Lt. Governor Bernard Lauds New Hospital

Following is the text of the address delivered by His Honour Lieutenant Governor J. A. Bernard at the opening of the Western Hospital, Alberton, yesterday: "This is an important day in the history of Alberton and the surrounding countryside. It officially opens an era in the treatment of those who desire it in a very fine institution where up-to-date methods of diagnosis and treatment are executed and where the very best service for attendance on patients is practised. The facilities provided here for the care of the sick, the ground, the buildings, the furnishings and equipment, and the whole plant is a living monument to all who have contributed to bring it into being. Hatched in the minds of men and women of this part of the Island who had the great needs of the district at heart, and given power and impetus by the contributions, donations and collections of a patriotic and grateful people, presided over by the Sisters of the great order of St. Martha, entrusted by your prominent patron, the Provincial Government, and financially assisted by the Government, its doors are now open to all denominations and creeds. "The Western Hospital fills a long felt want in this part of the country. Years ago the absence of such an institution caused many untimely deaths, but today we find that our death rate has been materially reduced chiefly through the efforts of this Hospital, and though it is so heavily patronized that it is mostly filled to capacity, here lives are prolonged and people are saved because of the hospital, the doctors and the engine drive. Electric in stock now, gas engine 10 day delivery. The Summerside Hardware Co.

side, frequently in the dead of night, often in times, but some people not fortunate. "The service which this institution will render in alleviating our ills and healing our wounds will be a service which cannot be measured by a financial yardstick; there is no such measure as hospitals are presided over by the Sisters of St. Martha. The love for their profession and their devotion to duty, frequently under difficulties and drawbacks, is an outstanding evidence of their patient inspiring example of sincere and unswerving loyalty to the organization and to the patients. "I congratulate the men and women and the boys and girls who have worked so diligently and have contributed so generously to make the hospital a reality, and while it is not fully completed I feel that to fail in continuing to assist it would be a calamity. People are becoming more hospitable minded and you are extremely fortunate in having in this centre this fine institution whose doors and facilities are open to all who require its valuable service. "And now, in my official capacity as Lieutenant Governor of the Province I declare this Western Hospital officially opened to the public and I hope that the splendid spirit of generosity which has always been evidenced by the people of this district toward your hospital during its inception and building process will be continued in the future, and that the good work will go on unabated. "This Hospital is yours. You erected it for your own uses and purposes for the healing of the sick and the prevention of infectious diseases and it will continue in its ministrations for your benefit a long time, and it is supplied with the necessary vitality to do so. "I hope that its doors may never close, and that the spirit of ability, efficiency and patriotism which was instrumental in bringing it to this day will not be found wanting in the future."

Installation Of Parking Meters Begun. The installation of parking meters on Water Street, Summerside, commenced yesterday on the north side of the street between Central and Spring Streets. The parking lanes were marked off and the posts on which the meters will be placed were partially installed. It is expected that the work will be completed in two or three days. It has been decided to have angle parking on the north side of the street and parallel parking on the south side. This will make a much wider traffic area which will be a great help as it has been with difficulty that two cars could pass many times when other vehicles projected too far into the center of the street. While the new parking regulations will not be enforced for some time, as far as the issuing of summonses to violators is concerned the general public is expected to deposit coins as soon as the meters are installed when they park on Water Street. Mr. W. L. Currie of Jones Electric Ltd., Halifax, from whom the meters have been purchased, is supervising their installation.

