WHO CAN BEAT THIS—Rev. M. J. MacPherson writes, that on Saturday last, he visited Mrs. Christy MacDonald, one of his parishioners of Mount Tryon. This lady, if she lives until August 31, will be 102 years of age. About two weeks ago she planted with her own hands a bush of potatoes, her annual custom. The day I called, she said her feet were slightly swollen as a result of planting on the cold ground as this has been a backward, chilly spring. She hopes to be around as usual in a couple of days. Her sight and hearing are very good and she has been very happy since she came into her home. She certainly is a remarkable lady for her age.

AN UNSOLICITED LETTER FROM JUDGE ARSENAULT ON PAULIST CHORISTERS

Charlottetown, June 11, 1923, C. J. Gallagher, Esq., Manager of Prince Edward Theatre, City.

My Dear Mr. Gallagher:

I desire to commend you for your enterprise in bringing the Paulist Choristers to this City. So far as I am aware they have not heretofore come east of Montreal. I had the pleasure of hearing this Choir twice in Toronto, and I can say that I never heard anything to compare with it, and I would willingly go a long way to hear them again. And I am therefore greatly pleased that they are coming here. The singing by this Choir is a revelation to a music lover. The boys' voices are something never to be forgotten when once heard. These boys, who range from seven years of age upwards, have been picked up here and there for the quality of their voices and are of all nationalities and choirs. They have a beautiful home on the Hudson, New York, where they are being educated from the proceeds of the concerts. Father Finn, the choir master, is a musician of exceptional ability, and the effects brought out are full of agreeable surprises. I unhesitatingly say that this is the biggest and best musical aggregation that has visited the Maritime Provinces and I feel assured that you will have a capacity house, and that no one will regret the price of admission, even if it were higher. Wishing you a well-merited success,

I remain,
Yours, very truly,
A. E. ARSENAULT

Make the Rinso liquid first

Do not put Rinso direct from the package into the tub. Mix half a package of Rinso in a little cool water until it is like cream. Then add two quarts of boiling water, and when the froth subsides, you will have a clean amber-colored liquid. Add this liquid to the wash tub, until you get the big lasting Rinso suds. Then soak the clothes clean.

Rinso is as splendid for the regular family washing as Lux is for fine fabrics.

Presentation To Miss Carruthers

During the luncheon held on the grounds of the Experimental Station on Tuesday afternoon in connection with the convention of the Women's Institutes, the following address, accompanied by a purse of gold and a beautiful bouquet of carnations was presented by the delegates to Miss Bessie Carruthers whose resignation as Supervisor of Institutes has been accepted.

Dear Miss Carruthers: We learn with regret that you have resigned from your position as Supervisor of Women's Institutes for P. E. I. During the years you have given your services to this work, you have won the love and respect of all the members. When you visited us we were always encouraged by your smiling face and kind words and your executive ability was of the best. We are glad to know that you have chosen a still higher calling, the making of a home. We also know that your work of love will not end there, but will spread through the fortunate community which you will take up your abode. On behalf of the delegates now assembled at the 13th annual convention of Women's Institutes of P. E. I., we wish you to accept this gift as a small token of our appreciation of your work. May all your joy and happiness attend you in your future life as the sincere wish of all.

LETTERS OF SYMPATHY

To Mr. Hammond Bertram and family, Fredericton.

We, the members of Refuge Division, No. 201, S.O.T., Fredericton feel we wish to express our heartfelt sympathy for you in this your time of deep sorrow and bereavement. We cannot understand why God in His love, takes so many precious, useful lives to himself but we know that he doeth all things well and that your dear one is now safe in the arms of Jesus free from all pain and suffering. Feeble are the words of consolation we are able to offer to the great burden bearer who alone can give you grace and strength. He who suffered all things for us, who knew what it was to endure pain and distress, who comforted those that mourned, who healed the broken hearted ones is still our God.

These dark clouds that pass over our lives show only the silver lining to those, our dear departed ones who have gone to see their King in his beauty and dwell with him for evermore.

Why spent in pain and sore distress, But on the rest Christ gives thee now, With victory's crown upon thy brow.

With patience was thy suffering borne, For meekness did thy life adorn Why grief and suffering all are past And God hath called thee home at last.

The loved ones who have gone before Have met thee on the other shore And sing with thee the song of praise
