FOR DANDRUFF, FALLING HAIR OR ITCHY SCALP—25 CENT "DANDERINE"

Save your hair! Danderine destroys dandruff and stops falling hair at once—Grows hair, we prove it.

If you care for heavy hair, that glistens with beauty and is radiant with life; has an incomparable softness and is fluffy and lustrous you must use Danderine, because nothing else accomplishes so much for the hair.

Just one application of Knowlton's Danderine will double the beauty of your hair, besides it immediately dissolves every particle of dandruff; you cannot have nice, heavy, healthy hair if you have dandruff. This destructive scurf robs the hair of its lustre, its strength and its very life, and if not overcome it produces a feverishness and itching of the scalp; the hair roots famish, loosen and die; then the hair falls out fast.

If your hair has been neglected and is thin, faded, dry, scraggy or too oily, don't hesitate, but get a 25 cent bottle of Knowlton's Danderine at any drug store or toilet counter; apply a little as directed and ten minutes after you will say this was the best investment you ever made.

We sincerely believe, regardless of everything else advertised that if you desire soft, lustrous, beautiful hair and lots of it—no dandruff—no itching scalp and no more falling hair—you must use Knowlton's Danderine. If eventually—why not now? A 25 cent bottle will truly amaze you.

...*FORTUNE BRIDGE.—The half yearly examinations of Fortune Bridge school took place on Dec. 24th, and was largely attended by trustees and parents. The school was beautifully decorated with chains and bells of red, white and blue. After the examination which was a credit to both teachers and scholars, a well chosen program was rendered, consisting of recitations, singing, etc. Last but not least, the well-loaded tree was relieved of its burden, which contained a present for every child from the teachers and abundance of candy. Evidently the teachers, Miss Elsie Francis and Miss Dorothy Wightman, were not forgotten when each was presented with a beautiful pair of gloves and numerous other presents, showing the esteem with which they are held by parents and pupils. Following some very complimentary speeches by the trustees and others a vote of thanks was tendered the teachers by the secretary, Douglas Aitken. After singing the National Anthem the affair was brought to a close.

...*BEREAVEMENT. — The early days of the new year were saddened is Souris by the gloom of death being in its midst. The many friends of Annie, wife of Archibald Currie Collector of Customs, heard with deep regret on Saturday morning, Jan. 4th that she had passed away at midnight, at the age of 56. The deceased was married to Mr. Currie in 1879 in Charlottetown where they lived for a year when they moved to Souris where they have since resided. Mrs. Currie was the second daughter of the late William G. Wright of Charlottetown. She united with the Methodist Church in early girlhood, and after marriage became a member of the Presbyterian Church. Her life was not free from trials, a beloved daughter died less than two years ago. Before marriage she taught music for some years. In truth she had the music soul; and those who had the privilege of listening to her improvisations in the Sabbath twilight hours shall not forget them. Indeed her great delight was in music and children. Her last work in the Church she loved was in training the children for a Christmas service. But God's finger touched her and she slept. She leaves to mourn her loss a husband, two sons:—Sydney in the United States William D. at home and a daughter Miss Patti. Her two brothers William and Louis, and three sisters Mrs. McFarlane, Mrs. (Rev.) Jos. Johnston and Mrs. George Holbrook live in Charlottetown. Another sister, Mrs. S. H. ...*SAD DEATH.—Lisping in innocent prattle about the dolls and candies she wanted Santa Claus to bring her Christmas and with the unfinished words telling her heart's desire still on her lips, little Emma Flora Chaisson, aged 4 years, died early Saturday at a Sanitarium in Houston as the results of burns received about her body Friday, says a Houston, Texas, exchange. Between death and the last words uttered there was only a few moments of time. The child was the daughter of Frank and Mrs. Chaisson, son of I.S. Chaisson, Souris, residing at No. 1712 Nance street. The father is an employee of the Southern Pacific railroad company, and has been in the service of that company the past ten years. The accident took place Friday morning when Mrs. Chaisson was preparing breakfast for her husband. She had completed her work and had left the kitchen. The child in some way that could not be determined, came in contact with the fire in the stove, its dress caught and before the flames could be extinguished, was burned on the left side and left arm. The parents hurried her to St. Joseph's infirmary where the mother remained until the little girl died early Saturday.

MURDERERS ESCAPE JAIL IN AUTO

CHICAGO, Jan. 13.—Two murderers and a burglar whose sentences ranged from ten years to life imprisonment, drove quietly up to the gates inside the grounds at the penitentiary at Joliet, Illinois (Saturday afternoon) in a stolen automobile, while a watchful guard obligingly opened the great barred gates for them.

Outside, they threw on their high speed, and whirled to freedom south and east of the penitentiary while the guard was trying to explain to his superiors how he came to let them go and why he did not guard more closely the automobile at the prison.

The three escaped convicts are from Cook county.

Mr. McWeeny, chief of police, sent out automobiles loaded with policemen, who are armed with rifles and pistols from the south and southwest Chicago stations. He has warned every Chicago policeman to be on the watch for the auto bandits.

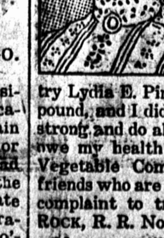
WOMEN, AVOID OPERATIONS

Many Unsuccessful — And Worse Suffering Often Follows. Mrs. Rock's Case A Warning.

The following letter from Mrs. Orville Rock will show how unwise it is for women to submit to the dangers of a surgical operation when often it may be avoided by taking Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. She was four weeks in the hospital and came home suffering worse than before.

Here is her own statement.