easy task. He believed, however, that the magnificent cooperation shown by the people during the past four years would be carried on in the future. Hon. George Barbour, Minister of Public Works spoke briefly and reminded his hearers that when our fathers first came to this country they erected churches and schools and institutions such as the Western Hospital were the outcome of such institutions built on Christian principles by a Christian people. A Privilege and Pleasure. Hon. J. Watson MacNaught, K. C., M.P. stated that he did not consider it a duty to be present at the opening of the hospital but rather a great privilege and a great pleasure. He paid tribute to the people of West Prince for the great work they had so splendidly begun and carried to such a magnificent conclusion. Hon. Alex. Matheson, Minister of Health and Welfare gave an outline of the Federal Government health plan and stated that although the Western Hospital was not eligible for a share in the $500,000 Federal grant due to the fact that the grant had been issued subsequent to its erection, that the Provincial Government would assist in any way possible and that many facilities such as the aircraft for transporting patients from outlying districts would again be available this coming winter. Although the weather during the early part of the afternoon was somewhat inclement, a large crowd was in attendance by the time the official opening took place. A splendid variety of entertainment was provided by the management and outdoor meals provided by the ladies of the various communities from Tignish to Portage.

Gov't Officials In Attendance At Field Day

"There is no food in the world like an oyster. Oysters of oysters will create more human food than any other crop in the world" said Premier J. Walter Jones in addressing the gathering at the first field day to be held at the Biological Station, Bideford, since the war, yesterday afternoon. Brief addresses were also made by Hon. R. W. Mayhew, Minister of Fisheries, J. Watson MacNaught, M.P., parliamentary Assistant to the Minister of Fisheries and Dr. W. H. Needer, assistant deputy minister. Mr. Foster Sharpe, president of the P.E.I. Oyster Growers Association presided. Premier Jones who was the first speaker said that it was the first time he had ever attended and he was trying to learn something about oysters. He explained a number of experiments that are now being carried out to assist the fishing industry and said that the Provincial Government is seeking a way to spend money in the most efficient manner for the benefit of the fisheries. Oysters feed on the pastures of the sea which are more fertile than land which, he said, and they have perfect food around them all the time. He suggested that the legislature at Ottawa might do better work if they were fed on sea food. He stressed the need for the use of modern methods in our fishing industry. "The oyster industry should be on a bigger scale, be more mechanized, and it will bring more wealth to the province," he said. He stated that people sometimes oppose new methods and he told of one case when an American contractor wanted to lease a whole bay and the project got in the newspapers and the people opposed it and it fell through. Now, he said, the government will do things out of the papers till they are accomplished fact and tells the papers after.

Pleased With Province

Hon. Mr. Mayhew who was introduced by Mr. MacNaught expressed his pleasure at being present and said that the purpose of his visit was to meet the people and hear what they have to say, rather than to make speeches. When he got back to Ottawa he would know more about the fishing industry than he does now. As he has travelled over the Province he has seen a good team in the newspapers and the people opposed it and it fell through. Now, he said, the government will do things out of the papers till they are accomplished fact and tells the papers after.

Sweeping Changes In Ring Rules

(By The Associated Press) BOSTON, Aug. 18.—Sweeping changes in Massachusetts rules governing prizefighters and others connected with the ring were approved today by the state's executive council. The new regulations, already sanctioned by the boxing commission, now become the official restrictions for all bouts in the state. Recommended by a special legislative committee, the proposals cover boxers, managers, referees, trainers, seconds, judges, timekeepers, physicians and matchmakers. All would be required to pay fees ranging from $10 to $25. No more than two boxers under one management would be permitted to participate at any one time. Matchmakers would be limited to arranging bouts for only one club unless granted written permission by the state boxing commission. Boxers under 18 could not compete for more than six rounds; 19, not more than eight rounds; 20, not more than 10 rounds; and for more than 10 rounds they must be at least 21. Two referees would be assigned to each match.

