The Lucky Ones are Those Who Happen to Fall in Love Again After Marriage!"

This is what Barbara Forbes said when she at last saw her husband for what he was: a visionary. Naturally, with respect gone, love also went.

But Barbara was a good woman and longed ardently to fall in love with her husband again. She had heard of cases of a re-birth of love, in marriage, after disillusionment. "Why can't I be one of the lucky ones?" she asked herself.

Barbara loved no other man; that was one favorable fact. And another was that—like most wives—she always, the little boy in her man. She could cry the childhood photographs of Neil when, like most she was always "getting into hot water"—always understood!

he loved, too, the picture of Neil in his early days—those years in which a young man is thrust into the world, and until he makes a sheltered life

LAI D TO REST.—The funeral of the late Phillip I. McMahon took place yesterday morning from his residence, 90 Elm Avenue to St. Dunstan's Cathedral thence to R. C. Cemetery. The pall bearers were Messrs A. E. DesRoches, J. McAlister, P. Hughes, Robert Dewar, James McEachern and Reaney Gay. The services at the church were performed by Rev. Fr. McQuaid and at the grave by Rev. Maurice McDonald. The late Mr. McMahon who had been ill for some time with heart trouble, was confined to his bed for nearly two weeks previous to his death on Saturday. He was 67 years of age and was a most capable carriage painter having followed his trade in Charlottetown for many years. He was also well known for the interest he took in horse racing having acted as judge of distance at many meets. He was a most estimable citizen and the news of his death will be learned with widespread regret. There are left to mourn besides his widow, four sons and two daughters—the sons are Pte. Phillip I. McMahon at present undergoing treatment in a sanatorium, (Boston) and Louis at home, and Leonard in Boston. The daughters are Jack and Bessie both in Charlottetown.

Eskran, Germany, Dec. 23rd., 1918

Dear Mother:—Just a short note, as I have very little news to tell you and I am feeling very tired tonight. I am not working very hard, but I seem to get tired all the same. There is only two more days till Christmas. I would like to be home, but I guess I will be there by next. I am staying in a German house now and they looking after us fine. Sunday they gave us for dinner soup, roast meat and fine potatoes, today we had meat cakes, potatoes and salad and it was all fine. Every place we go, they seem to treat us so well. We have had a very wet day in fact the weather is showery lately. I had a box with a pair of socks, candy etc from (Mrs Match) I mean (Jean Currie) I have got a lot of boxes for Xmas from so many different people. I still

It is so good of them to send us so many nice parcels and I assure them I thank them very much and can tell them they are all appreciated. I must write a letter to uncle Jack now, so I will close with love to father, Will and yourself. Your loving son, Jack.

War to Peace

Bringing Our Soldiers' Dependents to Canada

IN England, there is a colony of Canadian women who went overseas in order to be near their husbands. There are also in England and France many women who married Canadian soldiers and have never seen Canada.

It is one of the duties that Canada has incurred through the war to bring back these dependents of our soldiers with all speed, and to help establish their home life.

Up till the time the Armistice was signed, some 22,000 women and children were returned. There still remain about 50,000 to be brought back.

These 50,000 soldiers' dependents will be returned to Canada at the public expense. Those who have already arrived in Canada since November 11th, 1918, will have their ocean and railway fare refunded by the Government.

The facilities for transporting soldiers and their dependents are limited to about 30,000 monthly. Therefore, women and children will be returned to Canada at the rate of about 5,000 to 7,000 each month. Many of the women will be accompanied by their husbands. On every boat carrying 200 or more unaccompanied women there is a Y.W.C.A. secretary.

At the Ports. To these 50,000 returning women and children every care is being given. Until they reach the shores of Canada they are in charge of the Overseas Militia Department.

At HALIFAX they are welcomed by the Women's Reception Committee, composed of women who have been engaged in war activities. This committee has been organized for nearly two years and has been doing splendid work.

At ST. JOHN there is also a committee representing all the organizations interested. This committee, although more recently formed, is giving excellent service. The National Y.W.C.A. has assigned two secretaries for work at this port.

On each of these Committees there is a trained nurse to give necessary attendance.

At the ports the organizations meet every boat. Locate the women's luggage. Take charge of the babies. Bring the women to a cosy rest room. Here cots and baths are provided for the children. Hot lunch can be secured. Overnight accommodation is arranged.

Women who are too sick to proceed on their journey are taken to the local hospitals. Women who are without money receive assistance from the Patriotic Fund; are provided with lunch baskets and money to buy meals on the train.

These organizations also secure the railroad tickets for the women, get their money changed, give them such information as they need. The workers accompany the women to the train.

The Repatriation Committee have a nurse, trained in social work, lent by the Victorian Order of Nurses to act as the committee's representative at each port.

On the Train.

On each train carrying unaccompanied women and children there is a Red Cross nurse, experienced in social service who has been enrolled by the Canadian Association of Graduate Nurses. This nurse carries with her first aid supplies and an emergency fund of money furnished by the Red Cross Society.

Telegrams are sent ahead to the local branch of the Patriotic Fund and to the local Reception Committees giving the number who will arrive.

On Arrival.

The Rotary Clubs of Canada have undertaken to provide motor cars to take the women and children from the station to their homes.

The Patriotic Fund have undertaken to provide temporary accommodation and other necessary assistance at cities and towns en route and at points of destination.

The main function of this nation-wide organization is to care for soldiers' dependents. It is therefore fitting that they should be responsible for arrangements for all the returning women and children.

Many other well-known organizations have been doing admirable work—meeting trains, providing rest-rooms, canteens and hostels and generally caring for the women and children. It is important that these organizations continue this work and co-operate as closely as possible with the Patriotic Fund.
