—SHOW ENJOYED.—The New Annan Women's Institute appeared in the glory of the Strand Theatre footlights, Kensington, on Friday night, in one of the most enjoyable comedy dramas seen there for some time. Mr. Talmage Montgomery discharged the duties of chairman and nicely passed the several numbers along to the audience. The dramatic talent of the Institute was well represented in the subjoined Cast of Characters: Josiah Armstrong, a wealthy farmer.—Allie McGill; Wellington Armstrong, a wealthy broker.—Jarvis Dalzell; Benjamin Butler, a wealthy merchant.—Walter Moore; William LeBlanc, a wealthy broker.—Harry Moase; Henry Newcombe, a rising young author.—Albert Moase; Hiram Penstroke, Wellington Armstrong's confidential man.—Arthur Wright; James, Wellington Armstrong's butler.—Ben Pillman; Mrs. Wellington Armstrong, wife of Wellington.—Mrs. N. J. McNeill; Jemmy, wife of Josiah; Alice Wright; Gladys Armstrong, daughter of Wellington.—Louise Moase; Edith LeBlanc, daughter of LeBlanc.—Jennie Bowness. Specialties between the acts. The characters, without exception, personated well the part that they impersonated, and an even balance was maintained throughout. The denouement of the drama was cleverly concealed, and as cleverly exposed, and the anticipations of the audience were fully realized. Not a dull moment was suffered to intervene, and the short respites between acts were adequately supplied by enjoyable specialties. The specialties included violin solos by Maldon Dalzell and Allie McNeill; autoharp, Mrs. George Ramsay; piano, Miss Florence McNeill; step dancing by Sambo Jackson. The whole performance was truly excellent, and the large audience were heartily entertained.

—C. W. L.—The first annual meeting of the St. Mary's Sub-division of the Catholic Women's League in Kensington was held in their hall there on April 15, and keen interest was shown. The President, Mrs. (Dr.) E. E. Gillis, submitted the following report: The St. Mary's Branch of the Catholic Women's League, Kensington, has passed the organization stage, and is about to enter a regularly constituted field of action. Of the C. W. L. it has been said that it is a wonderful medium doing good work. Now what good work is it possible for the Women's League to perform? Woman has been called man's helpmate but she has proved herself to be his equal, and

—Women A Bundle Of Nerves
"Everything irritates me,—I am a bundle of nerves, I ache all over and cannot sleep and am so dependent." This extract from a letter written from one woman to another describes the condition of many women who suffer from feminine ailments. Nothing will relieve this distressing condition so surely as Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, made from roots and herbs. For fifty years it has been restoring sick and ailing women of the Dominion of Canada to health and strength.