Cape Breton Horses Win Racing Events

(By The Canadian Press) ST. STEPHEN, N. B., Aug. 18.—Cape Breton horses stole the show in today's opening program of a three-day harness racing meet when R. G. Jababee's Jerry Lee Volo of North Sydney and Cyclone, also from North Sydney, won two heats each in the first and second divisions of a 2:17 trot and pace. Honors of the other event—a 2:22 trot and pace—were divided by Duke of Hyland, Sackville, N. B., Louise Fingo, Cowardin, N. B., and Mac Fingo, Oxford, N. S. Summary: 2:17 Trot and Pace First Division Jerry Lee Volo (O'Brien) 2:11 Baldie (Burt) 2:18 Colonel Dan (MacDonald) 2:23 Yankee Girl (MacAulduff) 4:34 Delilah B. (Walker) 5:53 Carnation Lady (Hayes) 7:67 Hal McKinney (Saunders) 6:77 Time: 2:18 2:11; 4:22. Second Division Cyclone (MacDonald) 1:13 June Morning (Dewitt) 3:21 Money Maker (O'Brien) 3:32 Free Trade (MacLeod) 4:44 Graham Hanover (Woodcock) 5:54 Time: 2:09; 2:08; 2:09. 2:22 Trot and Pace Duke of Hyland (Smith) 1:33 Louise Fingo (Burt) 2:13 Mac Fingo (O'Brien) 2:13 Professor Clegg (Hankinson) 4:44 Time: 2:14 2-5; 2:15; 2:18. of Halifax had split sets with Hamilton Quin of Ottawa when the rain halted proceedings. Among things still to come in the week-long tournament is the father-and-son doubles, in which John Piers and other David or Jackie Piers of Truro, N. S., will be among competitors. In today's play two Bridgewater ladies, Mrs. Jean Harris and Mrs. Elsie Harrington, entered the finals of the women's singles by scoring straight set wins over Miss Ann Sanderson and Mrs. F. V. Woodbury, both of Halifax.

Rain Puts Crimp Into Tennis Play

BRIDGEWATER, N. S., Aug. 18.—(CP)—Rain put a crimp in today's Nova Scotia tennis tournament play. Only two matches in the ladies' singles division were completed. The quarter-finals in the men's singles got underway, with Don Bauld, defending champ, leading two sets to love over Red Quin of Ottawa. Bruce Logie of Toronto was one set up on Hugh Joyce, Newton, Mass., and Gordon Bauld

Two-Man Czech Team Clash With Aussies

BROOKLINE, Mass., Aug. 18.—(AP)—The two-man Czechoslovakian Davis Cup tennis team's hopes for inter-zone final success rebounded today when they noted their luck in the draw for the opening singles clashes with the favored Australian forces. Coach Karl Kozeluh beamed when, in the State House in Boston, Lieutenant-Governor Arthur Coolidge of Massachusetts, paired Jaroslav Drobny, the Czech ace against Billy Sidwell, a newcomer to Davis Cup competition for one of tomorrow's singles matches here at Longwood. Then Quist gave the other singles coupled Adrian Quist, the Australian captain, with Vladimir Cernik, the second ranking Czechoslovakian performer. The Czech ace added encouragement by announcing that, due to the condition of Colin Long, his doubles partner, he would be unable to announce the make-up of the Australian tandem for Friday's team match much before the 24-hour deadline. Long twisted an ankle last week. In the event that Long will be out of action, Quist can call upon either Sidwell or Geoff Brown for the doubles action against Drobny and Cernik. Kozeluh had high hopes that the capable Drobny would master Sidwell in their singles clash tomorrow and he and Cernik defeat Quist and ailing Long, or his replacement, in Friday's team match.