Paw Paw, Mich.—"Two years ago I suffered very severely with a displacement. I could not be on my feet for a long time. My physician treated me for several months without much relief and at last sent me to Ann Arbor for an operation. I was there four weeks and came home suffering worse than before. My mother advised me to try Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, and I did. Today I am well and strong and do all my own housework. I owe my health to Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and advise my friends who are afflicted with any female complaint to try it."—Mrs. ORVILLE ROCK, R. R. No. 5, Paw Paw, Michigan.



If you are ill do not drag along until an operation is necessary, but at once take Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

For thirty years it has been the standard remedy for women's ills, and has restored the health of thousands of suffering women. Why don't you try it?

Was Troubled With His Heart.

HAD TO GIVE UP WORK.

When the heart begins to beat irregularly, palpitates and throbs, skips beats, and sometimes seems to almost stop, it causes great anxiety and alarm.

Many people are kept in a state of morbid fear of death, become weak, worn and miserable, and are unable to attend to either social or business duties, through this unnatural action of the heart.

To all such sufferers Milburn's Heart and Nerve Pills will give prompt and permanent relief.

Mr. Alfred Male, Eloida, Ont., writes:—"I was troubled with my heart for two or three years. I thought sometimes that I would die. I went to the doctor, and he said he could not do anything for me. I had to give up work. My wife persuaded me to try Milburn's Heart and Nerve Pills. The first box relieved me, so I kept on until I had taken seven boxes, and they cured me. I would not be without them on any account, as they are worth their weight in gold. I advise my friends and neighbours who are troubled with heart or nerve trouble to try them."

Milburn's Heart and Nerve Pills are 50 cents a box, 3 boxes for $1.25, at all dealers, or mailed direct on receipt of price by The T. Milburn Co., Limited, Toronto Ont.

RISE IN OHIO RIVER CHECKED BY THE COLD

LOUISVILLE, Ky., Jan. 13.—Police and fire department employes working to move families from districts menaced by the Ohio river flood, were cheered this morning by news that the rise was less rapid than registered last night. While nearly 1,000 persons had been driven from their homes it was believed property damage would not be heavy, as in previous "record" floods.

The rise at Paducah had been checked by the cold weather this morning and indications were that the crest there would not reach the extreme mark forecast last night. Train service was being restored in western Kentucky.

EVANSVILLE, Ind., Jan. 13.—Between Lawrenceburg, Ind., and Cave-In-Rock, Ill., land adjacent to the Wabash river is inundated three to twenty feet, and property loss will run into a high figure. Tugs and steamboats here have been lending assistance to the flood-stricken dwellers in the bayous.

LEAPS DOWN A CHIMNEY TO ESCAPE A POLICEMAN

NEWBURYPORT, Jan. 13.—Under the hallucination that he was pursued by something more than a policeman, John Lucy, 20 years old, climbed out on the roof of his house in Caldwell's court, scaled the chimney and lowered himself inside. After a time his grip slipped and he dropped—and the entire police force and fire department of the city was called into requisition to get him out.

While on his way home a police officer spoke to Lucy. The officer says Lucy had been drinking. Anyway, Lucy began to run, and the policeman, suspecting something wrong, ran after him.

Lucy darted into the house, with the policeman following not far behind.

Up in his room, Lucy heard the step as the policeman mounted the stairs. He promptly climbed out the window and hid behind the chimney.

But still that policeman came on. When Lucy peered around the chimney, a moment later, the policeman was preparing to ascend to the ridge pole. The only thing Lucy could think to do was to drop down the chimney—and he did.

Sometime ago Lucy was injured on the railroad and one arm was cut off at the shoulder. When he had lowered himself inside the flue, he missed that arm sorely. His body wasn't broad enough to fill the flue and, the moment his grip weakened, he began slipping.

As he went down he began to yell. The policeman sought help and officers worked for some time trying to liberate the man, but Lucy's grip wouldn't hold. Once, after they had him fairly started up, he slipped back and went on down still another story.

Then the police called the firemen. They came with ropes and ladders and did their utmost, but Lucy couldn't be budged. There was nothing to do but tear down the chimney. Brick by brick, row by row, the chimney was lowered, until finally, just as the day was breaking, Lucy came out, a much blacker man than when he went in.

MOONSHINER KILLED IN FIGHT WITH OFFICERS.

ASHEVILLE, N. C., Jan. 13—In a sharp battle with revenue officers who had been on trail of a desperate gang of moonshiners for several days, Mack Moss, alleged leader of the gang, was shot and instantly killed by the revenue men early yesterday. The moonshiners then retreated. The officers and posse are following.

MINISTER ENLISTS STRONG ARM SQUAD.

CHICAGO, Jan. 13—Seventeen men of the First United Presbyterian Church have organized a "strong arm squad" to protect women going to and from church for evening services. Rev. James E. Walker, the pastor called on the men of his congregation to help protect the women, and yesterday from his pulpit announced the names of seventeen muscular individuals who agreed to go wherever the pastor assigned them to escort women to and from church. The move was decided on after the minister learned that two women of his congregation had been followed by rowdies a week ago.

JACK "HORNER" A REALITY

LONDON, Jan. 3—Few people know that the nursery legend of "Little Jack Horner" conceals a real tragedy.

At the Reformation the chief of an abbey in the West of England resolved to surrender, and in token thereof to send the deeds of the religious house to Henry VIII, at Whitehall. For security's sake the abbot placed the documents in a pie dish and covered them with crust. The dish, without saying a word about the contents, he gave a to a lout, Jack Horner, with instructions to carry it by road to the King in London.

About half way Jack Horner became ravenous and came to the conclusion that it was foolish for him to starve while he was the custodian of a pie. So he broke the crust and put in his thumb and pulled out—a roll of parchments! The disgusted Horner chucked the lot into an adjacent brook.

The non-arrival of the deeds caused Bluff King Hal to suspect the abbot of contumacy, so His Majesty commanded that the poor cleric should be hanged.
