inhabitants of Mill Valley, when one of its most respected residents, Mr. Oscar Brennan, passed peacefully to rest at the early age of 34 years. He had for some time past been a great sufferer and although apparently recovering the shadows of the end were gathering and in spite of kind friends and medical aid he succumbed to its effects on the morning of the 20th inst. There were few in this part of the country better known or more loved than Mr. Brennan. He was ready at all times to say a word of comfort to the bereaved or sorrowful and lend a helping hand to those who were in need. Happy in disposition, refined in manner and tender in heart he endeared himself to all who had the pleasure of his acquaintance. To say that he had no enemy would be a doubtful compliment indicating unfaithfulness to his Master, but it may be safely said that he never gave any just cause for enmity. He leaves to mourn their loss a sorrowing widow, five step-children, father, mother, three sisters and four brothers namely: Mrs. De-nard McKinnon, Spring Valley; the Misses Elizabeth and Edna, William Michael and Martin at home, and John R. of Boston Mass. They mourn the loss of a kind and loving husband and brother. The funeral which took place on Sunday the 21st inst was largely attended, which testified to the respect in which the deceased was held. The Mass of Requiem was sung by his many neighbors and friends, as well as were Messrs Andrew Murphy, William Connick, Hubert McBride, James in this their sad bereavement.

No Advance in 3 Years

With war-time prices so terribly high for nearly every article of food, it must be a particular satisfaction to those who love good coffee to know that there has been no advance in the price of Red Rose Coffee for three years—and the great increase in the sale of Red Rose Coffee this year shows that the price is appreciated.

People everywhere seem to be using much more coffee than they did before.

Red Rose Tea is economical on account of its superior quality—but Red Rose Coffee is economical both on account of its quality and price, a combination hard to maintain in war-time.

Columbia Grafonola and Columbia Records

The Merry Lilt of the Dance

Let it be heard often in the home. It chases gloom, it makes for joy—inspiration—courage. And of all instruments the Grafonola is the greatest exponent of dance music with its mellow purity of tone and its instant readiness to provide music that "won't let your feet keep still."

The electric Grafonola shown above requires no winding, the electric motor is part of the instrument—just attach the cord to a lamp socket. Here is the very height of convenience.

Thousands of homes will delight in a Grafonola this Christmas. Why not yours too? See your Columbia dealer—before the Christmas buying depletes the stocks.

Grafonolas are priced from $24 to $300—every instrument in tone and design is a masterly exposition of Columbia leadership. Easy terms arranged.