Caustic Comment From Western Canada Writer

(By JIM McCURDY) Canadian Press Staff Writer EDMONTON, Aug. 18.—One of the most amusing and, at the same time, castigating comments on Canada's showing at the XIV Olympiad at London came from Stan (Edmonton Bulletin) Moher. After viewing the many "failed-to-quality" notes tacked after the names of some of Canada's leading athletes he wrote a column. "As the war commences used to phrase things: the news from the Olympic front has been mostly bad where Canadians are concerned. "Joe Blow" of Canada ran third in his heat in the 400 meters, failed to qualify. Speedboy Jones of Canada was 11th in the egg-and-spoon race, failed to qualify. "So the feverish news stories for for keeps when Hungary, of all countries, edged us in the basketball competition. "We hadn't heard that the Hungarians even knew what a basketball looked like, much less that they boasted a pretty keen knowledge of what to do with it, once the referee's whistle went. "Moher asks why such an athletically-minded country such as Canada should put up such a poor showing. "Lack of funds, lack of adequate training facilities? Now we're getting close to the answer. An apathy to track and field on the part of Canada's fandom? "For sure this has contributed to the relatively-poor showing of our 1948 Olympic contingent. "Wasn't it about three years ago that the Dominion Government made much of a physical fitness program it was inaugurated."

Allen Leading Driver At Meet

Angle Allen, well known race driver won the Victoria Driving Club trophy yesterday at the anniversary racing meet when he led the individual drivers in most points chalked up. Allen had a first, second, two thirds and a fourth in the five races in which he participated. The Patriot Pub. Calbeck. For the Class C Pace—Roland Wood and C. H. Chandler. For the Class D Pace—Guardian Pub. Co. and Geo. Gregory. 22 Trot and Pace—Walter Hennessey and Milton's Old Spain.

Lines Drawn For Showdown

(By MURRAY ROSE) NEW YORK, Aug. 18.—(AP)—The battle lines were drawn today for the first big showdown between New York's warring boxing promoters. Mike Jacobs' well-established 20th Century Sporting Club completed the arrangements for the second half of its fist double-header by signing welterweight champion Ray Robinson to meet Kid Gavilan, the Cuban gladiator, in a non-title 10-rounder. Now the 20th and its newcomer rival, the Tournament of Champions, are all set to go all out for the boxing fans' money with shows one day apart, Sept. 21 and 22. Here's the way the twin bills compare: Sept. 21—Tournament of champions at Roosevelt Stadium, Jersey City, N.J. Middleweight champion Tony Zale, Gary, Ind., vs. Marcel Cerdan, European champion from Casablanca, title bout, 15 rounds. Heavyweight Jersey Joe Walcott, Camden, N.J., vs. Gus Lesnevich, Cliffside Park, N.J., 15 rounds. Sept. 22—20th Century Sporting Club at Yankee Stadium, New York: Lightweight champion Ike Williams, Trenton, N.J., vs. Jesse Flores, Stockton, Calif., title bout, 15 rounds. Robinson vs. Gavilan, non-title, 10 rounds. The 20th thus has a 2-1 edge in champions with Williams and Robinson as against Zale.

English Team Victims Of Bad Defeat

(By MICHAEL O'MARA) Canadian Press Staff Writer LONDON, Aug. 18.—Don Bradman's Australian tourists today handed England one of her worst defeats ever suffered at cricket, Britons' own national sport. The final score in the test match at Kensington oval showed Australia winning by the shockingly-wide margin of an innings and 149 runs. That gave the victors the series by four games to none with one match drawn. No other touring side had ever won as many tests in England. England scored only 52 runs in the first innings of the final match and was all out today for 136 runs in the second innings. The game also marked the end of the test career of the fabulous Bradman. In a brief speech from the pavilion balcony, he confirmed that he would play no more test cricket "despite anything you have read to the contrary." Meantime, the British public took the blow hard. In the streets, in pubs and at newspaper offices where the latest score was displayed, faces were long. British cricket enthusiasts are really worried over the mediocre standard of play in Britain. Newspapers are devoting editorial columns—usually reserved for discussion of national and international events—to the sports question of the hour: "How to win back The Ashes?" Australia won The Ashes, symbol of commonwealth cricket supremacy, by her victories in the test matches. The Evening Standard probably put its finger on the root of the trouble when it emphasized in an editorial "Tuesday that English top-flight cricketers are just too old. In the national batting averages, the first 14 are all over 30 and the bowlers all but one of the first 13 is also over 30.
