

IMPORTANT READING MATTER SELECTED FROM THIS WEEK'S NEWS FOR THE GUARDIAN'S SATURDAY SUBSCRIBERS

MONDAY.

The death occurred in this city Saturday of James Weeks, a native of Tracadie, where his mother, one brother and six sisters reside. The young man left his home some two months ago for Bangor, Me., and after locating there was taken ill with pneumonia. Other complications set in, and his case becoming serious he decided to come home to spend his declining days, recovery being hopeless. He remained in this city with friends for the past few weeks until death came on Saturday. The funeral takes place this morning at 8.15 from the residence of his sister, 74 Brighton Ave., to the P. E. L. R. Station, corner of Tracadie where the remains will be interred.

The funeral of Benjamin H. Toombs was held yesterday afternoon from his late residence, St. George street, and was very largely attended by citizens of all classes who gathered to pay their last tribute of respect to the deceased. The services were conducted by the Rev. J. L. Batty, pastor of the Central Methodist Church, assisted by Rev. S. T. Teed, an old friend of the deceased. The singing was conducted under the leadership of G. H. Knight, Mus. Bac., and consisted of the following hymns: "My Faith Looks Up to Thee," "Oh, God Our Help in Ages Past," and "Lead Kindly Light." It was the wish of Mr. Toombs that the second hymn be sung at the funeral. Rev. Mr. Teed read a passage of scripture and chose the psalm, "The Lord is My Shepherd." Rev. Mr. Stafford led in prayer. In delivering a short address Rev. Batty paid a glowing tribute to the sterling qualities of the deceased, saying that during his pastoral visits to the late Mr. Toombs during the months that he was facing death, he always found him ready to enter into the unknown. He said that not once had Mr. Toombs showed any hesitancy at being called away, but was at all times cheerful, saying that he felt confident of a happier and brighter life. Several beautiful set pieces from the immediate family adorned the casket. The large cortege left the house at 2.30 o'clock and proceeded to Elmwood cemetery, where interment was made. The pallbearers were Geo. Willett, Geo. Oulton, John O'Neill, R.W. Hewson, J. D. Henderson and Edward Ground. As a tribute of respect to the deceased, an ex-Alderman, members of the City Council attended in a body—Moncton Exe. (The deceased was a native of Rustico and a brother of E. Toombs, city.)

THOUGHT IT WAS CANCER

"Fruit-a-lives" completely restored me SYDNEY MINES, N.S., Jan. 25th, 1910. "For many years, I suffered tortures from Indigestion and Dyspepsia. Two years ago, I was so bad that I vomited my food constantly. I also suffered with Constipation. I consulted physicians, as I was afraid the disease was cancer, but medicine gave only temporary relief.

I read in the 'Maritime Baptist' about 'Fruit-a-lives' and the cures this medicine was making and I decided to try it. After taking three boxes, I found a great change for the better and now I can say 'Fruit-a-lives' has entirely cured me when every other treatment failed, and I reverently say 'Thank God for 'Fruit-a-lives.'"

EDWIN ORAM, Sr. "Fruit-a-lives" sweetens the stomach, increases the actual quantity of gastric juice in the stomach and ensures complete digestion of all sensible food. WAS TERRIBLY NERVOUS.

WOULD START AT THE LEAST NOISE.

Wherever there are people who are troubled with deranged nerves they will find that Milburn's Heart and Nerve Pills will restore the equilibrium of these deranged centres, and bring back the shattered nervous system to a perfect condition.

Miss Emma Read, Laskay, Ont., writes: "I have great pleasure in writing to tell you about the great benefit I have received by using your Milburn's Heart and Nerve Pills. About a year ago I was very badly run down and could hardly do my work. I tried different medicines but none of them did me any good. I was terribly nervous, and would start at the least noise, and even start in my sleep, which made me very weak. I used two boxes of your pills and I am now well and strong again."

Milburn's Heart and Nerve Pills are 0 cents per box, or 3 boxes for $1.25, or sale at all dealers, or will be mailed direct on receipt of price by The T. Milburn Co., Limited, Toronto, Ont.

Mrs. Chriswell, not overly strong at any time because of her advanced years, lay in the bottom of the boat with seas breaking over her one after another, pelting her face and body with their icy spray.

They found a fisherman's shanty when they reached the shore and in this the men stabled supporting the stiff form of the woman. They built a meagre fire with the supplies they found at hand and hovered about it until the captain and another mustered strength enough to go to the Turnbull mill from where they telephoned to Alpena.

The captain and three seamen came to the city last night but the mate and Mrs. Chriswell were so exhausted they were kept and cared for at the mill until this morning. Mate Genow was out of his head for several hours. The two were brought to the city this noon by J. E. Denton and taken to the Globe Hotel. Mrs. McLean, wife of the captain, was on and took charge of the suffering woman immediately.

The men are still so dazed that they are unable to talk much of the experience. Capt. McLean alone is equal as a cucumber, and shakes his head deprecatingly when it is suggested to him that he has done anything out of the ordinary.

The Boyce and Young left Huron, this, last Wednesday, bound for Manette, Wis., both laden with coal.

The Young lies in 30 or 40 fathoms of water several miles from Middle Island. She was viewed by Middle Island life-savers yesterday afternoon just before she sank but was seen in such a condition that nothing could be done for her. She is regarded as a total loss. There was not cent of insurance on her, says 'apt. McLean. The Young had a net tonnage of 434. She was 165 feet long and had a beam of 30 feet.

