THE GUARDIAN is indebted to Mr. Leith E. Brecken, agent for the Liverpool and London and Globe Insurance Company for a neat calendar.

THE city surveyor has received positive instruction to enforce the By-Law in re the removal of snow from off the side walks. Any person not complying with the same will be proceeded against. 1901 Ex. & Pat.

MR. S. N. EARLE'S new music studio is now in the Newson Block, in the rooms lately occupied by Dr. C. L. Strickland. Piano, organ, pipe organ, voice culture and singing. The elementary and theoretical parts taught free to students.

TODAY will be a busy one in Charlottetown. Knowing that many merchants and clerks will not be able to go to dinner Mr. John Mills of the Hub Cafe will prepare a special dinner which will suit the rush. A quick dinner and a good dinner is what is wanted.

THE SACKVILLE POST SAYS: The new building on the pier at Cape Tormentine is nearing completion. It is 100 feet long by thirty feet broad and will contain a mail room, two waiting rooms and a store room. The pier, after running out straight for a long distance, turns to the right and then, after stretching parallel to the shore makes another turn at right angles in the direction of the shore. It is on this last section that the building alluded to has been erected, the railway close to its seaward end.

THE series of special services conducted by Major (Miss) Galt at the Salvation Army came to a close last night. The services have been largely attended, the gifted young lady attracting members of all denominations. Her subject last night was a sure for Agnosticism. It was not a scientific reply to the sophistries of agnosticism but an earnest evangelistic address. Her text was, "If any man will do His will he shall know of the doctrine." Miss Galt was at one time stationed in Charlottetown.—Ottawa Free Press.

At Cable Head, West St. Peter's Bay on the morning of December 9th, 1901, there passed peacefully away to her Eternal Home. Mrs. Elizabeth Anderson, widow of the late Alexander Anderson and eldest daughter of the late David McLaren. She has left sons and daughters, brothers and sisters, grand children and great grand children, and has gone to meet many dear ones on the other shore, including her husband and three daughters, who, several years ago preceded her to the Better Land.

"We all do fade as a leaf,"
Oh how sweet will it be, in that beautiful Land,
So free from all sorrow and pain,
With songs on our lips and with harps in our hands,
To meet one another again.

The window dressing was in charge of Mr. John Kennedy and the encomiums of praise heard shows that his efforts are appreciated on all sides.

To Know What Your are Taking When Using Catarrh Medicine.

Catarrh is the short route to consumption, and the importance of early and judicious treatment of catarrh, whether located in the head, throat or bronchial tubes, cannot be too strongly emphasized. The list of catarrh cures is as long as the moral law and the forms in which they are administered, numerous and confusing, from sprays, inhalers, washes, ointments, and salves to powders, liquids, and tablets. The tablet form is undoubtedly the most convenient and the most effective but with nearly all advertised catarrh remedies it is almost entirely a matter of guess work as to what you are taking into your system, as the proprietors, while making all sorts of claims as to what their medicines will do, always keep it a close secret as to what they are.

The success and popularity of the new catarrh cure, Stuart's Catarrh Tablets, is largely because it not only cures catarrh sufferers who use these tablets but know what they are taking into their systems. Stuart's Catarrh Tablets are composed of Red Gum, Blood Root and similar valuable and antiseptic ingredients, and are pleasant to the taste and being dissolved in the mouth they take immediate effect upon the mucous lining of the throat, nasal passages and whole respiratory tract.

The cures that Stuart's Catarrh Tablets have accomplished in old chronic cases of catarrh are little short of remarkable, and the advantage of knowing what you are putting into your stomach is of paramount importance when it is remembered that the cocaine or morphine habit has been frequently contracted as the result of using secret catarrh remedies. Stuart's Catarrh Tablets meet with cordial approval from physicians, because their antiseptic character render them perfectly safe for the general public to use and their composition makes them a common sense cure for all forms of catarrhal troubles. All druggists sell them at 50 cts. for full sized package.