WEDNESDAY.

The death took place at Granville in Nov. 19th of Phoebe Day, beloved wife of Malchias Wall, in the 41st year of her age. Mrs. Wall's death in this comparatively early age is as peculiarly sad, as she leaves an invalid husband and two small children, one 6 years old and the other a babe of three weeks; also three brothers—Simon, Sheep River; William, Iroquois, U. S., and George at Cape; five sisters, Mrs. S. Smith, Haw Haven; Mrs. E. Exworthy, Bonshaw; Mrs. Neil Stewart, Kensington; Mrs. Geo. Davis and Mrs. J. White, Charlottetown.

The funeral took place on Tuesday, Rev. J. B. Goss officiating at the house. The remains were conveyed to Bungray and interred in the Cemetery there beside her father and mother. To the sorrowing friends The Guardian extends sympathy.

A Frederickton, N.B., exchange says: W. E. Jardine, manager of the Bank of New Brunswick in this city, has resigned his position here to accept the management of the Bank of Vancouver, B. C., Mr. Jardine's friends in Frederickton, and here is a host of them, will deeply regret to learn of his intended departure for the West, but they will be pleased to know that the new position opens up a larger field than his present one, and carries with it great responsibilities in the banking world. Mr. Jardine has been in the service of the Bank of New Brunswick for about twelve years. He was manager at Riverside, N.B., at Summerside, P. E. I., and at other places before coming to Frederickton, and wherever his duties called him he earned the full confidence of the people with whom he came in contact. He has been a good citizen, ever interested in healthy development on broad lines, and always ready to assist in good movements. His resignation takes effect about the middle of December.

The organization meeting of the Prince Edward Island Farmers' Central Institute was held yesterday afternoon at 2 o'clock in the Market Hall. Dr. Gauthier, chairman of the provisional directors, occupied the chair. A draft of the by-laws was presented and adopted unanimously. A number of resolutions which had been submitted by the different local institutions were discussed thoroughly, some being adopted and others were referred back to the local institutes for an expression of their opinion. These will be returned for further consideration at the next annual meeting.

Inspector McElvory of the Department of Agriculture at Ottawa gave a detailed statement in regard to the canning industry in Ontario. This was given in reply to questions and touched upon the methods, the cost of equipment, and fruits and vegetables that might be utilised in this way.

Previous to the close of the session there was a lively discussion on the question of demonstration farms. There was a wide divergence of opinion whether a poor farm or a good farm should be taken for the purpose of demonstration, but all were agreed object lesson by means of demonstration farms was the quickest and best way of spreading practical information among the farmers of the Province.

At the evening session in Prince of the Grand Jury returned at five p. m., and found a true bill of indictment against James McInnis who pleaded not guilty. Also a true bill against Robert Coughlan. They found no bill against Simon Cannon.

A. C. Saunders will defend McInnis and Neil McQuarrie will defend Coughlan. A. B. Warburton will act for the Crown. The following is the remainder of the docket, James Delaney vs Jagan Archibald, McKinnon, Joshua W. Windsor vs Frederick Simmons and others, George W. Bell vs Albert Lisle, J. FREE ADVICE TO WOMEN

Women suffering from any form of illness are invited to promptly communicate with Mrs. Pinkham at Lynn, Mass. All letters are received, opened, read and answered by women. A woman can freely talk of her private illness to a woman; this has been established this confidence between Mrs. Pinkham and America which has never been broken. Never has she published a testimonial or used a letter without the written consent of the writer, and never has the Company allowed these confidential letters to get out of their possession, as the hundreds of thousands of them in their files will attest.

Out of the vast volume of experience which Mrs. Pinkham has to draw from, it is more than possible that she has gained the very knowledge needed in your case. She asks nothing in return except your good will, and her advice has helped thousands. Surely any woman, rich or poor, should be glad to take advantage of this generous offer of assistance. Address Mrs. Pinkham, care of Lydia E. Pinkham Medicine Co., Lynn, Mass.

Every woman ought to have Lydia E. Pinkham's 80-page Text Book. It is not a book for general distribution, as it is too expensive. It is free and only obtainable by mail. Write for it today.

Campbell vs Ephraim Bell. James Johnston vs John O'Ronaghan.—S.quent address outlining the purposes, objects and possibilities of the Central Institute. He said the two Gauthier presided and gave an eloquent representative meeting of farmers. Dr. Wales College Hall there was a good great questions before the Convention were education and good roads.

His Honor the Lieutenant Governor thought the farmers were particularly well qualified and gave advice on good roads and education as they are conversant with the conditions existing in connection with these matters in the country. He also dealt with the great returns obtained from small acres of land under intensive cultivation especially in the production of onions and beans.

Dr. Campbell, Rector of St. Dunstan's College gave an eloquent address on education past and present. He favored a classical education as the best foundation to build any other education upon and found the great fault of our present system was that the teachers did not encourage their pupils to read. For this reason they could not entertain themselves or get the good of life and were liable to seek for too much amusement and excitement. He would remove the languages and some other subjects from the curriculum of the schools.

Mr. Matheson, M. L. A., spoke of the tragedy of the Island Census which revealed a serious state of affairs. He could afford to lose many things but he could not afford to lose our young people. In speaking about transportation he cited the way in which the roads had been laid out in the first instance to divide townships and estates irrespectively of the hills, which made the cost of carriage so heavy to the port.
